Ottawa, 20th May, 1914.

Sir,-

With reference to your letter of the 12th instant, regarding the case of Noel Christmas, an Indian, of your Agency, who is suffering from a disease of the lungs, I beg to say that you may furnish him with relief supplies to the value of $1.50 a week. Every possible precaution should be taken which will prevent other members of the Christmas family from contracting the disease from which Noel is suffering.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
