

- Certificate be bound to give to any one applying to him therefor, a certificate to that effect, upon payment by the party requiring the same, of two shillings and six pence currency.
- Penalty on Registrars not complying with all requirements of law. How removable. IV. Every Registrar shall, in the performance of his duties, comply with all the requirements of this Act, as well as with those of all other Acts relating to the Registration of Deeds, under a penalty not exceeding ten pounds currency for the first contravention of such requirements and of removal from office for the second, without prejudice to damages payable to any party, which may be recovered as well as the penalty (with costs) before any Court having jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount, by the party aggrieved by such contravention. 5 10
- As to memorials executed by persons who cannot write. V. The signature under which any memorial shall be executed, may be written by the hand of any other person when the person requiring the registration of such memorial does not know how to write, provided his name be accompanied by his ordinary mark which he shall make in the presence of the witnesses to the execution of the memorial; and this provision shall be held to have been the law from the time when the Registry Ordinance was brought into force. 15