

District News

FROM COURIER CORRESPONDENTS

NEWPORT

(From our own correspondent)
Rev. James Drew conducted the Easter service on Sabbath evening and preached an excellent sermon.
Mr. Bruce Charlton spent over the week-end at Stratford.
Miss Clarion Henry of Kelvin is the guest of Miss Esther Wheeler.
Master Lloyd Phillippe spent over Easter at home.
Mr. Henry Hous motored from Lynden on Saturday and called on his uncle, Mr. F. Emmott.
Mrs. Henry Awoock and daughter Greta, of London, are the guests of Mrs. Thos. Phillippe for a week.
Miss Carolyn Emmott spent a few days at Stratford.
Mrs. Geo. Klinkhammer of the city, spent an week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mellican.
Wedding bells in the near future.

MOUNT VERNON

(From our own correspondent)
Miss Oliver Smith has returned home after an extended visit with her cousin at Detroit.
Miss Edith and Mr. Fred MacDonald spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. W. Glass at Paris.
Miss Mae Sturjiss has returned home after a month's visit with friends and relatives at Hagersville.
Mr. A. Henderson has purchased a Ford car.
Miss Marjorie Dickie of Burford spent Good Friday with Mrs. Catton.
Mrs. W. Glass and little sons are visiting relatives at Paris.
Egworth League was held here last Monday evening, March 25th.
Mr. Frank Armstrong took the meeting and Miss I. Dymont took the topics.

RANELAGH

(From our own correspondent)
Making syrup is the order of the day.
Mr. Walker, of Hamilton, was calling on some of his old neighbors on Sunday at Stratford.
Mr. and Mrs. John Wylie called on Mr. and Mrs. S. Cooper on Saturday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Witts, of the Gore, took dinner with their daughter, Mrs. John Johnson on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hartley of Prosperity Point, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Fiddin, on Sunday.
Rev. Zimmerman and wife took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. Wood.
Mrs. Purdy spent a few days of last week at Mr. Ransom Woods.
Miss Ella Jull, of Simcoe, is spending the holidays with her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Saywell spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Hoggard.

LANCFOED

(From our own correspondent)
Rev. Mr. Downs had charge of the prayer meeting and bible class on Tuesday evening.
Mrs. D. Stuart returned last Thursday after spending a few days at Stratford.
Miss E. Huggins was the guest of Mrs. Ed. Mulligan on Sunday.
Mrs. W. Baldwin and son, Plattsburgh, spent over Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Mulligan.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Duncan and family spent over Easter at Mr. H. M. Vanderlip's.
Mrs. John D. Day is visiting a few days with her sister, Mrs. Orrill Flanders.
Several from here attended the funeral on Tuesday of Mrs. E. Woods of Echo Place.
Mrs. M. E. Vanderlip returned the last of the week from Picton.
Mrs. D. Westbrook, Mrs. R. Wood, Mrs. A. Wood, Jerseyville, spent Wednesday with Mrs. O. Flanders.
Mrs. John Hunter returned from Rochester last week after spending a couple of weeks with relatives.
Mr. James W. Westbrook was at Burford on Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. James W. Westbrook entertained a few friends one evening last week.

CAINSVILLE NEWS

(From our own correspondent)
Mrs. John Holstock and daughter Dorothy of Wainand, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hett, on Monday.
Miss Vera Graham from Normal School, Hamilton, is spending her Easter holidays with her parents.
Rev. Mr. Ellis was visiting in the village on Good Friday.
The Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Foulger on Tuesday. Mrs. Herb. Sumler gave a very interesting paper. Miss E. Fox played an instrumental.
The Misses Olive Turvey and Francis Waring, spent the week-end in Woodstock.
We are very sorry to report that Dr. McCaul is leaving the village.
Master Harry and Edwin Down are spending their Easter holidays with their Uncle, Mr. C. Burrill.
Mrs. D. McLeas, Hamilton, Mrs. G. McLean, Burford, have been visiting Mrs. D. Campbell.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Short and children, spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. J. VanStickle.
The Misses Cora Hanley and Madeline Dick, were visiting in Hamilton.
Mr. Lew Smith spent Easter in Dunville.
Miss Pearl Ludlow, Galt, was the Easter guest of her mother.
Mr. Chamberlain was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Yule on Sunday.

SCOTLAND

(From our own correspondent)
Mr. E. Wodley, who has purchased the Hunter farm, has moved on it.

Miss W. Foster of Toronto, is home for the holiday.
Mr. H. Winrowe has moved into the house in the village he lately purchased.
Mr. Claude Mitchell is home for the week.
Mr. Francis Bosley of Toronto, is spending the week at home here.
Messrs. Gould and Proper shipped a carload of cattle from the station to Toronto.
The new Congregational minister, the Rev. Mr. Mann, has arrived in the village and preached on Sunday.
The Masons are reorganizing their hall and making other improvements.
Miss Flossie Mitchell is home from Bookton for the holidays.
The evaporator is busy drying onions.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beemer spent Sunday at Boston.
Mr. Will Taylor has a new McLaughlin car.

TEETERVILLE

(From Our Own Correspondent).
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Scott spent Easter at P. Watson's.
Mr. S. Miller was in London on Tuesday on business.
Mrs. T. Rice is not improving very fast.
A good many attended Mrs. Weaver's funeral last Sunday.
Raking up the dooryards seems to be the order of business these days.
Mrs. Taylor had a visitor over Easter her father from Springfield.
Mr. S. Silverthorn was in Simcoe last Friday on business.
Mr. John Jackson and Dr. Bell were in Simcoe on business last Thursday.
There was a good turnout at both churches on Easter.
Mr. and Mrs. William Walker spent Easter with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur, at Pleasant Ridge.
Mrs. N. J. H. Green spent Easter at Simcoe. Distrow spent Easter with her parents at Springfield.

BURFORD

(From our own correspondent)
Mr. Barwell, of Buffalo, spent the week-end with Mrs. Marshall, of Kitchener, spent Easter at their home here.
Mr. D. Gieseler spent a few days this week in Buffalo.
Charlie and Gerald Saunders are visiting the parental home.
Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ryder spent the holidays with her parents.
Mr. A. Wedge of Woodstock visited his father, Mr. John Wedge last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Weaver of Hamilton spent over Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Woodin.
Miss Bessie Taylor of Paris was the guest of Miss E. B. Robertson over the Easter holidays.
Mr. Morley Messerac has purchased "The Advance" here, and will move to the village soon.
Mrs. J. A. Benoit of Vancouver are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woodley.
Little Gwendie Clark has returned from Toronto hospital after a long illness.
Mr. J. A. Mull has moved to Burford.
Mrs. Sharpe has returned from spending the winter in Kitchener and Burford.
Miss Johnston of New York City has been visiting her brother, Dr. Johnston.
Mr. J. Henry has purchased a new car.
Miss Wilnot of Brantford visited her aunt Mrs. Robt. Miles last week.
Mrs. A. D. Muir is spending the winter here.
Mr. Fred Miles, an old Burford boy, was calling on friends here this week.
Mrs. Wilcox of Hamilton is visiting Mrs. E. M. Lewis.
Mrs. F. J. Standing has been engaged to marry the Burford school in the place of Miss Elridge, who has resigned.

CATHCART

(From our own correspondent)
The Red Cross Club held a very successful "dance" in the Foresters' Hall on Monday evening. A jolly time was spent by all present.
Mr. and Mrs. Tyce of Toronto, are spending a few days with the latter's sisters, Mrs. Chas. Read and Mrs. F. L. Sherrid.
The Misses Irene and Marvel Sherman of Hamilton, are spending a few days at the parental home.
A number from here attended Mr. John Force's sale at Woodbury on Wednesday.
Miss May Caton, of Tansley, spent over Sunday with her parents here.
Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell, Loudou, of Hamilton, are the holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sherman.
Mr. Francis and Miss Clara Francis, spent one day last week with friends near Woodstock.
Lieut. D. H. Weir of Toronto, spent a few days at his home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Courtage of Northfield Centre, spent over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas.
Captain Arch Secord of Toronto, is visiting his parents here.
Mr. Sol. Oulseybrook is spending a few days in Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Elliott and children of Brantford, spent Sunday with relatives here.
Mr. and Mrs. Spicer and Jack, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs.

Haugh.
Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stevenson on Sunday.
Master Jim Oulsey brook of Burford, spent a few days with relatives here.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stephenson spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

HATCHLEY

A number from here attended the Brantford Market on Saturday with syrup. The quantity made so far is not as great as usual.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Malcolm have moved to New Durham.
Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of London, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Sommers.
Mrs. Wm. Clement and daughters of Bookton, spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Singer.
Mrs. W. Potter, of Brantford, visited Mr. and Mrs. Burtis, last week.
Mr. G. H. Morris is seriously indisposed with rheumatism.
Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie and Miss Mackenzie, of Brantford, were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. Dean.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Ballard, have moved to Stratford.
Mrs. Byron Burtis entertained her Sunday School class one evening last week.
Miss Orpha Root, of Norwich, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. Root.
Mrs. Warboys, of Brantford, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Burtis.
Mr. J. Ballard has rented his farm to Mr. V. Chambers of Mt. Vernon.
Mr. Emerson Morris, of Brantford, is spending some time at his home here.
Reg. and Hazel Cox, of Brantford are spending their holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Burtis.

HARLEY

(From Our Own Correspondent).
Miss Mabel and Dora Force attended the wedding of their cousin, Mr. Myrtle Hamner, and Miss Daisy Frain of Norwich, a former school teacher here, on Wednesday, March 27th.
Mrs. Wm. Shellington and Mrs. Cotton spent Tuesday last with Mrs. G. Clement, Fairfield.
Master Clifford Dean of Brantford is holidaying here.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Ryder spent Thursday last at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Harry Force, Woodbury.
Mr. Alfred Dean of Hawley spent last week here at the home of his brother, Mr. Clark Dean.
Miss Smith is spending the holidays at her home in Chatham.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Ryder spent Sunday in Brantford at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cox.
Mr. Frank Casner had a successful operation at the Brantford Hospital on Saturday last.
Mrs. Joseph Brova spent over Sunday at the home of Mrs. P. Carder, New Durham.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bennett of Brantford motored and spent Saturday here.
Mrs. Geo. Weir and children of Paris spent over the Easter holidays with her parents.
Miss Stella and Clarence Olive and Wilma of Hamilton spent the Easter holidays here at the former's home.
Miss Evelyn and Evert Hartley, Brantford, spent over the Easter holidays with their grandparents, Mrs. R. Hartley.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clement and daughter of Burgessville and Mr. and Mrs. Alby Clement of Princeton spent Sunday here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Clement.
Mr. Elmer Sharpe of Burgessville spent Sunday at his home here.
Miss Annie Moore of Bookton is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Keavely.
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Force and son spent Sunday with friends at Burgessville.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jackson and daughters, Miss Theresa and Elva Jackson, of Burford, motored and spent Sunday here at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Terryberry.
Mrs. John Williams and daughter, Lillian, are spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Roy Utter, at Little Lake.

BURTON

The Easter service on Sunday was splendid. The members of the mission band provided a program for the Sunday school hour, taking the life of David Livingstone as their subject. The Misses McEwen of Newport, sang very sweetly. Sunday school was dismissed with prayer by Mr. Harold Simington. Rev. Mr. Vale conducted the church service and delivered an excellent Easter sermon. Special music by the choir. Mr. Douglas Eldridge sang a solo, "Some day I'll understand." The rites of Baptism were held at the end of the service. A large congregation was present. It being necessary to place chairs in the aisles.
Mr. S. Burtch of Mt. Pleasant has been spending a few days with Mrs. H. Burtch.
Mrs. James Minshall has returned home after spending a few days in Hamilton.
Mr. and Mrs. B. Sykes, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Chapin.
Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and two children, visited with Mr. and Mrs.

Wheeler last week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Ryan spent over Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McIntyre.
Miss Esther Wheeler and Miss C. Henry spent Sunday the guests of Miss Edith Wheeler.
The members of the Philathea class met at the home of their president, Miss Isabel Chapin on Friday afternoon. Owing to Miss Chapin attending school in Brantford, she has been unable to be present at the class meetings as regularly as is necessary, and resigned her position upon which the following address and presentation of the Book of God were given to her:
To our dear class-mate:—
At this Happy Easter Time, we desire to express our love to you. We have missed you in the class more than you know.
We could think of no more appropriate remembrance to give you than this Book of God, which we declare yours for the One about whom it tells, may He as you read it, live anew in your life.
We are not letting you go, but with you back, whenever you can come.
Your friends of the Philathea Class.

Miss Chapin made a very fitting reply. The Secretary read the Minutes of the last meeting, which were adopted. Several matters of minor importance were discussed. A new president was chosen. The meeting was brought to a close by deciding to hold their next meeting at the home of their teacher, Mrs. James Minshall. Mrs. Chapin served lunch for the girls and the afternoon was pleasantly passed.
Miss Minnie McIntyre visited Sunday with Mrs. W. Oliver.
Mrs. H. W. Woodley and Mr. Elwin Trench, the Halleigh chorus was rendered at the close of the evening splendidly. The collection, which amounted to $28, is to be given to the Red Cross.
Mr. Charles Savage is spending a few days this week with his cousin, St. Thomas.

ST. GEORGE NEWS

Miss Ethel Atmore spent the Easter holidays with relatives in Beamsville.
Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hartley of Milton are moving on the Dalzell farm near Blue Lake.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith have rented the house and garden property from Mr. Herbert German, west of the village.
May Little has returned home after spending a month with her sister in Toronto.
Mrs. E. Christie and children of Brantford, were the Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Little.
Mrs. J. T. Wood of Toronto, is the guest of relatives in the village.
Miss Jean Shields spent the Easter holidays in Tavistock.
Miss Lovell is spending this week with relatives in Wroter.
Mr. Mayberry, of Hamilton, spent Easter here with his mother, Mrs. Geo. Bawlinheimer.
Mr. Roy Wherstein of St. Thomas spent Easter with his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ellis and children of Brantford, spent the holiday with relatives in the village.
Mrs. Wm. German is moving into the house on Lorrimer street, recently purchased by Mr. Herbert German from Mr. T. Tucker.
Miss Hazel Stewart is visiting relatives in Wingham.
The Blue Lake and Auburn Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Reid on Thursday of this week.
Miss Hazel Stewart of Brantford, is spending a week with relatives and friends in the village.
Miss Ruby Stonebaugh of Brantford, was the Sunday guest of her cousin Miss Sadie Banister.
Mrs. Charles O'Brien and little son of St. Thomas, spent Easter with Mrs. Morris.
Miss Olive Brandon of Paris, is spending this week with her parents at the Methodist parsonage.
Miss Hazel Medcoe, of Hamilton, spent the holiday with her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lay and family, moved to Paris on Monday of this week.
Mr. Frank Price of St. Thomas, spent Easter with his mother.
Misses Ethel and Laura Nixon, of Toronto, were the holiday guests of their parents.
Mrs. L. Drake and little daughter, of Brantford, were the guests of relatives in the village over the holiday.
Miss A. Haverstock has returned to her home in London, after spending two weeks with her brother, Rev. L. S. Haverstock.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Hickox of Galt, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Hickox.
Miss Lottie Sickle is the guest of her sister in Stratford.
Mrs. George Knight, of Toronto, is spending a week with relatives in the village.
Mr. Chas. Nixon of Toronto, was the holiday guest of his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. George Patton have returned home from their honeymoon and settled down to farm life on Mr. Patten's farm, east of the village.
German's School opened on Tuesday of this week. The school had been closed for some time on account of an epidemic of mumps.
Miss Brandon of Toronto, spent the holiday with her parents at the Methodist parsonage.
Mr. C. H. Brown and family, of Brantford, have moved to Fairglan Farm.
Miss Callaghan arrived home on Wednesday afternoon from Hamilton Hospital, and her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.
A committee of the Blue Lake and Auburn Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Green one day last week and packed boxes for the boys overseas.

A mixed program, consisting of piano readings by Mrs. Ernest Evans and Mr. O. J. Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.
The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis and seven other sections at varying rates.
A motion was moved, seconded and carried, endorsing the general features of the agreement, including the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in the West, has been visiting his old home and renewing acquaintances with the old friends here.
Miss Ariel Smith spent the Easter holidays with friends in Delhi.
Mrs. James Eadie of Oakland entertained the young people of this neighborhood one evening recently, the gathering being in the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Eadie, who has just attained her twenty-first birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent.
Mr. Backwell and his family of Burtch spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Thomson in this village.
Miss McDermid of Brantford was the guest of Mr. James Young for the Easter holidays.
Mr. J. W. Eadie has bought the old home of Mr. Peter McEwen near the hill, and will be moving in shortly.
The Women's Institute met on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Alfred Ferris, some 25 members being present. A prize had been offered by Mrs. M. J. Briggs to the member who would knit the largest number of socks. Mrs. John Ruthenford won the prize, having knit no less than fourteen pair. A beautiful Coleport China plate was awarded. Mrs. Morgan Harris was presented with a pretty fancy pin tray for doing the most sewing.
The Easter services in all the churches were well attended and the festival was duly observed. All celebrating the days in a special manner. All Saints' (Anglican) Church was decorated with beautiful flowers, emblematic of the new life bursting forth from the tomb. The offertory was over $50. There was a good attendance.
At the Methodist Church there were 135 in the morning. Service was resumed again in the evening last Sunday. There were about 75 last Sunday evening. The pastor preached appropriately on the Easter message.
At the Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Moodie delivered the last of a very interesting course he has been preaching on the last scenes of our Lord's earthly life.
Continuation School.
A public meeting of the ratepayers of the Mt. Pleasant School was held on Wednesday afternoon at the school building to receive a report from the trustees regarding the proposed Continuation School. Mr. J. C. Biggar presided and laid before the meeting an agreement prepared for the erection and maintenance of the new school. The trustees have the power to conclude an agreement, but they submitted it to the ratepayers. The agreement in brief is: First, a Grade B school be established in this neighborhood, Mt. Pleasant to contribute for the expense on the 100 per cent. basis, provided that at least five other sections come in. The action of other sections will now be awaited, after which action can be taken.
Mr. Livingston has bought a property in West Brantford, and is moving there, but Mr. Devlin's property is again rented to a newcomer from Brantford.
The daily prayer meetings are still being carried on and the interest is unabated. Special prayers are offered every evening on behalf of soldiers and sailors and the Empire. This week they have been held by invitation in the homes of Mr. James Suss, Mr. James Found and Mr. Morgan Harris. There is a large attendance every evening.
On Thursday, April 4th, the angle also tender their best wishes. Evans and Robinson. Mr. Herman Sewell played his violin in his always pleasing manner. Mr. Clara Hauge played "The Holy City" on the saxophone, also rendered a couple of numbers on the violin. Mr. House plays several instruments and it is always a joy to listen to him. The short play, "The Challenge of the Cross," was put on by a number of girls and young ladies. They all deserve praise for the way they had it prepared and gave it.

The Rev. H. Thomas of Beecroft, Lambton County, and his son have been on an extended visit to Mr. Chas. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant road.
Mr. Wm. Henry Eadie, an old resident, now living in