CONVENTION WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Congregational Mission Women Hold Profitable and Interesting Session

The second and last day's sessions of the 28th annual meeting of the Canadian Congregational Women's Board of Missions were held yesterday in the Congregational church and proved most successful and exceedingly helpful to the large number of delegates.

The Rev. Matthew Kelly the pastor of the Brantford church was ever at hand giving his help and advice, and everything went off most smoothly.

The morning session was given up to hearing departmental reports. All showed progress. A very helpful question drawer was conducted by Mrs. Nasmith of Toronto in the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Bale of Hamilton.

In the afternoon reports were received from the Business and Resolution committees. Among the chief items of business was the continuance of present work in the heart of Central Africa, medical and educational; also the increasing of the grant for Bible instruction in the government schools of Ceylon.

It was decided to continue the work in the American Collegiate Institute for girls at Smyrna. As a memorial to their late Hon. President of Kingston, whose children are missionaries in Turkey, it was decided to take out an endowment scholarship for the daughters of native pastors in the Turkish school. An invitation to meet at Cobourg, Ontario, next year was accepted.

A resolution expressing sympathy for the Salvation Army in the loss of so many leaders in the recent Empress disaster; also to Mr. H. O'Hara of Toronto in the loss of his son, H. R. O'Hara of Toronto, was passed.

A resolution of sympathy to Mrs. Wm. Foster of Scotland in the loss of their son, Ewart, in Toronto, by accident, was passed.

A resolution of thankfulness was passed at the opening up of Turkey and the Moslem world to Christianity, as one of the results of the Balkan Movement.

Mr. Gordon Cattell of the W. C. African mission, who was to have addressed the meeting, having been delayed en route, his place in the programme was taken by Rev. W. C. Bell of the same mission, who spoke on "The Past and Present Work Carried on Among the Portuguese Subjects in Angola."

The election of officers then took place and resulted as follows:

President: Mrs. S. H. E. Moodie, Montreal.

Vice-president: Mrs. H. E. Hume, Toronto.

Secretary: Miss L. M. Silcox, Toronto.

Treasurer: Miss Emily Thompson, Toronto.

Superintendents—Home Mission, Miss Edith MacCallum, Kingston; Foreign Missions Supplies, Miss Edith Clarke, Toronto; Mission Circles and Bands, Mrs. E. Cole, Toronto; Missionary Reading, Mrs. P. Munro, Maxwell, Ont.; Missionary Literature, Miss Arns, Toronto; Systematic and Prorogation, Miss J. A. Heath, Montreal; Associate Members, Miss Susie Davy, Stouffville; Temperance, Mrs. Bohlmer, Berlin; Labrador, Miss Moodie, Montreal; Organization, Mrs. J. D. Nasmith, Business Committee, Mrs. J. Nasmith, Resolution Committee, Mrs. Black, Montreal; Librarian, Mrs. Moodie, Montreal; Editor of Leaflet, Mrs. Savage, Montreal; Assistant Editor, Miss M. E. Richardson.

Evening Session.

Last night's session, which was also the last, opened at 8 o'clock in the church, with Mrs. Moodie in the chair.

The feature of the evening was the address by Rev. A. A. Willman, of the "The Germans in Alberta."

Rev. Mr. Willman has worked for some years among the German ranchers in Alberta and his address last evening was intensely interesting from first to last.

"Who are the Germans we meet with in Alberta?" was the query with which Mr. Willman began his address. They are not the Germans you find in Berlin and other Ontario towns, but are Germans that have emigrated from Russia and are termed German-Russians.

About 150 years ago the Empress Catherine asked the Germans to settle down among the Russian natives. In many cases the Russians have pulled the Germans down to their low estate. The people that we meet in Alberta are the German Americans from the Western States mixed with Russian Germans. The church of Russia is the Greek Catholic Church, while the church of the Germans is the German Lutheran church. Both are very much alike. The evangelical Germans coming from the States were opposed by both these churches, and at first they had great difficulty holding their meetings in Alberta. Mr. Willman then gave a few humorous incidents showing the peculiar ideas of the native Russian Germans have of the Americans, particularly of American women. The wives of the German Russians are treated with almost the same as the North American Indians used to treat their wives. The missionaries had a great task overcoming their ideas in this regard. On account of this it is necessary, Mr.

Willman maintained, to go slow at all mission work among them.

Speaking of the results of the mission work among the Germans, Mr. Willman said it was very successful, for a German when he turned to the Lord, very, very seldom turned away from Him. One of the things the missionary has to contend with among the Germans, is about the desire on the part of the Germans to have their children get married at an extremely early age. One day a German boy and girl, both aged 14, walked into Mr. Willman's study and asked to be married. This was one of the many humorous incidents of the address of Mr. Willman. Of the financial support of the mission work Mr. Willman said the Germans themselves were the best of givers. One mission cost $1000. Of this amount the Germans themselves raised $950. It is even hoped that German women missionary societies may be organized among the women in Alberta, in the near future.

In conclusion Mr. Willman made a strong plea for more workers and better financial backing for the Alberta missions.

After the offering had been received, the delegates were treated to an illustrated address on "New work in West Central Africa," by Rev. W. C. Bell. Views descriptive of the mission work carried on by the Congregational church in West Central Africa were thrown on the screen and each picture was ably explained by Mr. Bell. The address proved a very interesting one, and indeed highly educational as well. Particularly interesting were the views describing new railway construction in West Central Africa, and the manner of agriculture carried on by the natives there. One view that produced a solemn hush upon the audience was that portraying the holding of a service by Mr. Bell among the natives in the evening out on the hillside.

Mr. Bell told of how these meetings lasted far into the morning, as caravan parties coming along stopped and the travelling natives listened for the first time to the story of the Babe of Bethlehem and the Man of Calvary.

The singing of hymn 550 "Saviour, again to Thy dear name we raise" and the benediction by Rev. Matthew Kelly brought the 28th annual meeting of the Canadian Congregational Women's Board of Missions to a close.

South Wales Premier Makes Hot Criticism

SYDNEY, Australia, June 5—Premier William A. Holman of New South Wales whose comments on the loss of the Empress of Ireland have given rise to much criticism denies that he prejudged the official inquiry. On June 2 in a message of sympathy in connection with the disaster he said: "I expect that the inquiry will end in the condemnation of some unfortunate second mate or seaman. There will be no safety for the travelling public until directors of the companies which send 1500 people to sea in a ship capable of being destroyed in fifteen minutes are put on trial as accessories to manslaughter. I hope that the Canadian Government will deal with calamity in that spirit. I am not saying who is innocent or guilty, but if the disaster was due to human failing the people who make money by gambling in human lives ought to be punished."

Impulsive Woman's Jump.
At Plantation Quay, Glasgow, when the dock laborers were commencing work, a woman inquired for her husband. Upon hearing that he had passed the night in a model lodging-house, she exclaimed, "Has he come to that?" and jumped into the river. A dockerman named John Counts dived into the water, seized the woman, and, despite her struggles, succeeded in swimming with her to the rudder of the steamer Crown of Canada, to which he held until a boat rescued both from their perilous position.

Degrees were conferred on over 700 graduates of the University of Toronto.

EXTRA GRANULATED SUGAR
"Ye Old Sugar Loaf" of 1854
THE CANADIAN SUGAR REFINING CO. LIMITED

When you pay a good price for your strawberries, and spend a lot of time preparing, cooking and bottling them, isn't it too bad only to get after all, preserves that "might have been better"?

Yet that is what you do get, unless you use the very best sugar as well as the finest fruit.

Every trace of impurity in the sugar has a bad effect on the flavor and the keeping qualities of the preserves.

Redpath Extra Granulated Sugar is refined to absolute purity, and put up, without being touched by human hand, in 2 and 5 pound Sealed Cartons and in 10, 20 and 100 pound bags.

Buy Redpath Sugar in these original packages and you get Canada's finest sugar, at its best. Make your preserves, jellies and jams with Redpath Extra Granulated and you'll get the most gratifying returns from your time, skill and money.

Try this way of preserving Strawberries—it works splendidly.

Hull and clean the strawberries and put them into jars which have been sterilized with boiling water. Fill each jar, but do not pack the fruit down.

Makes a thin syrup by boiling for ten minutes 3 parts of REDPATH Extra Granulated Sugar in 5 parts of water. You will need nearly as many pints of syrup as of fruit.

Pour the syrup over the fruit, filling the jars. Screw on the covers, without the rubbers, stand the jars on strips of wood in a wash-boiler, and cover them to within an inch of the tops with cold water. Bring this water to a boil and cook for from 15 to 20 minutes, according to the ripeness of the berries. Watch closely after they have boiled 15 minutes, and when cooked remove at once.

Have the syrup, which was left over, very hot. With a fork gently stir the fruit so as to get out all the air bubbles, then fill each jar up with the hot syrup and seal, being careful no leave no air inside.

Strawberries, raspberries or any other fruit preserved in this way keep their shape and size, and retain much more of the fresh fruit flavor than if they are cooked up in the ordinary way.

COURIER EMBROIDERY PATTERNS

DIRECTIONS FOR TRANSFERRING.
Lay a piece of impression paper, face down, upon the material. Place the newspaper pattern in position over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil firmly trace each line.

If the material is sheer, this may be laid over the pattern, and the design drawn direct on the goods, as it will show through. When handled in this way, impression paper, of course, will not be required.

MOTIF FOR BAG OR SCARF END.

This motif may be used on a bag or repeated three times on a scarf end with good effect. The flower and leaves should be solidly worked with the exception of that part of the flower which is done in eyelets and seedings. The outer edge of these leaves is outlined. Use mercerized cotton No. 20.
