Star Infielder will Once More Lead the St. Louis Club in the American League

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 5. — Roderick B. Wallace signed a contract today to manage the St. Louis American League baseball team for the coming season.

Eleven of the players will be sent to West Baden, Ind., on Feb. 23, for a ten days' stay and the entire team will begin practicing here later.

LOWELL SIGNS PRATT.

Captain Last Year of the Dean Academy Nine and Thought to be of Big League Calibre.

Lowell, Feb. 5. — Ralph D. Pratt of Northford, first baseman, has been signed by Manager Gray of the Lowell baseball team of the New England League.

Pratt was captain last season of his Dean Academy baseball team and was recommended to Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics by Scott O'Brien. Men of experience who have seen Pratt play say he needs only a little experience to qualify for the major leagues.

Pratt will not be twenty years old until next August. He weighs 175 pounds and is 5 feet 9 inches in height. Last year his hitting was 430. He has been a student at Brown University this fall and winter.

Four Tiger Recruits Sign.

Detroit, Feb. 5. — The Detroit American League baseball club has received the signed contracts of Pitcher Dubuo and McCorry, Infielder London and Catcher Koehner. All four are recruits.

Harry Forbes, the ex-champion bantam, is satisfied now that he has not come back, and has again retired.

MANAGER BOBBY WALLACE.

MONTREAL TO SEE ENGLISH RUGBY

Montreal, Feb. 5. — It is announced by the manager of the Montreal English Rugby team that the Wanderers of Halifax will come up here for Saturday, the 11th of May, to give an exhibition match of the English game.

In this present world there is only one thing which will content it, and that thing is music, because has nothing to do with earth, but sighs away for the lands beyond the sun.

The backbone of winter is not broken and we still have a chance to slip on the ice.

ALD. KITCHEN IS NEW PRESIDENT

Directors of Trotting Park Hear of C. G. Burke's Application for Reinstatement

Ald. A. B. Kitchen is the new president of the Fredericton Park Association, having been unanimously elected at the first meeting of the new Board of Directors which was held last evening at the Barker House.

The New Officers.

The new officers are: President—Ald. A. B. Kitchen. Vice-President—D. McClelland. Treasurer—Ald. J. Hugh Calder. Secretary—J. D. Black. Auditors—J. A. Edwards and J. H. Fleming.

Track and Buildings Committee—Ald. H. C. Jewett and H. O'Neill, Sr.

The Season's Racing.

The matter of the season's racing programme was briefly discussed and it is likely that the Association will offer a programme for four early closing stakes, to be supplemented later by a number of class races for a mid-summer meeting possibly for July 1st. Dominion Day. Offers to guarantee two of the stakes have already been made and it is expected that a third stake will be guaranteed, thus relieving the management of considerable responsibility. A meeting will be held next Monday evening to take up the racing programme.

The Hoopie Rule.

Regarding the hoopie rule the directors decided to take no action and will make no recommendations to the Rules Committee of the National Trotting Association. There was an evident feeling among the directors that from the standpoint of interest in breeding and sentiment it would be well to have the rule barring hoopies continue in force, but on the other hand as managers of a race track the directors did not feel like taking any action to make it any harder than under present conditions to secure entries for races.

Seeking Reinstatement.

A communication from Colbert G. Burke, who was suspended for life and fined $100 as the result of an unfortunate trouble at the Fredericton Park Association's track a couple of years ago, is applying to the National Trotting Association for reinstatement. It was on account of an attack upon Driver James Gallagher of Woodstock that Mr. Burke was expelled, and now it is said that Mr. Gallagher will write to the National Trotting Association favoring Mr. Burke's reinstatement. In that event the directors of the Fredericton Park Association will probably make a recommendation upon similar lines.

Here's one that must go down to posterity along with "Jimmy" Britt's famous ulna bone, Jeffries' cup of tea and Attelle's cocaine "bump." The reason for "Al" Kaufman's knockout at the hands of "Al" Palmer, according to a story that has just come from the coast, was that the Californian had some one's old shoes on at the time of the fight, and they were so big that he could not keep his feet. When he fell down in the fifth round because of the loose shoes he hit his head on the floor, and then the curtain dropped.

Walter Cox, who has been in Kentucky recently, thinks that Walnut Hall Farm is sending more real trotters to the New York sale this winter than ever before.

FREDDIE WELSH HAS SOME BOUTS

Accepted "One-Round" Hogan's Challenge on the Spot.

Los Angeles, Feb. 5. — Showing his usual speed almost from start to finish, Johnny Coulon of Chicago won a clean-cut decision over Frankie Conley in their twenty-round go at the Vernon Arena on Saturday afternoon. The champion was seldom forced to defend himself outside of a few rounds, when the challenger had a shade the better of it. He failed, however, to continue to show any speed, and after the 13th round he was outclassed.

The first round was close, neither fighter seeming to have warmed up, but in the beginning of the second Coulon drew first blood with a left to the mouth. This round and the third, fourth and fifth were easily the champion's, but Coulon managed to get an even break in the sixth. From this until the 11th Coulon had all the better of it, but in the next three rounds Conley badly punished the champion, and some of his supporters were yelling for a knockout. This burst of speed, however, seemed to be too much for the challenger, and the rest of the fight was clearly Coulon's.

Coulon ruled a strong favorite at Jingoide, at odds of 10 to 6. Several bets at even were recorded that Conley would stay the scheduled twenty rounds.

Hogan and Walsh Matched. Before the contest started "One Round" Hogan issued a challenge and Freddie Welsh, the British boxer, accepted it on the spot. The fight is scheduled for March.

Welsh and Britt to Meet. San Francisco, Feb. 5. — Freddie Welsh and Jack Britton will meet here in a 20-round match on the afternoon of Washington's Birthday, weighing in at 133 pounds that morning. By setting the date on Feb. 22 Promoter Coffroth will precipitate a war with its rival promoter, "Jack" O'Connell, who will stage Frank Klaus and Sailor Petroskey the same afternoon.

ABOUT THE BOXERS. Paddy Lavin and Jack Dillon have been matched to box in Buffalo Feb. 8.

Young Saylor and Phil Knight have been matched to box in Indianapolis Feb. 8.

Pal Moore and Jack Raymond will meet in New Orleans in a ten-round bout tonight.

"K. O." Brown of Chicago and Hugo Kelley have been signed to box in Kenosha, Wis., Feb. 21.

"Buck" Cronin is likely to pass up his proposed trip to Australia, as he has been promised some good bouts in Pittsburgh.

Sid Smith, the flyweight champion of England, and Billy Marchant, an English 124-pound boxer, have arrived in New York.

MORAN THE WINNER.

London, Feb. 5. — Owing to the unsatisfactory result of the contest on Jan. 2 between Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh heavyweight and Fred Storbeck, the ex-heavyweight champion of South Africa, a return match was fought at Black Friars tonight. In the previous fight Storbeck was disqualified in the 7th round for fouling. Moran proved the winner tonight in a hard fought battle. Both received much punishment, and in the 12th round the American floored Storbeck three times. Storbeck was unable to come up for the 13th.
