ot be trusted to a blemishes in the taken into considwork is done by m which the best manufactured is hich is made enor, rather, by Machinery is usese. In the manuhment man-labor of morning noteduct of direct ! s at a table.

re of sheets of paven depth of edge sides. Then, with ush dipped in a he rapidly covers he same manner. e of straw hats, I the like articles ed to a machine; pplies to basketweaving of wickpars and bottles.

IN WHEAT. Marvellous Whe

inted an article y Evening Inew wheat with to be raising on . If the claims ere true it would ming the world s further investint out, they are Saturday Evening thoroughly relio to examine the nd, and his wire I ows, pretty thor. f this agricultur.

uge crops or good ty not justified. of proportion of nels an acre is an acre pr or last year only thirty bushear only two an acre. Of eeds and undere that wheat has grown elsewhere. frostproof, for by snow. Flournknown. Adams ent station anatold with it that ecessary to show ertainty. Has not

SERMONS. etermined by its

wheat in appear-

e certain targe,

ot valuable for

t does not have ing without so.

down the man

d acounts for a

weariness when

an a homemade ng the head and youthful. e churches is the n breast. ch roots in sacrirvice, blooms in ving in angels in not discover ie b'arrenness fof a us to look

the man who alfor the chair

 eat your neighe your adversary easier to know e saints than it of one.

greater capacity as power to creim:

e it pays to be e immorality of difference beas a shield oak in busin antifor the andiving is the es and values in

THE LURE OF FALL MILLINERY

O siren ever called men to danger and destruction more efectually than do millinery lure women into bankruptey allowances. The enticements all openings are many and de-At first glance, the average will decide that all styles are extreme and she must be resigned. If she selects her hat on this supposition, she is making a grave mistake, because after the exaggerations of the fall openings will come a reaction in favor of more sane styles. The very milliners who declare that everything will be very high or very wide or very bizarre find that there remain yet a few women of plethoric purse who refuse to be made into millinery spectacles, wherefore the fashionable designer is forced into the making of sane hats for sane women.

This much in warning. Do not buy your fall hat which may have to last oughly. Do not pin your faith to the 's statement that only the extyles will be worn. Believe od designers already admit that reme styles of the moment will sed and modified within a month's time. The American woman simply will not be made to look like a frump, and selecting an extreme style of millinery for general wear, not occasions, stamps the woman as the frump, the person of hopelessly bad

Naturally the first question raised at fall openings was this: "What will replace the Merry Widow

And the answer is:-"The English walking hat, crossed with a man's silk

Not a promising outlook is it, especially for the middle aged woman of conservative tastes? And the oddest thing about the situation is that the man who wore the Merry Widow sailor is quite sure that she can swing to the other extreme and look smart in the severe English hat which the fect grooming and the most correctly models!

os the most trying shape that oring. Diana carrriage and Psyche hair, will be altered."

millinery world is trying to popu- the thin woman look gaunt, yet oddly not urged into buying hats which, bent in the back. Another large hat enough it makes the stout woman look however smart, will make you look suggesting the summer picture hat, but This English hat—which paradoxi- too funny for words. It demands a absurd. Tell a milliner that you insist trimmed with wintry fabrics, is as cally renewed its vogue in Paris-is Juno figure, Venus features and col- upon having the hat modified and it broad as the Merry Widow, but droops on the sides, suggesting the big sun- one green, one brown, one blue and one ever invented by hat-makers. It wherefore the astute millinery design- The first impression gained at a mil- bonnet or scoop-shaped hat. In fact absolutely not one softening or ers offer it to the American woman. If linery display today suggests enormity the extreme hats along these lines eeming feature. It is harsh, un- the American woman were the won- in either breadth or height, and ap- seem almost to touch the shoulder. yielding in every line. It does not drous creature pictured by versifiers palling weight of frame and trimming, Fluted brims appear, and while there geranium colored plumes and black them until the skin and the pulp sepashade the face, but sets forth every and illustrators, this compliment might which will entail the use of much false is no bandeau, the brim is sharply aigrette, four inch buckle of opalescent rate. To five pints of the grapes, add defect of feature or complexion most be taken seriously, but, alas, hats are hair. In addition to the walking hat tilted on the left side. Crowns are enamel with gilt filagree work. relentlessly. It requires the most per- worn by average women, not artists' described above, there are many large generally high, some running up absoand bizarre shapes. The Merry Widow lutely straight and others graduated, treme walking hats are so high and you can use with safety on false hair. thickly massed that they represent an In selecting false hair do not be investment of $25 each.

ost twelve dollars per pair.

of one color, harmoniously mingled, are weight are the same price. Reseda is not noted very generally. Among the color combinations seen

Black ottoman hat with facing of natier blue silk, fancy wings of great size in blues, green and gold, with huge buckle of gilt. Dark green beaver, trimmed with leather colored ribbon and four plumes, leather-hued. nium colored silk, trimmed with tailored gowns to accompany it. It Therefore I say again and again:— shape, probably a trifle larger in displant and others graduated, shape, probably a trifle larger in displant and others graduated, shape, probably a trifle larger in displant and others graduated, smaller at the top than where they ameter, has a higher crown and is

|Fitting the Hair to Her New Hats

T the Merry Widow sailor demanded a massive coiffure, the fall hats go further and deman1ed not only a massive coffure but one that is solidly built, banked, so to speak, to withstand the pressure of the heavy fabric in the hats. The woman who, has "ratted" her hair and piled it lightly on her head will have no chance against the new hat, but under the soft waves she will literally have to pack a support of pompadour, "rat," transformation, puffs and switches. It is estimated by up-to-date hair-dressers that at least one pound of false hair will be needed to support the modern millinery confection.

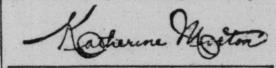

Now this is a serious matter, not only for the purse but the hair-health, of the women who insists upon being in fashion. One season of excessive danger the herith of her hair for life. It is most important first of all that she keeps her scalp in A-1 condition, and not indulge the foolish custom of ptling false hair on her head when she is not wearing a hat. The woman, who is in business had best eschew the heavy hat for regular wear, otherwise she must wear masses of false hair all day. Let the enormous hat, demanding an excessive pompadour and coiffure be worn only for dress when the hat is not to be removed, then the difference in coiffure will not be noticed. This means that some of the false hair can be laid aside with the hat when in the house, because when the hat is worn no one can guess at the amount of hair worn beneath it. Ventilate the hair night and morning, shaking it away from the scalp to counteract the weight and heat of the false hair. Keep both your own and the false hair very clean. Shampoo the scalp regularly and clean the false hair with gasoiine or naptha, never with

Select a clear day to clean the false hair and if possible do it outdoors, or or a porch. Comb and brush the false hair corefully, then roll it round and round, like a corkscrew, keeping the What few toques are shown at all have ends of the switch, pompadour or elaborately fluted brims and a very puffs pointed down, and dip it in gasoline. Do not shake or rub it in the In the matter of fabrics, the silk- gasoline, but dip it up and down very covered hat undoubtedly leads, and the lightly; then squeeze out all the old-fashioned ribbed or ottoman silk moisture. Hold it in one hand and is greatly in evidence, which alone with the other beat or smooth it downadds to the weight of the hat. Beavers | ward very carefully with a soft old are in vogue, the old-fashioned satin towel, and hang in a draught to dry. covered frames are in again, and yet If you have puffs, while they are wet many felt hats are also shown, in cem- roll upon round sticks, (long clothesbination with heavy silk trimmings. pins will do) and when they dry they The velvet hat seems to have suffered will retain their curl. But bear in mind that hair must not be rubbed In trimmings the willow plumes have like cloth, nor dipped in water. In disappeared and fancy feathers have either case it will rat up beyond resupplanted them. Ostrich plumes are storation to evenness and smoothness. seen with graceful, moderate curling False hair, however good, fades, and of the tips, but they are used in com- this means that at intervals it must bination with "fancles" as the mil- be touched up or dyed to match your liners call the made feathers, wings, own hair. This may be done at a breasts, etc. The osprey algrette is hair-dressing establishment or if you the most fashionable trimming of the are expert with dyes. I will be pleased moment and the new ones for the ex- to furnish you with formulas which hasty. If you must buy the readywings most in vogue, showing made, inexpensive brands, take time to the newest color combinations and the study the market theroughly, going correct size for the new, spreading hats from shop to shop until you match your hair as perfectly as can be done The bows are equally large and in cheap makes. The woman with heavy, requiring from eight to ten coarse hair in brown, brownish-black, vards of ribbon for their correct de- chestnut or reddish brown and bright velopment. All the new ribbons are soft | gold will have little trouble. The hardwith a wonderfully beautiful sheen. est color to match is the peculiar drab-Quantities of gilt buckles and those brown with a glint of gold in it. Very made from cloth of gold are used, in fine hair, like spun silk, must be fact the trimmings are all decidedly matched with expensive live hair only. It cannot be matched in the cheap In colors contrast of some sort is brands and a switch of this fine hair absolutely essential. The various tones costs from $10 up. Puffs in the same not sufficient. Black silk hats have Chinese hair, cleverly treated and underbrim facings of leather color, bleached to match American hair is bright blue, etc. Leather color, any the cheapest on the market and in fact shade of burnt orange in fact form the 13 just as healthy as what is known most approved combination with black. as live hair from the heads of European Green seems in great demand, bronze, peasant girls. But it weighs very peacock, olive, hunter and bottle heavily and therefore is dangerous to the overheated, over-weighted scalp.

GRAPE RECIPES

Grape Catsup: This is a delicious side dish with turkey. Take very ripe Black ottoman silk, faced with gera- grapes-wild ones preferred but domestic ones will answer-and cook three pounds of sugar, one pint of strong cider vinegar, ground cloves and ground cinnamon to suit individual taste. Boil all together for fifteen or twenty minutes, put up in small jars and seal tightly. Unfermented Grape Julee: A most appetizing drink, said to be a great tonic. Wash the grapes thoroughly, and cook in porcelain kettle. Under no circumstances use an iron pot for this. Cover the grapes with cold water and bring to the boiling point. Strain grapes and juice in cheese cloth bags. and let the juice stand until perfectly into bottles and seal the cork with Grape Mousser Cook enough grapes, one large coffee cup of pure juice. Stir this into a pint of very heavy cream. Add one tablespoonful of lemon juice, and enough sugar to sweeten. Whip this with cream whipper until very thick, and pour into a mold. Pack in freezer, covering with salt and ice, letting it stand four or five hours. Replenish the ice if necessary. Turn out on platter to serve and sprinkle nuts over the inverted mold. Grape Butter: Separate the pulp and the skins of the grapes. Do not boil the skin. Boil only the pulp and strain through a coarse sieve. Min with the skins and then measure together. To each quart of grapes, add one pint of sugar, and cook until thick and jellled

ONLY TALKS.

The man who does the most talking about charity often rales his escape before the hat is passed.

that no one shape will fit thousands of different necks. Many women independent of the put of the p home, you will find the usual charge for bone, but rather some supple manufactured not to rust. More than one good evening gown has been ruined bones and other old-fashioned finishings.

The heavy velveteen binding, once by hooks which have rusted from the work will be sheath fitting, the linings are made a skirt stand out around the soft in texture and must sling to the bottom, but now your dress should have rusted from the warranted kind will not break two our soft in texture and must sling to the bottom, but now your dress should have rashed as the cheaper grade.

The heavy velveteen binding, once by hooks which have rusted from the prespiration of the warranted kind will not break two our soft in texture and must sling to the bottom, but now your dress should have respectively.

FEW years ago when we in- to mulls, lawns, or other soft-finish then complain that the dress is not vested in material to make a dress, which he will, lawns, or other soft-finish dress, we had likewise to invest counters under various fancy names.

As the waist line is getting higher and higher now it is almost immediate, bones to keep the hones to make a dress complete. But we need few of them, Grannian we had investment. Get those which are the dress is not comfortable about the throat. The new to make a dress complete. But the waist line is getting higher to mulls, lawns, or other soft-finish comfortable about the throat. The collar must be made to order for every individual neck. Chiffon or mousseline de sole should be fitted to the neck, and the bone and higher now it is almost immediately under the bust there is no terminate the with them comfortable about the throat. The collar must be made to order for every didividual neck. Chiffon or mousseline de sole should equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

Two cups and a half of powdered sugar equals one pound.

The coffee cup of equals one pound.

The eggs equal one pound.

One plint of liquid equals one that when the dressmaker's bill comes at all-and if any not the heavy whale bad investment. Get those which are they gave weight and body to a put on by hand, showing about a quar- Narrow inside belts are always ad- pound.

comfortable fit so as not to allow the pound.

"Butter the size of an egg" equals two ounces.

One quart of sifted flour equals one

MARY DEAN. OUNCO.

A pint of butter equals one pound.

One cup of butter equals one-half coffee in one pound.

One tablespoonful of butter equals "Butter the size of a walnut" equals but now they must cling to the ter of an inch below the skirt—just visable, as they keep a gown in agure and stand out as little as pos-enough, to protect it from cutting. place. But they need not be tight and pound.

A fifteen pound ham wi sible. If silk linings are beyond the Rouse dresses are finished simply with bind the wearer. Make them just a Four cups of bread flour equals one about seven when boiled. Three cups of cornmeal equals one naise will serve ten people. heavy cotton linings with highly Do not invest in ready-made collar gown to slip ercoked about the waist Two tablespoons of flour equals one spread one hundred slices of bread for

There are thirty tablespoons of Four large stalks of celery will make one quart when diced.

Two quarts of ice cream will serve ten persons. One quart of water ice will fill ten punch glasses.

A chicken weighing 31/2 pounds before cooking will make a quart of meat diced when cooked. One quart of chicken meat and one quart of celery dressed with mayon.

A fifteen pound ham will weigh only One and a half pounds of butter will figure. Hair cloth and, buckram have no "slink" rather than stand out. For Eyes should only be sewn on where place in the gowns of today. Starchy street wear, skirts are hemmed, or they will never be seen—such places taffetas, have given way to clinging faced with the same material, and fin- as the inner lining, etc. If necessary one ounce.

silks without dressing of any kind, such ished off with a mohair braid matching for the outside of a dress, then little exactly in color. This braid should be loops should be made with silk twist. One quart of sile limit of your purse, then do not buy a hem. giossed finish, but turn your attention forms. You can readily understand line