

COMPLETELY PARALYZED.

PHYSICIANS ARE ASTOUNDED BY A PECULIAR CASE.

A Young Canadian Stricken with Paralysis While in New York—Returned to His Home at London, Ont., as He Believed to Die—The Means of Renewed Health Pointed Out by a Clergyman who Visited Him.

Stricken with Landry's paralysis and yet cured. That means but little to the average layman, but it means a miracle to a physician. Such is the experience of O. E. Dallimore, at present a resident of Madison, N. J., and a rare experience it is.

"Yes, it's true that I had Landry's paralysis," said Mr. Dallimore to the reporter, "or else the most celebrated physicians of London were mistaken. That I have been cured is clearly apparent." With this he straightened up as sturdy and promising a son of Britain as ever trod American soil.

"It was on the 15th of March last," he continued, "when I was in New York city, that I first felt symptoms of my trouble. I experienced difficulty in going up stairs, my legs failing to support me. I consulted a physician who informed me that I had every symptom of locomotor ataxia, but as the case developed he pronounced it a case of Landry's paralysis and knowing the nature of the disease advised me to start for my home and friends. I gave up my work and on April 1st started for London, Ont. A well known physician was consulted but I grew rapidly worse and on Saturday, April 7th, several physicians held a consultation on my case and informed me that I was at death's door, having but three to six days to live, still I lingered on, by this time completely paralyzed, my hands and feet being dead; I could hardly whisper my wants and could only swallow liquids. Oh, the misery of those moments are beyond all description and death would really have been a welcome visitor.

"Now comes the part that has astounded the physicians. Rev. Mr. Gundy, a clergyman who visited me in my last hours, as he supposed, told me of the marvellous cures of paralysis that had been performed by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I started to take the pills about April 28 and a week after that felt an improvement in my condition. There was a warm tingling sensation in the limbs that had been entirely dead and I soon began to move my feet and hands. The improvement continued until May 28, when I was taken out of bed for a drive and drove the horse myself. By the beginning of July I was able to walk upstairs alone and paid a visit to Niagara.

"Slowly but surely I gained my old health and strength leaving London for New York on October 11 and beginning my work again on October 26, 1894. Cured of Landry's paralysis in eight months."

To confirm his story beyond all doubt, Mr. Dallimore made the following affidavit.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
MORRIS COUNTY,
Olave Dallimore being duly sworn on his oath said that the foregoing statement is just and true.

CLAVE E. DALLIMORE,
Sworn and subscribed before me December 3, 1894.

AMOS C. RATHBUN,
[SEAL] Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, that tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration, all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature. There are no ill effects following the use of this wonderful medicine, and it can be given to children with perfect safety.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. They may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams Medicine Company.

A Great Walker.

Joseph Calib, a butcher by trade and a native of Dumbarton, in Scotland, was famous in his day as a great pedestrian. Chronicling some of his more remarkable feats one of his friends says: "Not only was Calib a great walker, but he was also a rapid one. He could at times do nine miles and a quarter of an hour with ease, and keep this speed up for 120 minutes. The muscles of his legs and thighs were so fully developed that he was obliged to have special socks and trousers made for him.

His great, crowning feat of pedestrianism was accomplished on January 2, 1820, when he walked 620 miles without a break, the distance being covered in 102 hours and 40 minutes. This feat was witnessed by over 7,000 spectators, and took place on the road between Dumbarton and Glasgow. During its accomplishment he drank sparingly of whiskey and water and ate fairly large quantities of porridge and milk, these refreshments being supplied to him en route.

Aluminum in Wall Paper.

The uses of aluminum do not seem to have been exhausted yet. It is now coming into use in the decoration of wall papers, many beautiful conceptions being shown, in which this metal is a conspicuous figure. In floral striped effects the motives are printed on beautiful embossed grounds, which gives a burnished effect to the aluminum that is very desirable. An effective arrangement of daisies and fern leaves around the metalline is said to make a choice decoration for parlor or bed room. The use of aluminum with colors, with or without the addition of gold, is spoken of as another special feature of this new class of papers.

A Fish Yarn.

Come listen, friends, to a simple rhyme Of what befell once on a time To one, whose'er his faults may be, Whose strong point is—varacity.

That this yarn is unvarnished truth Is vouched for by two guileless youth; So 'tis not asking much of you, To try your best to think it true.

'Twas on a pleasant summer day When fishing, out on Sturgeon Bay, With trolling line both stout and strong, And rowing steadily along,

Lo, presently there came a shock, As if the hook had caught a rock; Then came a jerk, and then a plunge, A splendid strike,—a maskelonge.

That mammoth fish, judged by its strength, Was, at the least, ten feet in length; And at the lowest estimate 'Twould have scaled five hundred weight.

I played that fish an hour or more, Till arms, and hands, were tired and sore; Made an effort not to be beat, And tied the line fast to the seat,

Then plied the oars with might and main; Threw off my clothes and tried again. (To drown that fish, was my intent, Right in his native element.)

It did not take me long to learn, 'Twere as well to have tried to turn Niagara's torrent: Or to weave A fish yarn sportsmen would believe.

Both quite impossible, and so, Just as he pleased, I let him go. There is a current near this place As swift and strong as a mill race, And up against that current straight He towed that boat, at awful rate.

Ever on, at his own sweet will— We might have been a travelling still, Only his pace did slightly slack. When, right ahead just in our track, Appeared an island on which grew A stout and strong old tree, or two.

All in a flash I made a jump, And hitched the line around a stump, And made it fast. In a short space I took the bearings of the place, Then leaped into the boat once more And went assistance to procure.

This done, we started forth again And sought and sought, but all in vain. To find that island, fresh and green Which to this day has ne'er been seen. That mighty fish, of which I write, Had towed it off clean out of sight.

So now at last the mystery's clear, How that island came to disappear.

H. S. COLLINS.

A Lion Park.

Mr. Cecil Rhodes is making a "lion preserve" on his estate at Rondebosch, near Cape Town, South Africa. It will be enclosed by a 16-foot fence, and, curiously enough, it will be stocked with animals from England. Perhaps the domesticated article will be easier to manage than untamed cubs from the veldt. Mr. Rhodes' moods are very changeable. He has several times pulled down his house and built it up again; and he is constantly altering the aspect of his huge estate. He employs fifty black "boys" regularly in planting and improving on nature, and he is now making a five-mile drive through his place.

Furnishing the Text.

Boys, said a teacher in a Sunday-school, can any of you quote a verse from Scripture to prove that it is wrong for a man to have two wives? He paused, and after a moment or two a bright boy raised his hand. Well, Thomas? said the teacher encouragingly. Thomas stood up and said: No man can serve two masters.

After the Grip

No Strength, No Ambition

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave Perfect Health.

The following letter is from a well-known merchant tailor of St. George, N. B.:
"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Gentlemen—I am glad to say that Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills have done me a great deal of good. I had a severe attack of the grip in the winter, and after getting over the fever I did not seem to gather strength, and had no ambition. Hood's Sarsaparilla proved to be just what I needed. The results were very satisfactory, and I recommend this medicine to all who are afflicted with rheumatism or other

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. Sold by all druggists

Get Rid of Neuralgia.

There is no use in fooling with neuralgia. It is a disease that gives way only to the most powerful remedies. No remedy yet discovered has given the grand results that invariably attend the employment of Polson's Nerviline. Nerviline is a positive specific for all nerve pains, and ought to be kept on hand in every family. Sold every where, 25 cents a bottle.

The pansy can be grown black, white and all the intermediate shades, the only deficiency being in the scarlet and allied hues.

Charlatans and Quacks.

Have long plied their vocation on the suffering pedals of the people. The knife has pared to the quick; caustic applications have tormented the victim of corns until the conviction shaped itself—there's no cure. Putnam's Painless Corn Extract proves on what slender basis public opinion often rests. If you suffer from corns get the Extractor and you will be satisfied. Sold everywhere.

Still Struggling.

Conquered your bicycle yet? Not yet. I've got so the darn machi ne doesn't win more than two falls out of three, though.

"Rock Me to Sleep, Mother."

The poem, "Rock Me to Sleep, Mother" was written by Elizabeth Akers Allen, known otherwise as "Florence Percy." It is a general favorite for it is a sweet little touch of home life. But there is another side to the picture. Many a mother rocks her child to sleep who can neither rest nor sleep herself. She is always tired, has an overhauling headache, is low spirited, weary, nervous and all that. Thanks be, she can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do the work. There is nothing on earth like it, for the "complaints" to which the sex are liable. Once used, it is always in favor.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are a specific for biliousness, headaches, constipation, piles, and kindred ailments.
