Berlin 10, Guelph 3.

Waterloo 4, Galt 1.

Kenora Thistles 4, Ottawa 2.

Waterloo Beat Galt.

Waterloo, Ont., Jan. 1.—New Year's day saw the opening season of hockey at the Waterloo rink. The Guelph juniors were billed to play here, but failed at the last moment, and a mixed junior and intermediate seven from Galt was secured to play an exhibition game. Considering the softness of the ice, a good game was witnessed. In the first half Galt secured two and Waterloo one, but a few snappy rushes by the home seven in the second half soon placed the score at 3 to 2 in favor of Waterloo. Before time was called the Guelph side had secured another goal, making the score 4 to 3 in favor of the black and white.

Berlin Beat Guelph.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Over a thousand people saw Berlin intermediates trim the Guelph intermediates to the tune of 10 to 3 in an exhibition game here last night. The first half was high-scoring, each team scoring three times, but in the second half Berlin had a walk-over.

Ottawa Beaten Second Time.

Kenora, Ont., Jan. 2.—The Senators, of Ottawa, hockey champions of Canada, were again defeated here last night by this city in a brilliant game. Final score 4 to 2. The champions looked like winners in the first half, which concluded with the score standing 2 to 0 in their favor, but in the second half the Thistles gradually crept away from them and can in four goals in succession. The game was one full of sensational features, yet it was free from roughness. Hooper, one of the Thistles' star forwards, was unable to play, owing to injuries received in the game with Ottawa at Winnipeg Saturday, and the vacancy was filled by Beaudou.

RACING

Sweet Jane Fell.

New Orleans, Jan. 2.—The New Year's Handicap was the feature of the holiday programme at City Park yesterday, but interest in the race was very little after Bad News and other good horses were withdrawn. The steepchase resulted in an easy victory for New American. Jockey Slack, who rode Sweet Jane in the race, fell in front of the grand stand and was seriously injured. The injured jockey was taken to the hos-

BASEBALL

St. Patrick's Beat Senators.

Two games of indoor baseball were played in the City League last night. At 8 o'clock the Senators played St. Patrick's, and were defeated by 15 to 5. At 9 o'clock the Fossils played W. E. P. C. The Senators Club had a hard tussle, but finally won by a score of 38 to 37. The teams:

Senators: Holman 1b, and p. Simpson 1b, and s. Sheridan 1b, and p. St. Patrick's: Chapman c., Dundie 3b, Smith 2b, Paden r.f.

St. Patrick's: McMahon p., Southen c., Smiley 1b, Casey 2b, Lawlor 3b, Campbell 2b, Smiley 1b, Campbell r.f.

W. E. P. C.: Crawford p., Casey c., Lanning 2b, Padel 1b, Westphal 3b, Hennessy 1b, Howe 1b, B. Lanning r.f., Jack Bradley r.s.

W. E. P. C.: 0 0 0 2 13 5 9 8 1 0—38

Fossils: 0 0 0 2 5 9 2 5 1—37

Bonner Is Dead.

Kansas City, Kan., Jan. 2.—Frank Bonner, a well-known baseball player, died at a hospital here last night of blood poisoning. He performed in old and had been a professional baseball player for twenty years.

He played with the old Baltimore Orioles when that team won the pennant three years in succession; played for Louisville, being transferred to Kansas City, and last season was considered one of the best second basemen in the American Association.

WRESTLING

McLeod and Gutch.

Buffalo, Jan. 2.—Dan McLeod, the wrestler's first opponent last night was Frank Gutch. Dan and Frank did some high class work in the quarter of an hour, much of their work being done struggling for advantage while on their feet. McLeod once succeeded in lifting Gutch's leg, a feat which no other Buffalo wrestler had generally divided honors with Gutch. They were struggling in a grapevine lock on their feet at the call of time by the referee.

Gutch will leave Buffalo this afternoon.

Comment and Gossip on Sporting Matters

The next Christmas Day road race is 358 days off.

It was officially stated by Mr. Walter Rees, Secretary of the Welsh Rugby Union, that the gross receipts of the match at Cardiff, between Wales and New Zealand, amounted to £2,650. This beats all records for Wales, the largest gate taken previously being £2,250 on the occasion of the Irish match at Swansea last year.

The New Zealanders share of the money is £1,235.

Dan McLeod is wrestling all comers at a Buffalo theatre this week. He cost the show $100 in Cleveland last week because he failed to throw Tom Jenkins in fifteen minutes. They wrestled half an hour without a fall.

The stable of George Hendrie, in for his home in Humboldt, Ia. He is matched for a bout in Des Moines on January 9th, and on January 12th will wrestle in Montreal, Apollo, who weighs 200 pounds. This bout will be straight Graco-Roman.

BASKETBALL

Local Intermediates Lost.

Toronto, Jan. 2.—The Tongsas defeated Hamilton's intermediates at the Central Y. M. C. A. yesterday by the score of 80 to 53. The crowd that witnessed the contest gave evidence to the fact that basketball is not waiting in Toronto. The game began with fast work by both teams. Miller got away from McKenzie and in the first two minutes had caged the ball twice. Hamilton were a little off color in their shooting, but their great passing brought forth much applause. McPherson at forward and Ross at guard, pulled the team together about four minutes from
