

observed and taken at the death and burial of each convict shall be clearly laid down by the Inspectors in the rules and regulations.

XL. And be it enacted, That no punishments or privations of any kind shall be awarded in the Penitentiary, except by the Warden or other Officer acting for the time being in his room. And the Warden shall cause to be kept a Book of Record, which shall be written up daily, showing all complaints against convicts for improper conduct in the Penitentiary, and showing under separate columns the date of each complaint, the name of each convict implicated in each offence, the nature of each offence, the punishment awarded to it, the date of infliction, the signature of the Officer making the complaint and that also of the Officer who inflicted the sentence or saw it carried out; and there shall be a column in the said Book for the sentence, which shall be filled in by the Warden and signed by him. And no complaint by any Officer against any convict shall be entertained by the Warden until it is recorded in the said punishment Book; and no punishment shall be inflicted for any Offence until the day after the said offence shall have been committed; and no punishment shall be inflicted until the Warden has entered his award in the punishment Book. Provided always, that the Warden shall have power in the event of the refractory conduct of any convict rendering it necessary, summarily to remove such convict apart and to place him in a cell and to keep him there until the usual hour of punishment shall have arrived. And should the Inspectors authorize corporal punishment to be inflicted in the Prison, the Warden shall have recourse to it only in extreme cases, and shall not inflict more than seventy-five lashes for any one offence; and no corporal punishment shall be inflicted until the Physician shall have certified to the bodily fitness of the convict for such punishment; nor shall any such infliction be carried out except in the presence of the Warden and Physician.

As to punishments and privations.

XLI. And be it enacted, That if any convict or convicts shall offer violence to any Officer of the Penitentiary, or to any other convict, or do or attempt any injury to any building or any workshop or the appurtenances thereof, or shall attempt to escape, or shall resist or disobey any lawful command, the Officers of the Penitentiary shall use all suitable means to defend themselves, to secure the persons of the offenders, and to prevent any such attempt
