Dear Mr. Meighen:

Permit me to extend sincere Congratulations on the attainment of your 84th birthday. I trust you will continue to enjoy good health and daily participation in your various interests.

If my father, John Lane, were still living, I know he would be sending you his warm regards at this time.

Both my sister and I, and our families, cherish the letter you wrote us on the occasion of Dad's passing in 1955, and are grateful for your kind thoughts about him.

We look forward with much anticipation to the publication of your biography, now in course of preparation by my friend Roger Graham, who was our next door neighbor in Regina a few years ago.

Respectfully and Cordially Yours,
Homer R. Gandy

The Right Hon. Arthur Meighen,
