

- dresses of sympathy on the occasion of his death, 43.
 Lincoln militia, 85, 97.
 Linen, manufacture of, 216.
 Lino, letters of, 254.
 Lion, sieur de, appointed as deputy of the Marquis de Tracy, 259.
 Liquor, duty on, 173, 174, 249; imported into C. B., 184; proposed tax on, 186; regulation of sale, 60, 185.
 Liquor traffic, the, in New France, 212, 213, 215, 217, 218, 219, 221, 222, 224, 225, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 241, 246, 247, 249, 251; meeting to discuss, 250; reduction in the number of taverns, 220.
 L'Isle Dieu, abbé de, letters of, 235, 236.
 Literary and Historical Society of Quebec, 12; charter of, 126, 129; efforts to obtain copies of certain historical papers in England, 14, 17; incorporation of, 12; transcription of documents for, 136.
 Little Belt, vessel, 183, 190.
 Little Metis, 124.
 Little Supply, Treasury brig, 185.
 Live stock, duty on, 64; export from the U. S. prohibited, 43.
 Liverpool, Eng., complaint of the marine board, 50.
 Livius, Chief Justice Petcr, behaviour of, 102; letters of, 209; reinstatement of, 102.
 London district, disaffection in, 146; report on forests in, 151.
 London, Liverpool, and North American Screw Steamship Co., 35.
 Long Meadow, Md., papers relating to, 201.
 Long Point, projected lighthouse at, 151.
 Longueuil, Charles le Moyne, Baron de, 214; expedition against the Chicachas, 225; instructions respecting his voyage to the Iroquois country, 251; official correspondence of, 231; troops under, 252.
 Longueuil, barony of, 214.
 Lotbinière, M., letters to Vergennes, 256.
 Loudour, Lord, 196; correspondence with Montcalm and Vaudreuil, 261; fails at Louisbourg, 236.
 Louisbourg, defence of, 218, 244; Drucour's journal of the siege, 245; conduct of the garrison, 226; early steps in the establishment of, 217; enumeration of residences, barracks, powder magazines, provision depots, etc., at, 245; establishment at, 217, 218; estimate of the families at, 174; evacuated by the English, 244; failure of the French expedition against, 166; fortifications at, 166, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 241, 243, 244, 253; French and Indian missions of, 240; government at, 242; harbour at, 243; Hopson's account of the situation at, 166; hospital at, 242, 243, 244, 245, 253; land matters at, 174; lighthouse at, 223; local regulations concerning, 219; Loudoun's failure at, 236; maritime and commercial returns of, ; measures respecting, 166; military administration at, 169; naval operations from, 242, 243; need of a lighthouse at, 242; papers relating to the siege of 1745, 166, 169, 226, 234, 244; papers relating to the siege of 1758, 245, 246, 253, 251; plan to establish a slaughter-house at, 224; police regulations at, 242, 243, 244; situation at, Nov., 1745, 244; slaughter-house at, 243, 245; state of, 241; state of the garrison, 166, 245; tolls collected by admiralty officers at, 243; trade with British colonies, 168, 170, 221; transportation of troops and citizens from, 244; withdrawal of troops from, 174; work on the harbour, 241.
 Louisbourg, parish of, registers of baptisms, marriages and burials in, 1722-1758, 253.
 Louisiana, 230, 231, 232, 235; administration of, 218; affairs of, 218; annexation of the Illinois country to the government of, 252; Canadians not allowed to visit without permission, 219; ceded to Spain, 262; censuses of, 253; clergy and religious communities of, 235; commerce of, 219, 222, 223, 224, 225; communication with Canada, 251; condition of, 216; Crozat's grant, 216; dependence upon Canada, 223; ecclesiastical matters in, 252; economic development of, 219; English and Spanish interests in, 260; exploration of the coast, 214; finances of, 226; French troops in, 248; general description of, by M. Caron, 260; government of, 217, 219; immigration into, 217; Indians of, 223; instructions for the governor and the intendant commissary of, 218; land matters, mines, census statistics, etc., in, 254; memoirs on, 254, 260, 261; memoranda on the utility of, 240; missionaries in, 223; papers of the Compagnie des Indes relating to, 1712-1731, 219; passenger lists of ships sailing from France to, 1719-1724, 253; plans to develop, 216; progress of, 215, 216, 222; public finance, 219; relations of the French with English and Indians, 224; religious affairs in, 223; retroceded to the king by the Compagnie des Indes, 222; rivalry of France and Spain regarding, 219; royal instructions on the government of, 225; settlement in, 217; shipment of marriageable girls to, 217; situation in, 237; Spanish claims regarding, 257; sundry correspondence relating to, 216; supplies for, 217, 226; troops and fortifications in, 223, 251, 252; warfare against the Indians, 224, 242.
 Lount, Samuel, execution of, 27.
 Loups, hostilities against the English, 236.
 Lovegrove, William, 176.
 Loyal associations, formation of, 109.
 Loyalist troops, operations in N. Y. and Penn., 102.
 Loyalists, United Empire, 25, 103, 104, 108, 141, 154, 176, 188, 193, 195, 202, 203, 205, 209, 211, 256; arrival and settlement in Cape Breton, 184; at Sorel, 75; claims of, 20, 25, 143, 155; correspondence of officers, 1777-1785, 208; dissensions among, 177; emigration from N. Y. to Canada, 207; emigration from N. S. back to New England, 177; general return of those in N. S. and N. B., 177; immigration and settlement of, N. S., 175, 176, 177; issue