want more hazing

Dalhousie's freshman initiation program — toned down following last year's University ruling against hazing — ended successfully Saturday, but some freshmen still felt it could have been somewhat rougher. somewhat rougher.

Chairman Don Moors and his committee led the freshmen on a week-long series of activities de-signed to acquaint them with Campus life and institutions, beginning with receptions on Mon-day and Tuesday evenings at which the frosh met Dr. Kerr and Dean Hicks.

Wednesday night saw a successful Calypso dance, followed Thursday and Friday by a downtown parade, a film, roller skating and a semi-formal.

Initiation Committee member Bruce Davidson described fresh-man participation as "excellent" and had praise for the "well-spirited group"

The freshmen apparently joyed the week. Said one from Sarnia, Ont.: "The initiation was a lot of fun." Another freshman, Doug Kerr from Richmond, Que. commented, "The committee was very ambitious and efficient."

This year again, hazing was a controversial issue. The frosh, although being called upon to suffer mild indignities, were not treated harshly. In fact, Jim Gray of Saint John, N.B., said: "There was nothing to it and there could have been a lot more hazing."

Actually the program this year consisted more of a social initiation. No bones were broken, the only injury being to some freshord.

Plans include new Med building

The University Administra-tion has begun a five-year, $16,000,000 program for the construction of new buildings on the Studley and Carleton campi and the acquisition of land in their vicinity.

First evidence of the building boom on Studley is the renovation of the dining room at Shirreff Hall and the doubling of the residence capacity for women to over 200 - at a cost of $1.2 million. (See picture, left). Completion is scheduled for the end of October.

MED BUILDING

But architects plans are being drawn for a far more ambitious project -- a new medical building that may cost as much as $4,500,-000. The building will be located in the centre of the medical campus facing University Avenue and will cross Carleton Street which will be closed. The old Forrest Building will remain until it has outlived its usefullness and the

UNION BUILDING

Plans for the Student Union Building are somewhat less definite due to financial uncertainties. The SUB Committee has accumulated a fund of $90,000 from the annual $10 honourarium from the students authorized by a student referendum three years ago. Dal students look over the selection of books in the East Common Room, Old Men's Residence. Mr. R. W. Atwood, proprietor of the Univeristy Bookstore, consented to transfer initial operations to the larger area. The yearly headaches of long waits and unnecessary line-ups were eliminated by the use of student assistants. The very welcome increase in efficiency is due to the efforts of Students' Council President Al Robertson who stressed the caterpillarlike inconvenience of the controversial Bookstore in his election campaign.
