China at Last Coming Into Its Own

(By Lord William Cecil. The Chinese gentleman has been trained in the philosophy, history, and culture of his race, and both in his speech and in his thought he bears the marks of the excellency of tha training. He has now thoroughly training. He has now thoroughly realized his national weakness and his consequent humiliation, and the whole mass of intelligent thought in China, which was a few years ago conservative and obscurantism, has now become progressive, even revolutionary.

The union can be accomplished, but it needs all thought and care.

First of all there must be no casting on the rubbish heap of all things Chinese because they are Chinese. The priceless jewels of Chinese wisdom must be preserved. Secondly, there must be built into the Chinese culture the higher and finer part of our social system.

His Holiness Takes His First Meter Car Ride.

Rome, Aug. 15.—The Pope suspended Rome, Aug. 15.—The Pope suspended audiences and to-day began his holidays. His Holiness took a motor car ride yesterday for the first time, having overcome his objections ta the use of motor cars by ecclesiasties. He drove in a handsome car presented him this year by some American Catholics, travelling through the Vatican gardens at the rate of twelve miles an hour. The Pope afterwards expressed the pleasure he had felt in the experiences, and declared that he should now not hesitate to take similar drives frequently.

I think we may state with assurance the general principle that when the influence of her thought will not be negligible, and what I want of the first of the critical properties of the great western civilization. Weatern customs, western thoughts, western civilization of the east and wide throughout her land. The old learning which has held China these thousand years is now in the form the professions. Civil and mining engineers of the civilization of the east and wester through the second and had alike are being destroyed.

What one would like to see is a certified insane, an increase of insanity in the professions. Civil and mining engineers of the civilization of the east and west through the professions.
