

cult word at which she hesitated. I immediately repeated it, when she said with evident satisfaction, "Thank you, papa, for telling me the word." This was said so promptly, and with such an air of sincerity, that it quite delighted us.

To-day she is completely happy, knowing that it is her birthday, and that she is four years old. She has been indulged with a review of all her toys, with which she seemed quite delighted, particularly with a set of little cups and saucers, which has been given to her; and she promises that I shall drink some tea out of them this evening.

As she has now finished reading the Psalms, she is about to commence regularly "Miss Edgeworth's Early Lessons," with which she is already in some measure acquainted.

The greatest comfort we possess in this world is to see our dear child give such early promise of an intelligent mind and amiable disposition. And setting aside the partiality of a parent, I can with truth say that in every respect she is the most intelligent and extraordinary child of her age that I have ever known. Such as she is, and whatever she may in the future be, we dedicate her on this day, in all humility, to that good and gracious God, to whom we are indebted for every comfort and blessing, both temporal and spiritual. May He vouchsafe to procure, guard, guide, govern, and direct our dear child through all the changes of this transitory life, and finally bring her to a place in His heavenly kingdom, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

As a speedy cure for Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Colic, Sick Stomach, Cramps, Canker of the Stomach and Bowels, and all forms of Summer Complaints, there is no remedy more reliable than Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Dealers who sell it and those who buy it are on mutual grounds in confidence of its merits.

MILLIONS IN IT.—J. D. Alexander, editor News, Barnesville, Ga. U. S. A. says:—"For the past twelve months I have been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism. I tried several physicians, but they failed to relieve me. A friend recommended St. Jacobs Oil. I at once procured a half dozen bottles, which I have used, and find that I am improving all the time. It relieves me at once when I am suffering terrible pain, and prevents me from spending many sleepless nights. Nothing has done me so much good."

Travellers will find the best remedy for Sea Sickness in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. While for Sick Stomach and diseases brought on by change of water, diet, etc., and for Cholera Morbus, Colic, Dysentery, and Canker of the Stomach and Bowels, nothing acts more in harmony with nature to effect a cure.

AN ONLY DAUGHTER CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. JAMES was experimenting with the many herbs of Calcutta, he accidentally made a preparation which cured his only child of Consumption. His child is now in this country enjoying the best of health. He has proved to the world that Consumption can be positively and permanently cured. The Doctor now gives this recipe free, only asking two three-cent stamps to pay expenses. This herb also cures night-sweats, nausea at the stomach, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address CRADDOCK & CO., 1082 Race Street, Philadelphia, naming this paper.

MARRIED PEOPLE WOULD BE HAPPIER

If home trials were never told to neighbours.

If they kissed and made up after every quarrel.

If household expenses were proportioned to receipts.

If they tried to be as agreeable as in courtship days.

If each would try to be a support and comfort to the other.

If each remembered the other was a human being, and not an angel.

If women were as kind to their husbands as they were to their lovers.

If fuel and provisions were laid in during the high tide of summer work.

If both parties remembered that they married for worse as well as for better.

If men were as thoughtful for their wives as they were for their sweethearts.

If their were fewer silks and velvet street costumes and more plain, tidy house dresses.

If there were fewer "please darlings" in public, and more common manners in private.

If wives and husbands would take some pleasure as they go along and not degenerate into mere toiling machines.

Recreation is necessary to keep the heart in its place, and to get along without it is a big mistake.

If men would remember that a woman can't be always smiling who has to cook the dinner, answer the door-bell half a dozen times, and get rid of a neighbour who has dropped in, tend to a sick baby, tie up the cut finger of a two-year-old, gather up the playthings of a four-year-old, tie up the feet of a six-year-old on skates, and get an eight-year-old ready for school—to say nothing of sweeping, cleaning, etc. A woman with all this to contend with may claim it as a privilege to look and feel as tired sometimes, and a word of sympathy would not be too much to expect from the man who, during the honey-moon, wouldn't let her carry as much as a sun-shade.

NEW INVENTION.—On the sixth of March last I obtained a patent in Canada, for changing common windows to Bay Windows. The invention is also patented in the United States, and is having a large sale in every State. I have sold twenty-two counties in Canada, and offer the remainder for sale, or will take a partner; the right man with $200 capital can secure the management and an interest in the business. ### THE GREAT SECRET

Of the wonderful success of the

WILLIAMS SINGER SEWING

MACHINES

lies in the fact that the material used in their construction is of a very Superior Quality, and that extraordinary pains are taken to see that every part is properly fitted and adjusted to its position.

Ladies who have used our Machines for fourteen or fifteen years have noticed with extreme satisfaction that they have not been subjected to the irritating annoyances endured by persons using other machines, such as skipping stitches, breaking threads, etc., etc.

The Williams Machines do not take fits or get out of order, or become played out in three or four years like some inferior machines, but with ordinary care will last a lifetime. Thousands of parties who have used our Machines for ten years and upwards are continually recommending their friends and acquaintances to buy the Genuine Williams Singer, and to take no other

Sewing Machine.
