BRING BACK THE
DAYS OF YOUTH

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Make You Eat Well, Feel Strong and Energetic and Gain in Weight.

When a man eats three square meals every day and enjoys them; when he is picking up in weight and feels strong and energetic; that is when life is worth living.

You hear some men say that these are days of youth. But if they are there is no excuse for anyone feeling old. If you give your stomach the attention it requires it will dis-gest the food you eat and the rest will follow naturally. And you can easily give your stomach that attention by using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are the greatest stomach helpers of the age. Hear what Mr. H. Baker, of 353 Patrick street, Winnipeg, says of them.

"It is with pleasure," says Mr.
Baker, "that I inform you of the benefit I received from Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, which I have been taking for the last few months, during which time I have gained in weight eight pounds.

"Before I began to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets no matter what I ate I did not seem to gain much weight or eat on any flesh, although my appetite seemed good, but with using the Tablets I think my food was properly digested and turned to flesh."

A recent sale of treasures in London included 100 cents collected by the Marquis of Anglesey, says Leslie's Weekly. The lot brought about $5,000. One stick was gold mounted and adorned with diamonds, em-eralds and other stones. A Glasgow dealer got it for $280. Two other diamond studded specimens went for $230 and $170 respectively. A stick that glowed with diamonds and bore a watch sold for $125. Sticks with heads of animals and birds, with secret springs that made the heads move and with electric batteries, found ready buyers.

Letter Yearning for the Irish.

Sir Horace Plunkett of the Department of Agriculture in Ireland is in Washington to confer with Secretary Wilson and the scientists of the United States Department of Agriculture, his object being to introduce improved farming methods in Ireland, says The New York Globe's Washington correspondent. Sir Horace says conditions among the Irish are gradually bettering, and farming is engaging more and more attention. Emigration is the greatest source of loss to the island; but by inaugurating a better system of land cultivation it is hoped to make farming more profitable and to check the exodus.

WEARING AWAY YOUR LUNGS!

Yes, and your strength, too. Stop coughing and get rid of that catarrh.
The one remedy is "Catarrhazone," which goes to the diseased tissues along with the air you breathe; it can't fail to reach the source of the trouble; it's bound to kill the germs, and as for healing up the sore places, nothing can surpass Catarrhazone. If you don't get instant relief and ultimate cure you will at least get your money back for Catarrhazone is guaranteed to cure catarrh in any part of the system. You run no risk —therefore use Catarrhazone—at our expense if not satisfied.

YOU MELANCHOLY WOMEN.

Can't even sleep—restless day and night—brooding over imagined trouble all the time. The disease isn't in the brain, but in the blood, which is thin and nutritious. Do the right thing now and you'll be cured quickly. Just take Ferrozone; it turns everything you eat into nourishment, consequently, blood containing lots of iron and oxygen is formed. Ferro-zone makes flesh, muscle, nerve—strengthens in a week, cures very quickly. You'll live longer, feel brighter, be free from melancholy if you use Ferrozone. Fifty cents buys a box of this good tonic—fifty cheap-late coated tablets in every box—at all dealers.

Humor and Philosophy

Even when a man is looking for trouble he finds it in most unexpected places.

It is really scandalous the way some women allow their children to talk back to the women's husbands.

Many a lad who thinks he is the whole cheese is simply a chip off the old block.

A woman never boasts that her husband fell in love with her at first sight until she has him thoroughly trained.

When the heirs of a miser go in mourning it is usually a matter of form.

As a general thing free advice is worth all that you pay for it.

The difference between a boy baby and a girl baby is about a ton of pure devilry.

It is a mighty obstinate man who will refuse to go in the direction a cyclone is going when he gets caught in one.

A girl who can't cook is about as useful as a clock that won't run.

Boules cover a multitude of shins along about cherry picking time.

Naturally the political party that promises a man a postoffice is the one that is going to do the best by the country.

Living on Easy street is not so easy as it looks to one who has never tried.

Bedelia, I'd like to getch you; Bedelia, you're quite insane.
To hear you night and morning would give a man a pain.
Oh, yes, goodby, Bedelia; We've had enough of you.
Oh, Bedelia, Delia, Della, Won't you please let some one steal you.
Steal you, steal you, Bedelia, do.

Her Business Head.

"My precious bunch of sugar stock," said P. Jeerpoint Sorbim, the hustling young broker, bending over the fair face of Margaretta Middleton, a beautiful young lady of twenty-one summers, not counting Indian summers nor open winters, "we should capitalize your wealth of affection. It is the age of the trust, and I trust you in everything.
Do you consent to the merger?"

Margaretta's eyes grew large. "It looks like 100 cents on the dollar on the face of it," she said, "but I would only consent on one condition."

"What is it, my own honey trust?" he inquired eagerly. "I know I shall be delighted to comply with the condition, but name it."

"It is," she said gravely, "that you do not try to water any of the stock with beer." For she knew his one weakness.

Bobby Says.

The Value of Charcoal

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same purposes.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking, or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.
It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and throat from the poison of catarrh.
All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best is the one in the form of large, lean-ant (tasting like honey), the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the blood, the mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box, at drug stores, and although in some sense a medicine, preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Intemperate Tea Drinking.

In this age of mental tension, high pressure and overstrain tea is felt to be doing much to overwork our lunatic asylums. There can be little doubt that tea drinking is a form of intemperance in these days, a national and female intoxication second only to that of strong drink and in some respects perhaps even more injurious.—Family Doctor.

A BAD BRUISE.

Often causes a good deal of trouble.
The best cure is a prompt application of Nerviline, which instantly stops the pain, prevents swelling, removes all blackness and discoloration. Nerviline is antiseptic—prevents blood poisoning. No liniment so strong, so penetrating, so swift to destroy pain.
You miss a lot of comfort by not using Polson's Nerviline. For nearly fifty years it has been the standard family liniment of Canada.

Many a young man's brightness is coats.

What does it prevent a woman if she gains the world of knowledge and loses her own health? Young women students, and school teachers, eager, ambitious, and full of energy, very often neglect their health in the struggle to gain education. They eat insufficient food, and at irregular hours, they allow irregularity of the womanly functions to be established, and the result is that they become chronic invalids with all their education practically worthless. There is a plain road back to health for such cases, marked by the feet of thousands. It is the use of Dr. Pierce's "Great Peppermint Cure" for diseases of the stomach and digestive and nutritive organs, and Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the delicate organs of women. A cure is certainly follows the use of these remedies that out of hundreds of thousands who have tried the treatment, ninety-eight in every hundred have been perfectly and permanently cured.
Constipation, with its bad consequences, which is a common ailment of students, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

A MINISTER TO VANITY.

Men and Women and Their Attitude Toward the Mirror.

It is not always for the mere gratification of personal vanity that we should attentively study our mirrors.
Socrates advised all young people to look often in their looking glass to ascertain if they were good looking; that if they were so they might strive to make their mental attainments correspond, and if they were not then they might endeavor by the superior accomplishments of their minds to make up for their personal shortcomings.

This is excellent advice for vanity possessed moderns, but it is impossible that the high mental attitude of Socrates is appreciated by them. How the elaborate toilet of today could be accomplished without the aid of the mirror it is impossible to imagine. It is popularly supposed that the mirror is the woman's pet possession, but man is by no means adverse to contemplation of his many charms as reflected therein. A woman frankly confesses her interest in the alluring combination of glass and quicksilver, but the man, while voicing his scorn, proves his superior vanity by his concealed and secretive study of it. He fears at his wife's cheerful glance. But was anything more entirely provocative of human vanity ever invented than the many sided shaving glass?—London Chronicle.

RUSES OF BANKERS.

Devices Used to Either Gain Time or Improve Conditions.

Some amusing anecdotes are told of the devices resorted to by bankers to gain time and inspire confidence. On one memorable occasion the excited subscribers, much to their indignation, were only able to enter the bank one by one except at the cost of spoiled coats, as the chief manager had chased the door posts to be freshly painted.

Another bank prevented a crisis in its affairs by exhibiting in the windows large tubs apparently brimful of sovereigns. These tubs, however, were simply upside down and a small quantity of gold only piled up on their bottoms.

But the most ingenious dodge of all was successfully carried out in Buenos Ayres. There was a run on a large bank, and for several days subscribers besieged the premises, withdrawing money and placing it in another bank on the opposite side of the road. It happened, however, that these two institutions had a private understanding, and as fast as the "safe" bank received the deposits they were returned to the "unsafe" one by an underground passage, with the result that every one marveled at its continued ability to meet its demands.—London News.

A CAMEL'S STOMACH.

Is Four Compartments It Carries Water to Last a Journey.

The stomach of a camel is divided into no less than four compartments, and the walls of one of these are lined with large cells, every one of which can be opened and closed at will by means of powerful muscles.

Now, when a camel drinks it drinks very great deal.
