THE CATHOLIC REGISTER, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1904

E, MURPHY

A TIMELY POINTER-Do not buy an ash-sifter. but put the money into our Coal. Our Coal burns to the ash, and leaves no clinkers. Consumers never have to sift.

The Imperial Coal Co.

HEAD OFFICE-1184 YONGE ST.

PHONES - North 2082, North 2083 and North 1901.

SCHOOLS ST. PETER'S SCHOOL.

Honor Roll for September.

Kavanagh, John Butler. Good, Eva Kavanagh, Francis O'Leary.

Mary Waizmann, Lillian Baird.

Sahraico, C. Bennett, J. Burns, Chormon, S. Hogan, Af Keelor,

Third Form.-Excellent, M. Burns, A. Labraico, J. O'Hearn, A. Cas-

Frances Gibson.

Hamilton.

rigg

Form II., Senior .- Excellent, Bar-

DRESS WELL Form IV., Senior.-Excellent, Katie Ennis, Gladys Deegan. Good, Mary Bradley, Lucy Carpenter. Form IV., Junior .- Excellent, Paul FOUNTAIN. "My Valet.

MONTREAL CORRESPONDENCE

ST. PATRICK'S PARISH.

A very edifying sight was wit-nessed on Sunday last at the eight o'clock mass, when the members of o clock mass, when the members of the Holy Name Society received com-munion in a body. Over 150 mem-bers were present. This Society is doing noble work not only in the parish, but its influence extends to the city in general. Many of the leading parishioners are now mem-bers of this society, which has such a grand object in view to honor the Holy Name of Jesus. In the after-noon a meeting was held and seven new members were admitted. Rev. Dr. Luke Callaghan gave the instruction. At the nine o'clock mass the immense edifice was crowded to the doors with children and adults. The singing of the girls' choir was very devotional liam O'Reilly. The following pupils obtained testi-monials of excellent or good. Fourth Form.-Excellent, C. Heek, F. Guay, R. O'Donoghue, R. Newton, At the high mass the solemnity of the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-angel was celebrated. Rev. Father angel was celebrated. It is a set of the sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. Luke Callaghan. The sermon was on the "Labor Question." The A. Guay, L. Cleary, C. O'Leary, E. Vandivir, J. Murray, Fr. Cor-coran, J. Boomer, E. Houson. Good, E. Roach, F. Fox, J. Brownpreacher handled his subject in an able manner and laid particular stress on Catholics joining societies which are condemned by the Church.

The collection taken up on the second Sunday of each month is for the benefit of the new school fund. The parish will be visited next week. Rev. Father Callaghan, P.P., will assign each priest his district. The euchre and social held on Fri-

A. Labraico, J. O'Hearn, A. Cas-trucci, C. Zoyd, F. O'Donoghue, W. McAuliffe, Wm. Shipley, J. Downey, W. Dunbar, R. Labraico, F. Tobin, J. McNamara, J. Chine, B. Heck, N. Perugini, F. Harper, R. Haffey, A. Dubois. Good, J. Glionna, Lee Coughlin, W. Wells, J. Muto, W. 'evening by the St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benefit Society, in honor of the anniversary of Father Lyons. tal Abstinence and Benefit Society, Second Form.-Excellent, J. De-in honor of the anniversary of Father Matthew was a great success. Over 200 people participated. Refresh-Nurray, W. Wheater, H. Chandler, Cleary A. Mirilla G. Moore

AN INTERESTING CASE N. MURPHY

A correspondent sends Father Lam-bert of The New York Freeman's Journal a clipping from a Pittsburg paper giving an account of a breach of promise suit in the courts there, and asks an answer to certain questions which it involves.

The clipping in full reads: "Charles S. Hollman, a prominent resident of Carnegie, who was made defendent in a breach of promise suit filed an affidavit of defence yester-day, in which he sets forth his reasons for not entering into the marriage, which, he says, involved the sanction of the Catholic Church.

"Holiman states that their marriage was subject to an agreement to perform the marriage ceremony.". which required the consent of the The New York priest had no need which required the consent of the Church. Both litigants, he says, are members of St. Mary's Roman Ca-tholic Church of Carnegie, and both Rnew that Catholic clergymen and prince are consistent to perform the marriage ceremony. The New York priest had no need to ask permission to marry the cou-ple. All he needed was to know that the Roman court, on presenta-tion of satisfactory evidence, had, by priests are forbidden to perform mar- reason of the existence of some inriage ceremonies in which one of Warde, Margaret Hanley, Lynion De-vaney. Good, Mary Williams, Mary Benns, Willie Hallett. Benns, Willie Hallett. Form III., Seijor.-F.xce.lent, Ter-esa Curran, Mary Fahey, Christina Hamilton. Good, Blamid Leonard, Nora Warde, Teresa Ennis. Form III, Junior.-Excellent, Har-old Halloran, John Leonard, Frank to the Catholic Church, they entered sary documents. into an agreement by which, so he What reasons were given when the into an agreement by which, so he states, he was to make application appeal was made to the court, or on through the pastor or bishop to the what particular ground the decision bara Kavanagh, Carrie Benns. Good, Pope in Rome for a dispensation, and of the court was based, we know not; Frances Gibson. Form II., Junior.—Excellent, Marie Krigbaum. Good, Agnes Killackey, Florence O'Reilly, John O'Connor. Form I., Part II.—Excellent, Ber-nard Hallett, Francis Killackey, Nor-man Fahey. Good, John Kelly, Wil-lie Ennis, Margaret LeMoine, Annie Hamilton upon its receipt only were they to marry. He alleges that he made such an application and correspon-invalidating impediments, one of dence between the Pope and the Church authorities here has resulted, guinity—as an illustration. but so far the matter is undertermined and no dispensation has been Hollman in the above clipping, fregranted.

Part I., Senior.-Excellent, Ruth Warde, Alice O'Neil, Michael Kehoe, George Mead. Good, Rita McGrath, "Hollman alleges that he was will-ing and ready to marry Annie Pecho up until the suit was entered, but he sation." would have insisted on a Church Part I., Junior .- Excellent, Doro-Part I., Junior.-Excellent, Doro-thy Devaney, George Benns, Edward Brady. Good, Nevada Keena, Ern-est Corcoran, Francis Bennett. Primary.-Excellent, William Meade, Lawrence. McCarthy, Joseph McDon-nell. Good, Ludwig Waizmann, Wil-liam. O'Beilly marriage. He admits she has asked him to marry her, but he adds he told her if she could not wait on the dispensation and was so anxious to lity, he never was married and is get married, she could go and marry consequently free.

The reader of the above asks: "Can the Pope grant permission to a divorced man or woman to marry again while the divorced husband or wife is alive?"

Here the Church court gives no per-that they were always free, a mar-riage bond never having existed.

We have here supposed an extreme case in order the more clearly to illustrate the principles governing the action of the court.

case, that of a Protestant woman divorced from a still living husband -"who was married to a Catholic in New York city by a Catholic priest who was said to have had permission terview him in regard to the latter's from his Holiness the Pope of Rome validating impediment at the time divorced from a former wife, who is may be sure he took steps to know still living. "As honest and faithful adherents or their agents, presented the neces-No doubt the parties themselves which we have given above-consan-In statements attributed to Mr.

quent mention is made of the word "dispensation." If he be the divorced party he need not expect a dispen-The decision of Rome will be on the validity, or nullity of his former marriage. If it be for valid-itv, his case is settled as long as his divorced wife lives; if it be for nul-

A very pretty wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church, Tees-The word "permission" is not cor- water, on Tuesday last, when Miss rectly used here. A divorced man or woman does not appeal to Rome for permission to marry again, while either is living. If they know any-thing about their religion they know better than that. They know that if their marriage is valid and consum-mated (that is, by living together as mated (that is, by living together as nuptial ceremony and sang high mass husband and wife), there is no pow-er on earth that can divorce them, except that of death. This has al-ways been the doctrine of the Church. diverse in the state of the church. This has al-ways been the doctrine of the Church. It was uncompromising adherence to ter to the groom, presided at the orthis doctrine that caused the Eng-lish schism under Henry VIII. It ter and Thomas O'Malley with violin was emphasized by Pius VII. when and organ played a wedding march, the Emperor Napoleon appealed for a also the latter sang in a good clear divorce for his brother Jerome from tenor voice, "Contemplation of Heahis wife, formerly Miss Patterson of ven." The bride was given away by Baltimore, a Protestant. her eldest brother, Peter O'Malley. The bride was given away by Napoleon claimed that the marriage The groom was attended by John O'was invalid from the beginning, and Malley, while Miss Annie Gallagher gave every reason he could think of acted as bridesmaid. The bride lookto that end. To which Pius VII. re-plied: dress of cream silk colienne, trimmed "Your majesty must see that on with cream chiffon, and wore a large the information we have received of cream silk picture hat with Cluny this fact, it is out of our power to lace insertion set in brim. The going pass the judgment of nullity. If be-sides the circumstances already alleg-ed, others exist from which proof cream silk blouse, trimmed with Irish point lace, and chic hat of brown heaver with fur trimmings. The bride against itself shall be made desocarried white bridal roses with maiden hair fern, whilst the bridesmaid's bouquet was of beautiful pink mission, no dispensation, no divorce. It simply affirms that the evidence proves the blood relationship between the two, a relationship within the forbidden degree of kindred. The re-sult of which is the discovery, not sult of which is the discovery, not sult of which is the discovery, not everybody, told the following story: "I want to say, in the first place, that what I am about to relate is not told in order to emphasize the need of politeness on the grounds of mere policy only, but rather to show Our correspondent refers to another that an ungentlemanly action is pretyears ago, a reporter called on a man of wealth and prominence, whom I will call Mr. Blank, in order to in-> alleged political ambitions. He was shown into his library. "The reporter presented his card and explained his errand. Mr. Blank glanced at the pasteboard, deliberately tore it in two and threw it into the waste-basket.

CIVILITY PAYS

"'Nothing to say,' he growled, and that was all that the visitor could get from him.

"So the reporter departed with flush on his cheek and a burning desire in his heart to thrash the discourteous Mr. Blank, "Several years passed, and Mr. Blank was a candidate for a high municipal office. Meanwhile, the re-porter had been made political editor of a journal whose views were opposite to those of Mr. Blank. In that capacity he again called on Mr. Blank and found him suave and silky. The editor did not forget the torn The incident rankled within card. him.

"So it came about that he made such a tremendous fight against Mr. Blank's election that, mainly through his efforts, he suffered an overwhelming defeat. "A single act of unnecessary rudeness cost him position and power."

Parents and Children

The practical monitor who writes Talks with Parents in the Antigonish Casket reminds them that a very important thing is that father and mother should perfectly agree in the government of their family; for , if they do not, it will be impossible to bring up the children well. A carriage drawn by two horses goes along well if both horses are pulling their best in the same direction; but if one is pulling well and the oth-er holding back, the carriage goes badly; worse still, if the two are pulling in opposite directions. If the father thinks the mother is too soft and easy with the children; if the mother thinks the father is too hard and severe; if you disagree between yourselves as to what ought to be done, and above all, if you before your children,-what is the re-The result is that you are despised by your children, and that cor-rection is made impossible, since the children have reason to believe that one of you will protect them when

Saturday Arriving Halifax 8.15 p.m. The following day, making close connection with PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND Via Point du Chene.

INTERCOLONIA

RAILWAY

COMMENCING

CANADA'S NEW TRAIN

THE

'OCEAN LIMITED

Will leave Montreal

7.30 p.m. Daily except

JULY 3

Through the Famed Metapedia Valley by Daylight

Grand Trunk Day Express from Toronto makes direct connection at Montreal.

Toronto Ticket Office 50 King Street East

World's Fair St. Louis THE WEATHER IS DELIGHTFUL

Through Tourist Sleepers to St. Louis Every Friday.

$19.20 ROUND TRIP FROM TORONTO

With Stop Over Privileges at Chicago Detroit and Intermediate Canadia Stations.

Make application to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Toronto, for handsome illustrated booklet of the World's Fair.

TO THE WEST

Reduced One Way Rates to Points in British Columbia, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montano, Oregon, Utah, Wash-ington. On Sale Daily.

HAUNTS FOR BIG GAME

The Open Season for Deer and Moose in the "Highlands of Ontario" from November 1st to 15th. and from October I th to November 15th in the Temagami Country. Make your arrangements early for trip.

For Tickets and Full Information apply to Agents, Grand Trunk Railway System.

Special offer from now until Jan. lst. 1905.

GIBBONS-O'MALLEY

children are asking for admission to Zupe. W St. Patrick's School. But with six- K. Knox. ty over the required number in the school and two hundred and fifty waiting, something will have to be done.

ST. ANTHONY'S PARISH.

Since the foundation of St. An-thony's Parish it has made wonderiul progress, until to-day it stands out a noble example of courage, good-will, unity and perseverance. At present it numbers 1,300 families, over 5,000 souls. The church is becoming too small for the large congregations who assist at the Sunday masses. The parish has a young men's socie-ty who possess a property of their own. It has a first-class school for girls and the Rev. pastor hopes by next September to have the same next September to have the same for the boys. The people of St. Anthony's are justly proud of their noble and zealous pastor, Rev. J. E. Donnelly, who has done so much for their spiritual and temporal wel-fare since the foundation of the par-ish. To his two able assistants, Rev. Fathers M. L. Shea and Thos. Heffernan, a large share of the work has fallen during the past three years and by their tireless energy and unflagging devotion to duty, they have helped in no small manner to make St. Anthony's parish a model one.

The Second Entertainment of the euchre series will be given Wednesday, Oct. 26th, under the auspices of Dominion Council No. 465, Knights of Columbus. The popularity of the Knights is so great that it goes without saying that the hall will be without saying that the hall will be crowded on the occasion of their first appearance in St. Anthony's Among the prizes already received for the General Drawing are a piano, the gift of Willis & Co.; a gold watch, the gift of Mr. Wall; a la-dies' tailor-made costume, the gift of Mr. J. Banon: a piano cover, Miss Mr. J. Bannon; a piano cover, Miss McAffee; a gent's suit case, Mr. P. Rowan; a picture of the Madonna, Sadlier & Co.; fancy parlor chair, Mr. L. Charlebois; an expensive fountain pen, Granger Freres; and a donation of $50.00 from a prominent gentleman of the city.

ST. MICHAEL'S PARISH. The Feast of the Parish was fit-ingly celebrated on Sunday. Rev. fittingly celebrated on Sunday. Hev. Father Hayes, of Annapolis, N.S., sang high mass. There was no ser-TERMELEL BER BER EAST

COTE DES NEIGES CEMETERY.

Three pilgrimages were held to Cote des Neiges Cemetery on Sunday last. The Franciscan Brothers, English and French (Third Order), and St. Ann's Parish went. The day fine and large numbers attended.

Are you particular About your Table Linen ? We do not tear it in handling New Method Laundry HEADACHE AJAX HARMLESS HEADACHE 187-189 Parliament St. Toronto.

ments were served during the even-ing. From all parishes of the eity the ald, W. Kramer, C. Coffey, S. Sensane, F. Cunerty, W. ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL.

The following boys obtained the highest number of notes in the ex-aminations for September: Fourth Form, Sentors.-1, C. Heck;

2, E. Roach; 3, F. Guay. Juniors -1, A. Guay; 2, J. Labriaco; 3, W. Menton and E. Vandivir. Third Form, Seniors.-1, M. Burns; 2, A. Labraico; 3, E. Higgins. Jun-iors, 1, J. Chune; 2, N. Perugini; 3, B. Heck, J. Glionna.

Second Form, Senior.—D. Cunerty, J. Gorman, G. Murray. Juniors, J. Devaney, G. Koster, N. Cleary. ST. HELEN'S SCHOOL.

III. Form, Senior.

General Proficiency .- G. Norman. Testimonials.— G. Norman, F. Doyle, W. Doyle, A. Glynn, W. Kerr, A. Maloney, J. McEvay, H. Pegg, J. Power, F. Ellard, J. Wallace. Junior Form.

General Proficiency .- E. Galvin. Testimonials.-E. Galvin, J. Gibson, P. Hynes, A. Riordan, J. Grif-Gallagher. fin.

Senior Fourth .- Excellent, R. Clarkson, Fr. Riordan, W. Markle, W. Aitkin, J. Foley, F. Boland, W. Henderson, E. Creary, W. Galvin, T. Dault, F. Hartnett.

Junior Fourth.-Excellent, T. Col-gan, V. Kirby, A. Fayle, F. Wilson, J. Gibson, B. Kearns, C. O'Connor, H. Tracy, W. Pegg, A. Dwyer, H. Goodwin.

General Proficiency. Senior Fourth.-W. Henderson. Junior Fourth.-B. Kearns.

The October Intention

The Love of Labor,-this is the intention which the Apostleship of Prayer gives us for October. And who should not love labor when he divorced from. Should the judgment thinks that in each moment wherein affirm the validity of the marriage we are performing our daily duties, whatever our lawful employments may be, we are treading in the foot-steps of our divine Exemplar and our dear Redeemer, Jesus Christ? He that there never was a marriage betoiled, year after year of His mortal life, in the carpenter's shop, aiding His foster-father, great St. Joseph, and heloing to provide for the house-hold wants. In their humble home, the Blessed Virgin labored with her hands, performing the daily duties that too often seem to us petty and irksome; yet those duties and our ordinary avocations of every lawful sort have been immeasureably digni-fied, beautiful and sanctified, since Jesus, Mary and Joseph lived in the holy home of Nazareth, and became to all families and to all toilers beaconlight. When we think of Jesus working, how we ought really to love work! Labor is now a sacred thing. The employer should look upon his employes with deep reverence, and treat them not only with justice but treat them not only with justice but with affection, remembering Who it was Who once chose to share their lot. The employed should perform their allotted tasks with devout earnestness, thinking how perfectly Jesus once worked and obeyed and prayed. All of us everywhere should pray for the love of labor, since it is the faithful laborers who shall one day win heaven's vast reward.

ed, others exist from which proof might be deduced of any fact consti-tuting an impediment capable of establishing the nullity, we might then support our judgment on this proof and pronounce a decree conformable to the rules of the Church, from which we cannot depart by pronounc-ing invalid a marriage which, according to the declaration of God, no power can dissolve. Were we to usurp a power that we do not possess, we should render ourselves guilty of the most abominable abuse of our sacred ministry before the tribunal of God and before the whole Church. Your majesty even, in his justice, would not desire us to pro-nounce a judgment contrary to the testimony of our conscience, and the ADDRESS invariable principles of the Church. Thus on principle the Pope opposed the iron will of the Emperor, then the most powerful man in Europe, and stood by the rights of the American Protestant girl whom Napoleon would not permit to set her feet on French soil. Hence we repeat that a divorced man or woman, once validly married, would not, if he or she knew their religion, think of appealing to Rome for "permission" to marry again during the lifetime of either. Therefore, to the question, can the Pope grant permission, etc., we answer, No. The appeal of Hollman, therefore, is not for permission to marry again, but for a judgment affirming or denying the validity of his marriage with the woman he has been, civilly the case is ended, and he cannot marry again during the life of his wife. that there never was a marriage bethat there never was a marriage be-tween them, then he is free to marry whom he pleases, without permission of anybody—except that of the girl. In passing judgment on appealed cases, Rome acts as the Supreme Court, the court of last resort, and the grounds on which decisions are based are facts, facts which existed at the time of the marriage and which constitute impediments that render the marriage contract null and void from the beginning. To illus-trate, there is an impediment called consanguinity, or blood relationship, within certain degrees. Now, suppose thenceforward their pattern and their | A, who has been married to B for some time, discovers, or claims to have discovered, that B is his sister from whom he had been separated when both were very young chil-dren. Cases of this kind have happened from sending orphan children to the West, where they lose sight and knowledge of each other for years or for life. B denies A's assertion. A, being a Catholic and having a con-

being a Catholic and having a con-science, hrings the matter to the at-tention of the Church authorities, and the case is brought finally to Rome. Here it will be seen that A's ap-peal to Rome is not for permission to marry again—which he may not be contemplating—but an appeal for a judgment of nullity of the marriage on the evidence which or produces. The evidence is examined and declared by the Roman court to be demons-trative, and therefore the marriage to have been null and void from the beginning; in other words, that there earnations. The church was crowded with mem bers of all denominations. After the ceremony the bride was presented on behalf of the congregation with a beautiful gold chain, heart and cross, together with a handsome Morris rocking chair.

The address given underneath, which in a measure expressed the feelings of the donors of those beautiful gifts, was read by Mrs. John Marrs of

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION. Miss Catherine O'Malley, Teeswater,

Ont.: Dear Friend,-We, the members of the choir and congregation of the Sacred Heart Church gladly avail ourselves on this occasion of testifying to you the high appreciation we feel towards you in discharging the onerous duties of organist and leader of the choir for such a lengthened period of time. While you have been with us you have discharged your duties efficiently and with scrupulous exactness and promptitude.

our joys and sorrows you were always with us to preside at the organ whether to play the solemn re-quiem at the funeral mass of those nearest and dearest to us or render the more joyful music of the church other solemn and festive occaon sions. Ungrateful then would we be to allow you to depart without giving some tangible proof that your labors have met with appreciation. Though we are unable owing to the brief notice given us to present you with a testimonial worthy of you, we simply offer as a faint echo of esteem and small recognition of your ser-vices these momentos, which we earhestly hope may afford some pleasure te you in being presented with, at this suitable time the occasion of your marriage; and in doing so we simply give honor where honor is due. good enough to accept this small token of esteem-this gold chain, heart and cross, and chair. We fondly hope to see you back on many occasions, and wish you heaven's choicest gifts congregation.

home of the bride's mother, where a splendid dinner was served. Here again the bride was presented with many beautiful, useful and valuable presents by friends who in this way

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons went on honeymoon' tour to Toronto, Niagara and Chicago. On their return they will reside in Wawanosh.

United Irish League Subscriptions

The following subscriptions at the Redmond demonstration were not cor-fectly acknowledged: M. J. Casserly, Tottenham......$5.00 Mrs. C. Wheelan

. 1.00 The animosities are mortal, but the is, therefore, of the very greatest imtheir children. Or if you sometimes Magazine "Men and disagree, discuss the matter in secret ONE DOLLAR ($1.00.) until you have come to an agreement, but never let the children even suspect that there has been any disagreement at all. Otherwise, the words of our Saviour will be surely fulfilled: "Every kingdom divided late."

Kuropatkin !

There are talkative commanders, Jap. and Russian, brown and white; There are blithe Chefoo-lish liars that in fiction take delight, But there's one old war-scarred teran whose teeth are soldered tight,

And his name is Whiskeroffski Kuropatkin.

If he opened out and hollored, he might have lots to say. There is no man better posted-in his line he's quite au fait; He might talk an arm off us and we'd listen night and day. But that doesn't seem the build Kuropatkin.

He's a gaunt and grum old grizzly and his gruffness gives us pause! He's a being half inhuman, for he slights the world's applause!

Not Czar or Jap or Saxon can unclamp his iron jaws, Where he crouches facing danger-Kuropatkin.

Impassive and inscrutable, yet Russia leans on him,

With rising hope she gazes on his visage harsh and grim, Anon his "red artillery" will make the heavens swim With the only talk you'll hear from Kuropatkin. -James B. Dollard, in Boston Pilot.

Lineage of the C'Briens

The privilege enjoyed by Lord Inchiquin, of Dromoland Castle, County Clare, of using scarlet liveries, the same as those worn by Royal ser-vants, is on account of his descent from the Royal line of Thomond, Princes of Ireland. He is the 15th holder of the title. His father was uncle of William Smith O'Brien, the well-known 48 patriot, whom O'Con-nell once described as "a lineal des-cendant of Brian Boru." The O'-Briens are proud of their ancient race, and emphasize its Celtic origin by the names conferred on their boys and girls. Three of Lord Inchi-q in s children answer to the names of Fienn, Phadraig, and Donogh; one of his brothers is Desmond, another Murrough.

The Use of the Crucifix

Keep a crucifix and kiss and adore every day, the five precious wounds. Let your kisses and your prayers be like rearls and precious stones, which you never tire of setting in each of the five wounds of your Saviour- in the wounds of the feet for having so the wounds of the feet for having so long and so wearily followed you; in the wound of the left hand for having so often lifted you up and car-ried you; in the wound of the right hand for having so often blessed and absolved you; in the wound of the Sacred Heart for being a furnace of love, always open to receive you with love and forgiveness.—The St. John's as you can secure for three es the price in any other akes, if not entirely satisfactory in every respect, re-turn it and we will send you $1.10 for it, the extra 10c. ts foryour trouble in writing us and to show our confidence in the Laughlin Pen-(Not one nerin 5000 has asked their money back.)

Lay this Publication down and write NOW Safety Pocket Pen Holder sent free of charge with each Langhlin Mtg. Co.

-joy, happiness and prosperity. Signed on behalf of the choir and

Mrs. C. Whelan

After the presentation the happy couple and many friends drove to the expressed their regard.

