8. The receiving of any reports from Special Committees, in the order of their seniority.

9. New business.

10. Unfinished business, in order of priority at previous sittings.

11. Closing or adjournment (as the case may be) of the Grand Encampment.

III. Notwithstanding the Order of Business in Rule II., the Grand Encampment may, by resolution, make the consideration of any matter coming before it a special order for any particular hour or day.

IV. No question, unless regularly moved and seconded, and submitted in writing, shall be put to the Grand Encampment by the Presiding Officer.

V. No question shall be open for consideration until regularly put from the Chair; and when so put, no other motion shall be received unless it be a motion—

1. To adjourn;
2. To lay on the table;
3. To put the previous question;
4. To postpone;
5. To refer; or
6. To amend.

The several motions, if made, shall have precedence in the order above stated, and the first, second and third thereof shall be decided without debate.

VI. No more than two amendments to a proposition shall be entertained at the same time, and the question shall be first taken on the last amendment submitted.

VII. The previous question shall not be put from the Chair, until after it shall have been ascertained that the call therefor is sustained by a majority of the representatives of the Grand Encampment present, and then shall always be put in the words following: "Shall the question be now put?" which words shall be understood to have reference to whatever question may be pending, immediately before such call, for the previous question may have been made.

VIII. If the vote of the Grand Encampment, taken pursuant to such call for the previous question be in the affirmative the Presid-
