Local News

THE PROBS TONKONTO, Nov. 30.—Rain is falling over the greater portion of Ontario, elsewhere the weather is fair. Colder conditions are setting in over the west.

FORECASTS: Fresh southeast to south winds, mild and showery to-day and on Tuesday.

ELECTRICAL PERMITS. Eighty-seven electrical permits have been issued during the month in the city by the electrical inspector.

BUILDING PERMIT. Edward Fear of Murray street has taken out a building permit for the erection of a cottage at a cost of $900.

TO APPOINT THEM The city council to-night will appoint the returning officers for the municipal elections.

WANTS CENSUS Chief Clerk J. Mellett of the L. E. & M. desires a copy of the municipal census for the clerk, and has written asking for one.

INFORMATION DESIRED The Department of Harbor, Toronto, asks for particulars of the building permits issued for November in the city. The information is required for statistical purposes.

THE TRUST CLUB The L.W.T. club held a very successful gathering on Saturday night at the Y.W.C.A. when the girls were admirably addressed by the Rev. A. E. Lavell. Miss Eileen Hart sang to the delight of all.

UNDERWENT EXAMINATION For some time past the officers of the Brantford Police Force have been taking lessons in First Aid work from Doctors Phillips and Barber and they have undergone an examination in the work by Dr. Chas. E. Pearson and now await the results and certificates.

TO ADDRESS STORY HOUR. The Rev. G. A. Woodside will conduct the Story Hour at the Public Library to-morrow afternoon. He will speak on the War in a manner that will interest the children. On Thursday the subject will be the Scout Master of Troop No. 5—a story by R. T. Thurston.

CHIEF GETS LETTER. A Chief Slemin this morning received a letter from Mrs. Eileen Hart, which she said that her husband was hearty and well the last time he wrote to her. She thanks the Chief for past kindnesses and also for the cheque for the late Sammie Bonfield, which the Chief was written at the same time as the one to the Treasurer, and it is couched in almost similar terms.

DISPOSING OF EFFECTS. Mr. A. B. Owen of the Barnardo Homes in Toronto, wrote to the City Clerk with regard to the effects left by the late Sammie Bonfield, who died in the hospital after receiving a discharge in his head. All the articles are to be collected and sent on to Bonfield's relatives in England. These articles and things will be sent in a suit case which belonged to the deceased.

EDUCATIONAL CO-OPERATION The Ontario Association for the promotion of Technical Education desires the co-operation of Brantford in its scheme for the spread of a better and more defusive technical knowledge among the young people of to-day. Their principal aim is to arouse and mould a public interest in the work which is to accomplish great good for each individual community by reason of the extra efficiency of its younger generations. A list of excellent lecturers upon different subjects are given and they are to receive their services free. Brantford is asked to respond to the appeal in order that the city may be included in the programme for a winter and so in no way to interfere with the arrangements under way.

WERE CONGRATULATED Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams at their home on Robertson Ave., Echo Place, on the occasion of their sixteenth marriage anniversary, were on Friday last the subjects of a surprise party from about 25 of their oldest friends and acquaintances. The congratulations had been made and a hearty impromptu supper enjoyed, the guests put on a program of singing which was much enjoyed, those taking part were Mr. and Mrs. W. Lewis, Miss Margaret Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Scott, Miss Josie Whitney and Miss Grace Williams, who gracefully danced, and returned the guests were not forgetful, and left many pleasant tokens of their visit by way of presents. At the conclusion of the evening, the singing of "The Maple Leaf" terminated the happy anniversary occasion.

SUMMARY OF ALL THE WAR NEWS

[By Special Wire to The Courier.]

England is confronted with the necessity of energetic action, according to advices to-day from Berlin, to protect her interests in the Far East. A report from Cairo to Berlin is to the effect that the movement against the British forces in Egypt has assumed formidable proportions, 76,000 Turkish troops being on the march towards the Suez canal. In the hostile army there is said to be 10,000 Bedouins. Interest attached to this report chiefly because of the recent proclamation of the Sultan of Turkey, calling upon Mohammedans, being world over, to rise to arms against Great Britain and other members of the Triple Entente. Thus far there have been no indications that the representative of the British army there is said to be 10,000 Bedouins.
