COULD NOT HIT IN THE PINCHES

Brooklyn Lost to New York by the Score of 2 to 1.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The New Yorks crept a little closer to the championship yesterday, when they took a close game from Brooklyn by a score of 2 to 1. The game was a tight pitchers' battle between the two veterans—Mathewson and Roulbach. The New York star yielded more hits but he had better control. At several stages a hit would have beat Mathewson, but the veteran was at his best in the pinchers. Score: New York 2; Brooklyn 1.

WAS AN EVEN BREAK

Boston Took the Opener and Philadelphia the Second Game

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—After Dick Rudolph had held the Phillies to three hits in the opening game, which Boston won by 4 to 0, the second place holders hammered Perdue and Davis to all corners of the lot in the final battle of yesterday's double header, winning easily 11 to 6. Scores: First game: Boston 4; Philadelphia 0; second game: Boston 11; Philadelphia 6.

PITTSBURG BEAT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The Chicago Cubs opened a three-day series here yesterday that will wind up the local season, and were defeated 3 to 2 mainly because of Cheney's wildness and errors behind him. Score: Pittsburgh 3; Chicago 2.

Football

All arrangements were made at the meeting of the football council last night for the semi-final game between Cockshtuts United and the Y. M. C. A. in the John Hill Charity Cup series, which will be played on Saturday afternoon at the Agricultural Park on the lower grounds. The council appointed Mr. George Goateley to referee the game and Messrs Farnsworth and Cassels will act as linesmen. The game is scheduled to start at 3.15 sharp. Both teams are very evenly matched, and a fast, clean game is looked for. The council hopes that the game will be well attended, as the proceeds will be donated to the Tuberculosis Hospital funds.

The winners of the game on Saturday will play off the final with the Holmedale Tigers on the following Saturday.

Courier Cup Series.

The dates for the semi-finals of the Courier Cup series were set last night, and the draw for the teams were made.

On Saturday afternoon, October 11th, the Y.M.C.A. team will meet the Dufferin Rifles. Cockshtuts United and the All Scots will play their game on Saturday afternoon, October 18th. The final game will be played on the afternoon of October 25th.

School Boys' League.

Public School Inspector Kilmer and the principals of the different public schools held a joint meeting, with the football council last night for the purpose of forming a school boys football league in the city. The principals stated that they were in favor of such a league being formed, if the football council would have supervision over it. This the council consented to do. After a short discussion it was decided that the council should draft a set of by-laws to govern the league and also to set the age limit, which will likely be 14 years. The principals were of the opinion that the council should fast teach the children the rudiments and the principals will do. Mr. George Cronch has offered his services to instruct the Ryerson school team, William Blues has consented to look after the Dufferin school team and Major Ashton the Mohawk Institute lads. The council have offered from others who will gladly instruct the boys.

A number of the council and principals were of the opinion that it would probably be advisable to teach the boys the rules and fine points of the game this Fall, and form the league in the Spring. Another meeting of the council and the principals will be held in the near future, when the council will submit to them for approval the by-laws which they will draw up.

For the fifth time since two major leagues have been in Philadelphia Athletics, headed, as heretofore, by the redoubtable Connie Mack, have clinched the championship of Ban Johnson's organization. No other team has so good a record. Goston, Chicago and Detroit have each won the flag three times. No other club has won it at all.

SPORTING COMMENT

BY FREE LANCE

That Eastern Rugby football is superior to that being played in the Canadian West, is evidenced by the rather easy manner in which the Hamilton Tigers have succeeded in trouncing the Western teams which they have met so far in their tour of the provinces. The tour of the Jungle Kings will put them in good shape for the coming games in the Big Four.

Physicians who treated Geo. Callahan, the Toronto outfielder, who recently broke his left leg, say that he will be lucky if he walks with the aid of a crutch by New Year's day. Callahan opened the game in which he was hurt with a triple. On a muffed fly he attempted to steal home, and while sliding his spikes caught, snapping the bone.

"Shag" Shaughnessy, leader of the Ottawa Senators, champions of the Canadian Baseball League, is busy these days with the McGill Rugby squad, which he is endeavoring to round into shape for the inter-collegiate series. Shag says that he has some great material for this year's team, but judging from the way that Toronto Varsity bunch is bolstering up, he will need the best there is to be had to come home with the bacon.

That the Courier cup football series is attracting considerable attention throughout the city is evidenced by the large number of fans who have turned out to the games so far played, to cheer on their favorite teams, and if they do not give a good account of themselves this year it will not be for want of practice and training. The Maple Leafs are also putting in much time with the pig-skin at Agricultural Park and they appear to have lined up a fairly strong bunch of players. It is now up to the fans of the boys and by their support at the games, which will be played here, to help them along in their struggles for supremacy. Rugby, perhaps, is not as popular in Brantford as the game merits, but a few of the fans would only take to the park some afternoon and see the boys go to it, there would surely be many converts to the game, which in these parts and at this time of the year, heads the list.

What is Brantford going to do in hockey this year? True, it is a little bit early to commence talking about Canada's great winter pastime at the present, but the hockey bugs in other cities and towns surrounding are beginning to stir, so why not in Brantford? Stratford for instance has already organized, has a nice balance on hand, and is now ready for the ice.

London sporting writers have for some time been busy shooting the dope regarding the chances of the Forest City in the hockey world of 1913-1914. Woodstock will be the new arena boasts that with the aid of Jack Pender, who was in the line-up of the Industrial City during the past summer, she will win the junior O. H. A. championship, while Hamilton and Guelph enthusiasts stirred by the chill September winds, which are evidence of the fact that the snow show is coming, will soon be quietly among themselves just what they are going to do when the time comes to go down the cellar after those rusty skates and hockey sticks, and take from off the shelf that old rubber disc.

It is a well known fact that Brantford has plenty of hockey material within her borders to form not only a strong city league but a couple of speedy O. H. A. teams as well. Why not get the ball rolling early, hold an organization meeting in the very near future and elect a list of officers who will be enthusiastic enough to look the material up and have the boys in line just as soon as the rink is ready. With a beautiful arena, such as Brantford possesses, there is no reason why hockey should not boom here this winter. It has no reason why it should not boom, however, if everything is left until the last minute. Get busy, you hockey sports!

Chestnut Is Some Great Pacer

That horse, Chestnut, owned by John Carmody, Cainsville, must be some horse. His owner says that that Chestnut without any kind of preparation can pace a mile in 2.15. If this is so they may as well pack up the money now at the fall fairs and send it right on to the Oil King at Cainsville. Chestnut will go to Onswegen fair, the glory of the Six Nations, but it is said there are other sharp shooters likely to be there, and Chestnut may have to go some.

get a taste and a good taste at that of the exciting gridiron sport. Already an inter-scholastic league, composed of teams from London, Galt, and Brantford collegiates has been organized and the season will open in his city on October 4th. The B. C. I. boys are now holding daily practices in preparation for the coming games, and if they do not give a good account of themselves this year it will not be for want of practice and training. The Maple Leafs are also putting in much time with the pig-skin at Agricultural Park and they appear to have lined up a fairly strong bunch of players. It is now up to the fans of the boys and by their support at the games, which will be played here, to help them along in their struggles for supremacy. Speaking of Harry Thaw, Christmas gifts, and if anything happens to the rest of the pitching staff it will be necessary to put Connie Mack in one.

"Huggins helped me, and I'll help him," declared McGraw in answer to a query to explain the famous Grand-all-McLean deal. So the Cardinals' leader is to get a pick of certain players named by McGraw when the season is over.

Chief Bender, who was said to be slipping back, is the hurler who has pulled the Athletics through the tough games. In figuring all of Bender's games he has allowed but 1.8 runs per game, leading all of his mates. Manager McGraw believes, Ozark Jeff Tesreau will be the big noise in the big series against the Athletics.

On Saturday, at the Island Stadium, the first game for the senior city championship and the Richard Greer Cup will be played between the Park Nine, champions of the City Senior League, and the Capitals, winners of the Northern Senior League. The game will be called at 3.15 and should be over before the Greer-Dunlop ball race is pulled off.

RING RECOVERED.

CASE IS DISMISSED

Brantford Woman Who Lost Valuable Ring at Hamilton.

While Mrs. Buck of Brantford was visiting in Hamilton during Centennial week, she missed her $500 diamond ring from its accustomed place on her finger. Mrs. Buck was stopping at a local hotel and she accused James Lewis, a bell-boy, of the theft. Lewis denied the accusation, and several days later he left the city. Mrs. Buck was told to place the case in the hands of the police and Detective Sayer went to Welland, and brought Lewis back to face the charge. This morning Lewis appeared before Magistrate Jeffs, but the evidence was weak and Lewis was discharged. Mrs. Buck's story was that she was ill and Buck's story was that she was ill and she was for Lewis to bring her meals to her room. She told him to take the ring from her finger, and then it disappeared. The stone was later recovered from a young lady in Syracuse, but this woman refused to come to Hamilton to testify. A representative of the stone was sold by his firm several years ago. It was purchased for $475, but at the present time it was worth $575. C. W. Bell, who appeared for Lewis, declined to put his client in the box, but testified, and the magistrate dismissed the charge.

Some Party For The Big Series

As usual about this time of the year the world's series bug is getting local fans. Already a party is organized to take in the big show this year, and to its numbers are being added other members daily. The presidential big chief of the Red Sox tribe will head the stateroom party. Chief Wampum Bearer, Roy Brown will be right next. The Tomahawk Man, Cancellia, is also expected to be scarce in local parts when McGraw cracks his whip on his cohorts. Herbert Littlefield, the Red Sox Scout and travelling secretary, proposes to get down to New York some way or other. Mr. John Carmody is going down to see the ball game and incidentally buy some inside New York real estate. Edward Andrich has also joined the tribe, while Mr. William Fraser of the Always-There-Club, has a stateroom entered by himself. After all official dignity will not be lacking to the occasion and the party should be a merry one.

Harvy Stinson's Great Success

Brantford Man Handles Second Fastest Three-Year-Old Trotter in History

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 25.—Don Chenault, driven by Harry Stinson, of Brantford, Ontario, owned in Charlestown, W. Va., to-day at the Grand Circuit track did sensational trotting, and took the Horse Review Futurity for three-year-olds from a large field of which it was the favorite. The time for the first heat was 2:06 1-4, making Don Chenault the second fastest three-year-old trotter of history, and breaker of this season's record. Eta-wh whose first defeat this year came to-day, was the contender in the first heat, and went away beside Don Chenault in the second. The Geets colt made a break before the first turn was reached, and lost so much ground that he could not overtake the leaders. Nowaday Girl set the pace for most of the mile. Don Chenault coming forward in the stretch.

ATHLETICS WON FROM BOSTON

Wyckoff Passed No Less Than Twelve Red Sox to First.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Oldring and Lapp pulled a double play in the off-inning yesterday and ended a miserable game, the Athletics being the winners 10 to 0. The final play cut off a run, thereby preventing Boston from tying the score. Wyckoff was on the mound for the visitors and his work was very poor, his inability to get them over putting twelve Red Sox on first base via the pass route. Score: Philadelphia 10; Boston 0.

FLED WITH HUSBAND ACCUSED OF MURDER

English Woman Says She Was Deserted in Ottawa and Left Destitute.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 25.—After fleeing from England, with her husband when he was accused of murder, and then being deserted by him in Ottawa, and forced to care for herself and three children, Mrs. P. McCowan, came to this city and was found in a destitute condition. Mrs. McCowan, who says she is a daughter of wealthy English parents, declares she eloped with a traveling musician named Philip Parker. Her husband was accused of murdering one of his companions and fled to Canada with his wife and children. His family took the name of McCowan. The man soon deserted his wife to join a circus troupe. Shortly afterwards Mrs. McCowan's oldest child was taken by the authorities. She then came to the United States with her three other children, first and then to Fort Atkinson, Wis., coming from there to this city five weeks ago. When found by the Poor Commissioner, they were without food or fuel and their clothing was nearly in rags. A pile of old quilts served as a bed. They utilized boxes for chairs and tables. The family has been sent back to Fort Atkinson.
