SINN FEIN FLAG

At Masthead of U.S. Ship at Queenstown.

London ,Cable.—A sensation was created at Queenstown this morning by the display of a Sinn Fein Republic flag from the foremast head of the American steamer Asbourne, as that vessel was being towed to the docks at Passage West for repairs to her than the Asbourne was from at Passage West for repairs to her machinery. The Asbourne was from New York en route to Copenhagen and Norwegian and Swedish ports with a general cargo, but owing to engine trouble and shortage of coal, she was obliged to bear up for Queenstown. Added interest was given to the incident by the fact that the Asbourne was flying Old Glory from her main mast and was assisted up the River Lea by two naval tugs flying British Admiralty flags. Local Sinn Feiners Admiralty flags. Local Sinn Feiners waved handkerchiefs to the craft as he steamer was towed past Queens
