

THE BLINK O' HER BONNIE BLUE E'E!

There's naething in life so entrancing,
An' sae fu' o' endearment to me,
As Mary's sweet smile when advancing,
An' the blink o' her bonnie blue e'e!

CHORUS.—The blink o' her bonnie blue e'e
Is mair than earth's riches to me,
I'm aye weel content
While on me is aye
The blink o' her bonnie blue e'e!

Her voice is like music frae Heaven,
An' her lips like June rose-buds to see;
To love an' distraction I'm driven
By the blink o' her bonnie blue e'e.
CHO.—"The blink o' her bonnie blue e'e," etc.

The cares o' this life are engrossing,
But forget when she smiles upon me,
My bark's on a stormy sea tossing,
Guided safe by the blink o' her e'e!
CHO.—"The blink o' her bonnie blue e'e," etc.

At last, when life's voyage is over,
I'll lay me at peace down to dee,
If over me I then may discover
Love's light in her bonnie blue e'e!
CHO.—"The blink o' her bonnie blue e'e," etc.

LONDON'S BIG DAY.

The Clan Fraser and St. Andrew's Society of London Pic-nic at Port Stanley.

THE Rose and the Shamrock were the guests of the Thistle and the Bagpipes at Port Stanley on Wednesday of last week. It was the Thistle's annual holiday, and right royally was it celebrated. All day long the delightful Heights, overlooking clear, Blue Erie, were thronged with people, on pleasure bent. Four thousand people were there from London, and the way places sent a goodly thousand. It is doubtful if a more largely attended picnic was ever held at the pretty lake resort. But St. Andrew's Society and Clan Fraser's big-hearted folks gladly welcomed all, and provided for them a most enjoyable outing. The usual banquet of the united societies was held at the Fraser House at one o'clock. About forty guests sat around the festive board, and did full justice to the substantial and delicacies which appetites born of lake breezes enabled them to do. The genial president of St. Andrew's Society, Robert Reid, sat at the head of the table; Mr. John D. Clark, vice-president of St. Andrew's, occupied the second place of honour, while the second vice-chair was filled by Mr. R. K. Cowan. The toasts were few, happily so, it can be said. Those proposed were quite appropriate, and the speeches they brought out were enjoyed by the company. The pipers present during the day were Messrs. Geo. Angus and Alex. Milne, of London; Messrs. Wilson and McLeod, of St. Thomas; and Mr. Robert Murray, of Westminster. All are expert players. The judges on dancing were:—Messrs. R. Murray, Westminster; D. McLeod, St. Thomas; Ed. Reid, London. Starters at the race course were: Messrs. Alex. McKee and Wm. Galbraith; judges, T. D. Gray and R. K. Cowan.

Talk's cheap, but when it's backed up by a pledge of the hard cash of a financially responsible firm, or company, of world-wide reputation for fair and honourable dealing, it means business!

Now, there are scores of sarsaparillas and other blood-purifiers, all cracked up to be the best, purest, most peculiar and wonderful, but bear in mind (for your own sake), there's only one guaranteed blood-purifier and remedy for torpid liver and all diseases that come from bad blood.

That one—standing solitary and alone—sold on trial, is

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

If it doesn't do good in skin, scalp and scrofulous diseases—and pulmonary consumption is only lung-scrofula—just let its makers know and get your money back.

Talk's cheap, but to back a poor medicine, or a common one, by selling it on trial, as "Golden Medical Discovery" is sold, would bankrupt the largest fortune.

Talk's cheap, but only "Discovery" is guaranteed.
