

very best wishes for results, which I trust will not only be a fine victory in Waterloo, but a more general and proper reward afford. in all our — at Ottawa.

Believe me

Very, respectfully yours

My dear Ben:

You don't want a long letter just now, but I must send a note of congrat-ulation on the course you have taken — the campaign you are carrying on and the prospects before you.
