On Tuesday, November 19, the Presbytery of Toronto met in the Presbyterian Church, Milton, for the purpose of ordaining and inducting the Rev. A. Mahaffy, B. A., as pastor of that congregation. The Rev. Dr. Gregg addressed the pastor and the Rev. J. A. Morrison, B. A., the people. In the evening a reception was held in the school room; at which addresses were delivered by the Revs. Messrs. Mitchell, Mignot, Cameron and others.

The resignation of the Rev. J. L. Morin, M. A., pastor of St. John's French Church of this city, occupied the attention of Presbytery at a recent meeting. Representatives of the congregation were present, and stated that they were entirely satisfied with Mr. Morin's zeal and devotion to the evangelization of his fellow-countrymen, and of his Christian character. Mr. Morin, however, stated that he could not go out to collect funds for the erection of the new church, as required by the Board of French Evangelization; and accordingly pressed his resignation which the Presbytery reluctantly accepted.

On Sunday, October 27th, Mr. Morin preached his farewell sermon; and on the same day the pulpit was declared vacant by the Rev. Prof. Coussirat, B. A., D. D.; and a meeting of the congregation was called for Tuesday, November 5th: when a unanimous call was extended to the Rev. C. E. Amaron, M. A., B. D., editor-in-chief of L'Aurore, the organ of French Protestantism. This call was sustained by the Presbytery of Montreal at its meeting on November 19th, after considerable discussion.
