

the best butter? (3) What kind of cattle are the best to fatten for beef? (4) Which breed of sheep give the finest or the longest wool (Fig. 75)? (5) Which make the best mutton? (6) Which breed of hogs is the best to fatten? (7) What does he feed them on? (8) Find out about the different kinds of horses and where they come from; those for carriage use, or for riding; and those for teaming and heavy farm work. (9) Have you a dog? Can he draw you in a sleigh or light waggon? (10) Is he like the dog in Figure 84? (11) Have you ever gone through a creamery? If not, take the first chance you get and see how butter and cheese are made. (12) Do you keep any poultry? (13) Ask some friend to tell you how many eggs are sent away from Canada every year. (14) Name the various kinds of food made from the different parts of a hog.

XI. PEOPLE

REVIEW QUESTIONS. — (1) Have you ever seen any people of another color than the white people? (2) Tell where the black people came from, and what sort of a country theirs was. (3) How did they live there, and how is it that there are black people in this country? (4) Can you tell what slaves are, and what is meant by slavery? (5) Are there any slaves in Canada? (6) How did the slaves in the United States become free?

(7) What people are called the yellow race? (8) Describe their dress and appearance. (9) What do we get from their country? (10) Have you ever seen any of this race?

(11) What people are the original inhabitants of our continent? (12) Why are the red men called Indians? (13) Give an account of how the Indians treated the early pioneers. (14) How did the early pioneers of the country travel? (15) How were the Indian people divided? (16) Are there any uncivilized Indians now? (17) What is an "Indian Reservation"? (18) Do any of the Indian children go to school?

(19) How many different white nations are represented in Figure 94? Do any of them speak English? (20) Can people of one country understand those of another? (21) Do all the Indians speak the same language?