New Method Suits for Young Men-while they are priced $7.50 to $17.50

They are cut over the same patterns—in other words the $7.50 suits are just as swagger as the highest priced, difference in fabrics and trimming alone making the difference in price. Patterns we might add are a bit pronounced, build too, is rather extreme-shoulders of coats are exaggerated some but not too much, waist fashioned to give the wearer that athletic appearance.

$10 is the starting point staid blues and blacks, nobby mixed Cheviots and Tweeds—all about the same as the tailors are showing.

LIFE'S SUNSET

Demise of a Highly Esteemed Kent Pioneer—The Calling of Barnabas Wemp.

and best known and respected residents in Kent County, passed away Wednesday at his home on King street east. Deceased was 77 years and six months old and has been a resident in the County since 1861. He was born at Amherst Island on April 14th, 1826, and was married at the same place in 1846.

When he first came to Kent he ettled down on a farm in Dover. He later on engaged in the saw mill business. He came to Chatham 18 years ago and has since been an es eemed citizen of the Maple City. Mr. Wemp enjoyed much public

Mr. Wemp enjoyed much public confidence and was a member of the County Council for several years. After he moved to Chatham he was elected to the City Council, and during his second term he was chairman of the Board of Works. He was an earnest Methodist in religion and a staunch Conservative in politics. Perhaps there is not a family who are better known or more highly respected 'than the Wemp family. After every lapse of years a family reunion is held and these have always been looked forward to with much delight. The 'last one was held on July 9, 1896, it being the golden wedding day of the deceased and his wife, who now survives him. This event was most appropriately celebrated at the 'time and comment was made upon it in The Planef.

Mr. Wemp was hale and hearty until a few months before his death.

Mr. Wemp was hale and hearty until a few months before his death. He was known as the oldest cyclist in the Maple City for, aged as he was, he took exercise every day, and long bicycle rides were quite a common occurrence with him. He was also an enthusiastic bowler and a member of the Chatham Bowling Club. Each afternoon during the summer found him on the bowling green, and he took much enjoyment ment from it.

Besides a widow he leaves a family of five boys and two daughters to mourn his loss. Three brothers and two sisters also survive him.

The funeral fook place this after-noon at two o'clock from his late residence to the Maple Leaf ceme-tery. It was very largely attended. Rev. G. H. Cobbledick, of whose church deceased was a consistent member, conducted the funeral ser-vices.

WERE WEDDED

The home of Mr. W. J. Richardson, Creek Road, Harwich, presented a very attractive appearance Wednesday evening, October 7, in honor of the marriage of their daughter Elizabeth to Mr. Mac McKinlay, of Tilbury, the house being handsomely decorated with flowers and smillax. Promptly at six o'clock the bride, dressed very becomingly in a voile gown handsomely trimmed in lace, and carrying a large boquet of white carnations, entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her father. Miss Flora Campbell, of Ridgetown, acted as bridesmaid, and was dressed in silk organdie trimmed in lace and ribbon and carried pink carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. Will Richardson, brother of the bride. Dr. Jamieson, of Blenhaim, performed the ceremony, and after very hearty congratulations and well wishes from friends present the party repared to the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast awaited them. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young couple was held. That evening, amid a shower of rice and good wishes, the happy couple left for their home in Tilbury, where the groom has made a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinlay will be at home to their friends after Nov. dst. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Horning and daughter, Head St., spent Thursday in Dresden. Rev. R. J. McCormick, B. A. will address the Victoria avenue League to-night. Come! J. Bradshaw and Al. Bragg were visiting in Chatham Township on Wednesday. They secured a fine cluster of second growth raspberries. You can now have Mrs. Cooke's de-licious home-made bread delivered at your home. Bakery, next to Harri-son Hall, Fifth St. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson returned to their home in New York yesterday after a three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wilson, Echo Farm, Harwich. Brown will remain in the city for a few days.

A runaway, which might have ended with more serious results, occurred on Queen street yesterday. Thomas Wallace, of Raleigh, was driving up Queen St. from the G. T. R. station when his horse ran away, Mr. Wallace was thrown from the rig but not seriously hurt. The rig was slightly damaged. Tom Ford, stopped the badly frightened horse.

NARROW ESCAPE

Harry Westman, of Westman Bros., proved himself a life-saver yesterday. Mr. Westman was in the back yard of his brother's, A. D Westman, residence, King St. West, when he heard a cry for help. Looking out on the river he saw a man in a sinking boat. As he looked the man ing boat. As he looked the man jumped from the boat and started struggling for shore. Mr. Westman showed presence of mind and, grabbing a long pole, waded out into the stream as far as he could, and the man caught the end of the pole just as he was going innder. With much difficulty the unfortunate man was pulled ashore after a narrow escape from a watery grave.

The man had ridden across the river in the old boat and when he started back it was pretty full of water.

BOY SHOT

Fred Bounsall, a lad of 12 years that himself in the leg yesterday afternoon with a flobert rifle. The lad and his brother Alex. were out hunting and were in the bush at the time of the accident. The bull lodged in the ankle, Samuel O. Si lodged in the ankle, Samuel O. Simmons, the popular propriets of it foriental tonsorial emporium, was or driving. He noticed the older both helping the other across the field the road, and realized at once who had happened. Mr. Simmons picket the lad up and brought him into the city, when Dr. Rutherford dressed the wound. Mr. Simmons was driving hillitle driver, Molly, and those who saw him coming realize that he has a good road horse.

RUSSIA MUST MOVE. Japanese Public Opinion Quiet But

Insistent. London, Oct. 15. - A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company, dated yesterday from Tokio, says: "Important Cabinet meetings were held yester day and to-day, and the impression i well-informed circles is that Japan wil insist on Russias' fulfillment of her promises. The newspaper comment is quiet but insistent. The Nichi-Nichio the most popular paper, believes that the St. Petersburg Government is in nocent of the bellicose actions of the Russian agents in the Orient. It urges, however, the necessity for pre caution, because the ambition of Russian agents not infrequently precipitates hostilities.

sian agents not infrequently precipitates hostilities.

The correspondent of The Morning Post at Chefoo, telegraphing under date of October 14, says that the rumors of an impending war continue but it is impossible to obtain authenticinformation. In the event of an outbreak, the opinion in Chefoo is favor able to the success of the Japaness navy. It is believed that the newly equipped Chinese troops would ally themselves with Japan in any campaign against Russia which she might undertake in Manchuria. Large imports of arms, adds the correspondent, have been made by China during the past nine months, and warlike munitions continue to be imported. A small Japanese steamer, which is lying off Chefoo with dynamite and ammunition, has been prohibited from landing her cargo. The Russian torpedo flotilla far exceeds in actual number any official admission. Many of them have beet completed and equipped at Port Arthur.

AN OUTRAGE AT PEKIN. Attempt to Blow up the British Legation Magazine. Pekin, Oct. 16.-A mysterious out rage was attempted at the British Legation on Tuesday, when, on the occasion of the ball given by the military officers, an attempt was made apparently to blow up the magazine where, in an exposed position, is stor where, in an exposed position, is stor-ed the explosives and ammunition for the Legation. At the same time the sights of a 4.7 gun were stolen, but these have since been recovered in the native city. Wires were laid to connect with the battery, but for some reason they were not connected. If they had been the consequences reason they were not connected. If they had been the consequences might have been most serious. The matter is now under investigation. The incident draws attention to the niggardly cheeseparing which has made the British military establishment at the Legation the worst installed of all the Legations.

London, Oct. 10.—The Times, in an editorial referring to the attempted outrage at the British Legation at Pekin, says it seems to have occurred to some Chinese that they might conveniently massacre most of the British en masse by blowing up the materials the ently massacre most of the British en masse by blowing up the materials the foreign devils had accumulated to sup press any renewed effort of patriotic Chinamen for their extinction.
