By the kindness of the enterprising Publisher We have been put in possession of what we cannot but regard as a most important work at the Present time on "the industrial resources of Mera Scotia." We have given the title at length, that our maders may see the wide range of practical subjects embraced in the treatise. The liherery and scientific character of Dr. Gesner, the dilful and industrious author, is well known at home and abroad; and from the examination which we have been able to give it; we feel no hostiquey in saying, that this production of his pen will not only sustain, but increase, the fame which, as a writer on Provincial Geology and other kindred subjects, he has already so laudably and so justly won. The work is from the press of Mesers English & Blackadar, and is a troditable specimen of typography. It contains a well executed Map of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island, which greatly enhances its value. We cordially recommend all who take an interest in the real prosperity of the Province at once to secure a copy, and give it an attentive perusal, and they will obtain a better opinion of solution into effect, at is expedient to appoint De our Provincial resources than they had before. British American League to be held at Kingston while they compensate the author for the public benefit conferred on the country. .

minimum General Fast Day.

THE Libut. Governor, by Proclamation has appointed Wednesday the 29th inst., to be obcorved reverently by the Provincial population, as a day of fasting and prayer, that God may be pleased to avert from us the destructive disease of Cholera. As a Church we observed a day of this kind early in July throughout the bounds of the Nova Scotia District. Later in the month the Free Church observed a day for the like purposs. We regret that public authorities did not move at an earlier date in this, in our view, most solemn duty; so that, if the prayers and humiliation of a whole people be available with God through the merits of His Son Our Lord Jesus Christ-of which, if offered is sincerity, we have no doubt -they might have been presented at a season when the result might have proved more favourable to the growing crops as well as to our deliverance from prevailing and threatened disease. Though we thus speak, we think it right and proper for us as a portion of the Provincial the Orange Institution, and who headed the prices community, and therefore we recommend our sion on the day of the disturbances, star I committed for trial, for abetting the death of Patrick Alministers, people and congregations, to unite | 110, and they will probably be bailed out to-day. with our follows in observing the day appointed A number of the leading Orangemea are under arfor the purposes mentioned. But let not this fast Jury, on the body of Richard Fester, returned be hypocritical but sincere; not in outward form but from the heart; then only can we expect the Searcher of hearts to accept the offering suppose to have absconded. Commemoration of the First of August.

THE African Abolition and Union Societies united on Wednesday last, the first day of August, to commemorate the emancipation of the slaves in the British dominions, -a day ever memorable in the annals of our country, and in the history of humanity. At 10 o'clock, A. M., the Societies formed in procession at the African School House in Albemarle Street; thence proceeded to the African Baptist Chapel in Cornwallis Street, where a discourse was delivered by Rev. Mr. Preston; after which they re-formed and marebol throughout, the principal streets of the City, and thence to Belmont, where the Societies (the number present being about 150) dined together, and after enjoying themselves by various recreations, left the grounds about 64 o'clock in the evening. We regret that a co'oured person, (not of the Secieties) allowed himself so far to transgress the rules of nropriety as to expose spiritness liquors for sale, first on the grounds, and, being ejected from them, afterwards, on the public road side; the consequence of which was, that some came hom, more spiritedly than they left it. We exonerate the Officers of the respective Societies from all blame or congivence in this matter. They were opposed to the sale altogether; and it was continued in the face of their earnest remonstrance. Indeed, though it was with them a high day, they were themselves quite spiritless, the proceedings having been conducted on the principles of total abstinence, and the healths drunk in ginger beer.
