

cellency the Governor in Chief, to know His Excellency's pleasure when he would receive the House with its Address; and that His Excellency had been pleased to appoint to-morrow at two of the Clock, afternoon, to receive the House at the Castle of Saint Lewis.

Then upon motion of Mr. Lee, seconded by Mr. M Caron,

The House adjourned till to-morrow at one of the Clock, afternoon.

Saturday, 18th July, 1812.

AT the hour appointed, Mr. Speaker and the House went up to the Castle of Saint Lewis, with the Address of this House to His Excellency the Governor in Chief:

And being returned;

Mr. Speaker reported, that the House had attended upon His Excellency the Governor in Chief with their Address, to which his Excellency was pleased to make the following answer:

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

I return you my most sincere thanks for your very loyal Address; the strong assurances that you have given me, of your readiness to co-operate in whatever measures may be deemed necessary for the safety and welfare of this portion of His Majesty's dominions, at the present momentous period, have not failed of being highly gratifying to me.

I shall take great pleasure in making known to His Majesty, the zeal and loyalty by which you are animated, and the confidence with which they inspire me, in your future cordial support of His Majesty's Government in this Province.

Accept my best thanks, for the highly favourable opinion you have been
