

The Tabernacle.

THANKSGIVING for the great gift of the Eucharist bestowed on man by Jesus-Christ, Reparation for the insults offered Him in this Sacrament. Adoration in order to compensate Him for the neglect He meets with in church, such is the threefold intention for which it pleased our Saviour Himself to cause the Feast of His Sacred Heart to be instituted. It is worthy of note, that He has promised to shed the abundant riches of His Heart on all those who shall render Him this threefold homage, not only on the very day of this feast, but also at any other time. And what must we do to deserve the fulfilment of this promise? We must visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament in the three above mentioned intentions.

What love and gratitude do we not owe to the Heart of Jesus, for having instituted this adorable Sacrament! Without this loving invention, how sad would be our exile! To whom should we have recourse in the trials with which life is filled? Where should we find a Heart loving enough to sympathise in the trials of all who have recourse to it, powerful enough to console all who implore its help? Jesus alone could say and has said: "Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened, and I will refresh you." Now, that word that "good word out of the good treasure of His Heart." He is continually repeating from the depths of the Tabernacle. For this loving Heart, so worthy of our love, is there; It is there await-
