The skin rides the system of more urea than the kidneys?

Nearly one fifth of the waste products of the body is eliminated by the skin. Suppose there is some unsuspected, unseen skin trouble—the pores are closed—the skin is unable to rid the system of its share of the waste. Then the blood carries this waste product to the kidneys—immediately they are overworked—they strain to throw off the extra load. What the kidneys can't possibly eliminate, the blood takes up again and deposits on the nerves. Then come the dull aches in back, hips and head—the nerves unstrung and irritated—the urine charged with impurities and highly colored—and you fear you have "Kidney Trouble." Nonsense. Your kidneys are overworked—not diseased. What you need is "FRUIT-A-TIVES" to act on the skin.

Fruit-a-Tives
(or Fruit Liver Tablets)

open the clogged pores—start up healthy skin action—and let the skin perform its natural function. This instantly relieves the kidneys of overwork—the back-aches stop and the complexion is beautified. There is no excessive waste matter in the blood to bring dull headaches—the urine is cleared—the bowels are opened and regulated—and the kidneys strengthened.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" act directly on the three great eliminating organs—Skin, Kidneys and Bowels—make them well and keep them well. That is why "FRUIT-A-TIVES" cure so many cases of apparent kidney disease that are really skin troubles.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" are fruit juices—in which the natural medicinal action of fruit is many times increased by the secret process of making them. Valuable tonics and antiseptics are added and the whole made into tablets—the finest formula known to medicine. Buy them—try them—and cure yourself at home. 50c. a box—6 boxes for $2.50. ANTI-CLERICAL RIOTS CONTINUE IN ITALY

BRUTAL ATTACKS UPON PRIESTS AND CHURCHES REPORTED FROM MANY POINTS.

ROME, Aug. 28.—Pope Pius is un- well through the intense suffering caused him by the anti-clerical attacks throughout the length and breadth of Italy. The pontifical audiences have been curtailed, and his boldness has decreed the indefinite suspension of the first series of international pilgrimages in celebra- tion of his sacerdotal jubilee, which should have begun on September 20. This decision affects a monster work- ing people's pilgrimage, organized by M. Harmel, the Christian Socialist leader, as well as other pilgrimages from northern France.

The pope denounces the prevail- ing anti-clerical warfare in the coun- try as a malignant maneuver of violence and vandalism against ev- erything Catholic or allying with the increase. Riots at Leghorn, Florence and Genoa last night de- molished the windows of churches and convents, and their efforts to storm, sack and burn the sacred buildings themselves were barely frustrated by repeated charges of military.

Brutal aggressions on priests and religious persons continue to be re- ported from all quarters of the king- dom. Meanwhile popular violence against the clergy has been stepped in Spezia, where a general strike has been proclaimed, and the Chamber of Labor is tolling hard to extend over the whole of Italy. Some 200 arrests were made yester- day in that seaport town. The pub- lic feeling against clerical immorality has had a beneficial effect on many dioceses in rousing indignant wardens offenders. Plus X himself has set an example by publicly un- crooking two prominent rectors and parish churches in Rome, whose gal- lantry had become an open scandal.

FIERCE FIGHT WITH JACKALS

INSTEAD OF ALLOWING THEM TO PASS, MAN BECOMES THE AGGRESSOR.

CAPE TOWN, Aug. 28.—While he was on a shooting trip about four- teen miles from his home at Beaufort West, Cape Colony, this week, A. E. Clarke Kur, a British settler, had a terrible fight with jackals. What he took to be a herd of back approaching him turned out to be a pack of "Fanne jackals, the large variety so much dreaded by farmers and herdsmen. Instead of allowing the pack to pass unmoles- ted he fired and killed the leader, and the others advanced on him, and before they surrounded him he killed three more and wounded two. Then a grim fight against overwhelming odds began, for he was alone in the bush. Using his rifle as a club, Mr. Kur disposed of a few more of the brutes, but his weapon broke and he was left with only two barrels to defend himself. By this time he was fearfully torn and mangled about the neck, arms and thighs, and was rapidly growing exhausted.

Just before he sank to the ground unconscious one large jackal sprang on his shoulders and bit his teeth in his neck, and he remembered nothing more. When he recovered his senses he was in a sheep kraal with four friends who had saved his life.

They came on the scene as he was falling, and as the infuriated beasts were rushing on him to roar him to pieces a few shots and a combined rush scattered the animals in all directions.

TONS OF POISONED NUTS.

Prompt Action of Health Officer Saves Serious Epidemic.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The prompt action of Dr. Collingridge, the medical officer of health for the city, and his department has prevented an epidemic of poisoning in London. Five Southwark children were brought to Guy's hospital seriously ill after eating nuts which they had bought from costermongers. Symptoms of vegetable poisoning were found, and Dr. Collingridge was at once informed. He succeeded in tracing the source of the nuts and stopping their sale.

Application was made at the Tower Bridge Court yesterday for an order for the destruction of one and a half tons of the nuts. It was stated that they were a new variety from South America, and were rare. Dr. Milbourn, medical officer of health for Southwark, who made the application, said those seized were intended for sale at Blackheath on bank holiday. The consequences of their sale might have been terrible. Owing to a technical difficulty the magistrate could not order the destruction of the nuts, but it was announced that the importers had stopped their sale.

SWEDISH PRINCE VISITS ROOSEVELT

Dined at New York and is Guest of the President at Oyster Bay

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A luncheon with President Roosevelt, a formal dinner at the Hotel Astor, and a view of Broadway under its white lights were the events of the first day's visit to New York of Prince Wilhelm of Sweden. Incidental to almost all of these events was a hearty greeting from hundreds of Swedes, who gathered everywhere to welcome their adopted country the great grandson of Marshall Bernadotte, one of Napoleon's famous generals. Fresh from a round of entertainments at Newport and several Massa- chusetts cities, Prince Wilhelm reached New York by rail early today, and was accompanied by the Swedish minister to the United States, Herman Lagerkrantz and Captain Klercher. The Prince stayed at the Hotel Astor. He was taken in charge by Huntington Wilson, Third Assistant Secretary of State, who has been detailed by the President to escort the royal visitor to Oyster Bay. A large portion of the population of Oyster Bay was at the beach when the Prince arrived, and the Little Long Island village was gay with flags, prominent among them being the colors of Sweden. The party was driven immediately to Sagamore Hill where the President was await- ing an elaborate one. Besides Prince Wilhelm the guests were Captain Lindberg of the Swedish cruiser "Fylgia," on which the Prince arrived; John B. Jackson, Minister to Persia; Lieut. R. C. Bulwer and Major General J. Franklin Bell, Chief of the Staff of the United States Army. The luncheon, while elaborate, was entirely formal, and President and Prince chatted on current topics until they settled down to a discussion of the training of naval officers, a subject in which both are particularly interest- ed.

Hotel Proprietor Fined

Charles F. Herbert, proprietor of the Savoy hotel, was fined $50 and costs this afternoon at the provin- cial police court for selling liquor on Sunday. The defense put in was that one of the guests was suffering from illness for which purpose the liquor was sold.

ONE OF INDUSTRY'S GREAT CAPTAINS

HOW JOHN MCCLARY ROSE FROM SMALL THINGS TO GREAT—AN IMMENSE CONCERN.

To very few men is the privilege given of witnessing such a celebra- tion as that of which Mr. John Mc- Clary, of London, was the centre during the week that ended on July 13th. For during that week a series of splendid jubilees marked what was the sixtieth anniversary of the McClary Manufacturing Company. To only a few men is given to see their business develop from small success as that achieved by Mr. Mc- Clary, but fewer still are granted the privilege of witnessing such an undimmed keeness of intellect, the celebration of its sixtieth birthday. This was Mr. McClary's pleasant per- formance, and in his enjoyment of it he has had the felicitations of his great army of employees and of friends. McClary has always been, and is still the guiding head of this tremendous business. He remains as fresh and vigorous as the man of unusual and remarkable ability. A man of great business foresight and sound judgment, he was one of the first to see the possibilities of the development of Western Canada and with it many years prosperity for all Canada. He early backed his judgment in this respect by planning to meet this development, with the result that nowhere in Canada is the name McClary better known than in the newly settled sections of the West. He has always been and remains one of the most enterprising business men in Canada, spending no money or pains to attain an end that his judgment told him could be won. This is well illustrated in the magnificent advertising campaigns this Company has entered into in all the Canadian provinces, and the success which has been his greatest gratification; it is not the only successful campaign that President Adams has planned. He is also President of the London Life Insurance Company, and the Ontario Loan and Investment Company, and a Director of the London and West- ern Trusts Company.

It is not generally known that Mr. McClary is a descendant of one of the most famous families of the United States—the celebrated Adams family. His maternal grandfather, John Quincy Adams, the second President of the United States and first cousin of the sixth President, also John Quincy Adams. Another ancestor, General Stark, fought for England against the Americans. It will thus be seen that he comes of stock which is used to the accomplishment of big enterprises.

GOILLOTINE TO RESTART WORK

FEELING IN FRANCE THAT CAPITAL PUNISHMENT WAS ABOLISHED TOO SOON

PARIS, Aug. 28.—There is reason to believe that the guillotine will again make its appearance in France in the carrying out of capital punish- ment. The high court today denied the appeal by Solleilant, who was con- demned to death in this city last month, for the atrocious murder of a little child. President Fallieres alone can now save the man from the public which favors the restora- tion of the guillotine in the case of Solleilant, in view of the atrocious- ness of his crime. It is believed moreover, that the use of this instru- ment would check the wave of brutal assaults which lately have swept over the country. M. Lepine, the prefect of police, already is arranging for the erection of a guillotine in a secluded spot. It has been discovered that the budget provided an appropriation for capital execution.

WHO IS WORLD'S QUEEN OF BEAUTY?

ENGLAND AND EUROPE CHALLENGE AMERICA'S CLAIM TO MOST PERFECT OF SEX.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Daily Mirror has started a contest for the most beautiful woman in the world, and premises its announcement by saying: "Is there a more beautiful woman in the world than Miss Marguerite Frey, of Colorado, whose photograph appeared in the Daily Mirror on August 2?"

She was chosen from over 200, 000 other beautiful Americans, and the United States has challenged the world to find her equal.

The Daily Mirror has taken up this challenge on behalf of English- women. Its example has been fol- lowed by leading newspapers in Australia, Argentina, Denmark, France, Japan, Mexico, Norway, Scotland, Spain and Sweden; on behalf of the womanhood of those countries.

How the Competition Started. A competition which started a few months ago in a friendly wager be- tween a New York and Chicago man as to which city possessed the most beautiful woman, has spread until now it is a great international con- test.

Out of this first wager, made in December last year, grew a contest to find the most beautiful woman in the United States. She was found in Miss Frey.

Then America challenged the world to find a more beautiful woman, and the world has accepted that chal- lenge.

The jury is composed of ten fam- ous painters, whose names and whose works are well known. They are: John Lavery, R. S. A.; Arthur Herring, R. A.; George Henry, A. R. A.; Sir James Lipton, R. I.; A. Carruthers Gould, R. B. A.; Richard Jack, G. F.; Jacob Lawrence, R. I.; John Hay, R. I.; Miss Maud Port- er, Charles Lewis.

Owing to a stipulation made by the United States in issuing the challenge, no professional theatrical performer or model is eligible.

England is aroused. According to the Daily Mirror, not only towns, but the rural districts

SAV SHAH IS NOT OF ROYAL BLOOD

QUESTION OF ALLEGED ILLEGIT- IMACY OF PERSIA'S RULER DISCUSSED IN PUBLIC.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The situa- tion in Persia is not improving. Ad- vices received in London state that disturbances are beginning to break out again all over the country, and since the revolt of Salar-ed-Dowleh at Meshed people have been putting their houses into a state of defence and storing provisions. The shah is not by any means popular, and the question of his alleged illegitimacy is openly discussed in the bazaars and public meeting places. Some even go so far to say that he is not of royal descent.

The Turkish raid already reported proves to be a serious affair, and is the outcome of the long and dilatory boundary delimitation business. The Turkish soldiers have, as usual, been deprived of pay for months past, and have not beyond the control of their commander and let loose their passions on the Christian villages in the vicinity of Urmia. The Persians troops are powerless to assist their countrymen.

The current rumors regarding the movements of the emperor to the throne of Persia seem to gain strength daily, and the latest information via Seistan is to the effect that the French troops of France with some 35,000 armed men and was receiving reinforcements from Tabriz and other full of trouble and discord, nothing definite being done. Meanwhile the shah shuts himself up in his palace at Teheran, and has quite abandoned the energy and interest in his sub- jects which he displayed when he ascended the throne.

LABOR MAN KNIGHTED

King Edward Confers Knighthood on a Cardiff Mason

From Thursday's Morning Leader. A man by the name of Sir Wm. Crossman, and a self-made man, living in the humblest style, Cardiff's lord mayor is a popular figure in the city, but few expected that the King would honor him with a knighthood.

Sir Wm. Crossman, as many in the crowd noted, is the first labor knight.

The knighthood undoubtedly formed the most interesting feature of the visit of the King and Queen to Cardiff the other day. Great was the surprise when the King took a sword from an attendant, and ad- dressing the lord mayor, Councilor W. S. Crossman, said: "In closing this function today I have great pleasure in conferring upon the lord mayor of this city the honor of knighthood."

This unexpected conclusion roused the crowd to the wildest enthusiasm. He shouted itself hoarse with de- light.

The lady mayors of Cardiff, now her honor, by name, Mrs. Crossman, and lives with Sir Wm. Crossman in a house rented at $100 a year.

William Crossman, a workman, is one of the most popular and re- spected men in Cardiff.

This is the first decoration of which title has been conferred upon a workman—still employed at his trade and it will give a new and honorable meaning to the phrase "a Knight of Industry."

The Cardiff chamber of commerce has $5,000 left over from the sum subscribed for the decorations, and Sir Clifford Cory, chairman, will propose a resolution at the next meeting of the chamber that an- nual should be purchased for Sir Wm. Crossman with this money.

are up in arms against the American challenge. Some of the photographs already sent in come from remote parts of the west of England, where live some of the most perfect types of English women—fair country girls the descendants of a long line of sturdy countryfolk, to whom the fresh air is life.

When the most beautiful woman has been found the Daily Mirror proposes to pay her the highest tribute that can be paid to any mortal—to perpetuate her name and beauty.

The women judged by the commit- tee to be the fairest in England shall have her portrait painted by a well- known British artist. This por- trait will be offered to the most im- portant picture gallery in the neighborhood in which the lady lives as a permanent record of the most beautiful English woman in 1907.

The Daily Mirror is championing the cause of England. In this week's issue of the People's Friend, or Dundee, the cause of Scotland's fair daughters is being taken up.
