

CAP. LII.

An Act to divide the township of Hemmingford, in the county of Huntingdon, into two separate Municipalities.

[Assented to 9th June, 1862.]

Preamble.

22 V. c. 36.

WHEREAS the division of the township of Hemmingford, in the county of Huntingdon, proposed in the Act twenty-second Victoria, chapter thirty-six, was not carried into effect under the said Act, and a very large number of the inhabitants of the said township have, by their petition, represented that the welfare and convenience of those residing in the western section of the said township would be greatly promoted if the said township were divided into two municipalities, and have prayed that it may be so divided; and it is expedient to grant their prayer: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

New township of Havelock described and constituted after the passing of this Act.

1. Upon, from and after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, so much of the present township of Hemmingford as lies in the first range of the said township, from lot number twenty-two to lot number forty-two; in the second range, from the lot number seventy-three to lot number ninety-three; in the third range, from the lot number one hundred and nineteen to lot number one hundred and thirty-seven; in the fourth range, from the lot number one hundred and sixty to lot number one hundred and seventy-four; in the fifth range, from lot number one hundred and ninety-seven to lot number two hundred and six; in the first range of the Clergy Reserve lands, in the said township, from lot number eleven to lot number fifteen, and lots numbers ten and eleven in the second range of the said Clergy Reserve Lands,—including all lots and parts of lots hereinabove mentioned,—shall be separated from the present township of Hemmingford, and shall form a distinct township and local municipality, under the name of the township of Havelock; and the said township of Havelock shall thereafter be deemed to be such separate municipality for all municipal, school, judicial and other purposes whatsoever, in the same manner and to all intents and purposes as though the said township of Havelock had been a distinct township from the remainder of the said township of Hemmingford, but had been united therewith and was hereby detached therefrom; and the said township of Havelock shall enjoy and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges conferred by any Acts or laws whatsoever upon township municipalities in Lower Canada; and the remainder of the said present township shall constitute and remain the township municipality of Hemmingford, and so many of the present municipal councillors and school commissioners as reside within the township of Hemmingford

To be a township for all purposes.

Remainder of Hemmingford to continue a township.
