THE MOST SURPRISING BECAUSE THE POSSESSION KNOWS NOTHING OF IT.

An English technical paper relates the following story of one of the most noted British mechanicians: Some time ago a British newspaper published a sketch of a self-propelled vehicle which had been constructed by a man named Northcott, who had stopped at the house of a Mr. Holt, the engine factory of Bolton & Watt, and asked for work. He spoke little English but told the master that he had made a model of the place and wished him God speed to some other shop, when, as he was turning away sorrowfully, Holt suddenly called him back.

A. L. Stipp, of Truro, has sold his little business Sea King 2, to G. W. K. Blair Square, hotel, Boston. He now owns a carriage and the horse can be seen in the mile to 2.25.

A. Minnepolis' despatch says J. S. Johnson, Saturday, leaped the 5 miles amateur skating record to 15.30 4.5. Dugough's time record for the distance is 15.38; Hause's (professionals) 15.11.

Count Morier drove up to the Quebec River forehead with several of his men to see the new bridge over the river for Beaupre. In the afternoon the ex-premier quietly took his hat, and although one of the two of the members of the opposition had been away, the boat was little crowded.

Zante, one of the Greek Isles and a former British possession was shaken by an earthquake. Wednesday morning. One thousand houses were cracked in the earth by the tremor.

Several villages were entirely destroyed and many of their inhabitants killed. Towns unbroken had to sleep in the fields.

At the Montreal racetrack named Strathroy is the world's record for the scratch in a light stallion and four others who were racing. The record was set up by the coroner, Mr. Mahon. When the race was over, and now the authorities are looking into the matter, the coroner is still holding the city's debris.

The Young Men's Liberal Conservative Association of Collingwood, Ont., have passed the following resolution: While for Daniel McCarthy he would personal feelings of respect and admiration, he does not believe history or experience warrants us in believing that independent parties can for any length of time exist, or be of practical service to the country and the association affirms its confidence in the Thompson administration.

Thomas Collier, of Lowell, Mass., who was sentenced five years ago to 15 years in London as an alleged dynamiter, and who was freed on parole, has been paroled again to Lowell. His health is good. He has been in Chatham and Portland, and prides himself on his treatment there.

He is now in Lowell, and is engaged in repairing his home.

Mr. David H. Morrison has increased his racing stable, adding three racing stallions and a gelding.

The down trip is regularly made in 80 minutes, but the cars sometimes come down in half that time, without stops. The horses, or mules, take kindly to the road.

Carroll's team is said to race each road each day for the fast race.

John Paul, the veteran skater, has written to Joe Douglass's father, telling him to congratulate the boy, and says his wonderful record will stand many a long year before it will be equalled.

Franklin, the famous skater, has given up his hobby, and is now engaged in the business of a skating rink.

A large crowd assembled at the Pictou skating rink to witness the race between Hutton Brew of St. John, and Frank Carl of Pictou, but they were doomed to disappointment as it was decided to postpone the race till another day upon a starting point.

Brew wanted the race skated from opposite ends of the rink, while Carroll wanted the start to be made at the middle.

"Yes," said the man who was wearing the green goggles, "I've never had anything but bad luck. I've worked hard all my life and only made a bare living. All my friends have died off or moved away. I've got literary and artistic taste and can't afford them; everything I do costs me a fortune in a future, and don't cost me a cent in a present."

"I've tried that, too. Got bare out in one case, and got myself into another. That's only one thing that keeps me from committing suicide and saving the whole business."

"Well?"

"Curiosity to know what blam'd misfortune is coming next!"—Chicago Tribune.

Something To Live For.

VISITORS DID NOT DESTROY HIS ANTICIPATED PLEASURES.
