"Valuable Farm for Sale."

THE HARMON HUMPHREY FARM in Sackville, consisting of about 60 Acres of Upland and 90 Acres of Marsh is for Sale.

The Buildings on the Premises were erected at a large cost, and they are in excellent repair and admirably adapted to farming purposes. The Farm is most conveniently situated, being only a short walk from the College and within half a mile of the Railway Station. The Deedling House is a beautiful and commodious two-story building.

The Place is an inviting one, either for the progressive farmer or the capitalist. Intending Purchasers can negotiate for the Homestead Farm, either with or without the Island Marsh.

For Price and full Particulars of Sale, apply to WILLIAM H. HUMPHREY, or JOHN A. HUMPHREY, Moncton, N. B.

Or to MESSRS. POWELL & BENNETT, Barristers, &c., Sackville, N. B.

ANGUS McQUEEN, Sheriff.

FOR SALE.

THE HOMESTEAD FARM now occupied by the subscriber, consisting of about 30 Acres of Upland and about 20 Acres of Marsh Land, all of which is in a good state of cultivation. The location of this Farm immediately adjoining the Public Landing and the Intercolonial Railway Station, renders it a desirable place of residence, and offers a sure and profitable investment for an intending purchaser. There is also a Lot of 20 Acres of English Marsh, with a Barn, thereon, which will be sold with the Homestead if required, which is situated one mile distant. A Wood Lot can also be purchased with the farm. The House is in good repair, is furnished with Grates and also a Wood Furnace, and with the Barn, contains five rooms. There is also a Cistern and a never-failing Well of Water on the Premises. The Barns are large and will accommodate a large number of Cattle and Horses, and sufficient Hay to winter them.

Also the Steam Grist Mill, containing a Thirty Horse Power Boiler and a 20 H. P. Engine; a complete Portable Waterworks Grist Mill, consisting of French Burr Mill Stones, with Elevators, Bolts and Runners, &c. Also one run of Granite Mill Stones, with Elevators, Bolts, &c. This is offered in part or in one lot, with or without the Building.

For Terms and Particulars, enquire of the Subscriber on the Premises, or to my father, Jas. D. Dixon.

ALFRED B. DIXON, Sackville, N. B., May 22nd, 1889.

NOTICE.

To William Wallace Campbell, of Westmorland, in the Parish of Sackville and County of Westmorland, seamen, and Clara, his wife, and to all others to whom it may concern:

WHEREAS William Wallace Campbell, and Clara, his wife, are, in order to secure to Stephen Clark, of Wood Point, in the Parish and County aforesaid, the payment of the sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, and did make and execute their certain Indenture of Mortgage to the said Stephen Clark, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, A. D. 1887, and duly recorded in the Registry office in and for the County of Westmorland, by the No. 51,728, Folio 528, Libro G 5, of said records, and did thereby convey to the said Stephen Clark, his heirs and assigns, certain Land and Premises in the said Indenture of Mortgage mentioned and described as thereby bargained and sold, subject, however, to a certain proviso in the said Indenture of Mortgage contained for the redemption of the said Land and Premises upon payment of the said sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars and seventy-five cents and interest in the manner there provided; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the Principal Money and Interest secured in and by the said Indenture of Mortgage, in the manner as therein provided, and the same remaining due and unpaid.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of the Power of Sale contained in the said Indenture of Mortgage, and because default has been made in the payment of the Principal Money and Interest secured in and by the said Indenture of Mortgage, there will be sold by Public Auction, at or near the Post Office, in Sackville, in the County aforesaid, on SATURDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF SEPTEMBER NEXT, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, the following Lands and Premises mentioned and described in the said Indenture of Mortgage: "All that Lot of Land in Westwood aforesaid and bounded as follows: Northwesterly by old Barrington Road, Northwesterly by the Lands of Reuben Parry, and Southwesterly by the Wood Point Road, being the Property formerly known as the Parsonsage Property, and containing two acres, more or less. (Continued from first page.)

and this was the eighth revolution that he had passed through.

At last news came. One of his men managed to get away from the neighboring town, then in the hands of the rebels, bringing letters for Don Geronimo, a batch of newspapers and a note for Teresa.

It appeared that the Argentine contingent had at length crossed the river but only in half the force that had been expected. Some few officers of the Argentine army had joined secretly as volunteers, but for the most part the levies from that country were almost as raw and undisciplined as the levies raised in Uruguay.

Already quarrels had risen as to the chief command. Such as it was, however, the force had been hastily organized and was already in full march to meet the government troops despatched against them from Monte Video. Don Geronimo stormed up and down almost beside himself with fury and dismay, never had he expected such a complete certainty of disaster. "Look at your revolution!"

he shouted at poor Don Apolonia, as though she had been responsible for getting it up to disappoint him.

"Call you that a revolution!" I call it a— But words failed him, and he was fain to sit down and swear vehemently and incoherently in a white heat of rage.

"It is not a hopeless," cried his wife, desperately—still anxiously scanning the sheets of the newspapers. "Remember what your agent,

Pedro Moreno, wrote to you about the regiments in Monte Video—

"Pedro Moreno lies," interrupted

Urbaserra with sudden ferocity.

"But El Dia says that the soldiers are disaffected too. Have you read it?" urged Dona Apolonia, who for once in her life seemed thoroughly cowed; "do listen to what the paper says—they think it is almost certain that two at least of the regiments will join our cause—"

"Our cause! It is no cause of ours.

Are you mad to talk like that? What do I care what the paper says! It is much more likely that every one of your friends will bolt before they come in sight of the enemy. As for those Argentine volunteers! well, I am sorry for them, but they were fools to be caught in such a trap.

Not one of them will return to tell the tale. They, at least, will get no quarter—"

A stifled cry from the other end of the room startled them. Teresa was standing there, clutching a letter in her hands, with a look of frantic terror upon her white face. As if turned to stone she stared at her uncle and made no sign. Her aunt and cousin ran to her and caught her hands.

"Teresa! my poor child! what is it?

what has happened?"

"My letter—my letter. See! he writes to me—Don Luiz Valdez—he joined the Argentine brigade, and he has given him a regiment, and he marched two days ago—O—my uncle!

it is not true—what you said—say it is not true! Oh, Luiz, Luiz!" she wailed out, throwing herself face downwards on the floor, "Oh, Luiz, Luiz!"

Slowly the days dragged on at the estancia, as in a house of mourning.

The one thought that filled every mind was the danger of Luiz Valdez; even Don Geronimo forgot his own selfish preoccupation at the sight of his niece's despair. He had hardly exaggerated the risk that the lawless young man was running; it was literally all a kind of forlorn hope in which the only chance of safety was victory.

South Americans are beyond measure moved to wrath by any foreign interference in the domestic pleasures of revolution; that the citizens of the state should conspire, revolt, and fight against their own government is a perfectly natural, justifiable, and eminently patriotic thing to do; but that citizens of another state should interfere to aid them is not only a piece of unwarranted interference, but the worst of crimes. To an Argentine soldier, an alien to the soil, no mercy would be shown if the rebels were defeated; if taken prisoner, he would be as relentlessly shot as any other spy. Every day that passed brought fresh news of the fall of the revolution and the desperate condition of its leaders. What hope or consolation could there be to offer to Teresa? She wandered aimlessly from place to place in no rest any where save in the little chapel, where for hours she would kneel in pas-
