

PRESCRIPTION "A"

CURES INDIGESTION & DYSPEPSIA IN ALL ITS FORMS.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself, and at times I care for nothing."

I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion, I feel just as if tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden.

Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a bottle of Prescription "A". A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

Distribution of Hay Seed.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to make a few remarks concerning the way the Agricultural Society hay seed is given out. A short while ago the seed for the different places was landed at Woodford's Station. On hearing of its arrival, our President, P. D. Woodford, and Vice President P. D. Hannon, at once drove to the station, as they said themselves, to weigh out the hay seed. I, Mr. Editor, happened to be at the station at the same time for freight. I waited a little while to see what was going ahead, as I knew it was nothing of any benefit to the people, especially when Woodford was head of it, as he can never get enough for himself and his few friends. After things had been arranged inside, I saw Pat Woodford come out of the station, cross the street to Mrs. Woodford's, who keeps the post office, and borrow a mail bag. He then came back to the station and filled this bag with hay seed and put it into his carriage and brought it home. Now, Mr. Editor, I want to know if the people of Harbor Main are to be fooled by this one individual. When those two men come to weigh up that seed, why did they not bring it all out, or else not interfere with it at all? Or did Mr. P. D. have his eyes closed and not see this carried on. Are those mail bags to be used for carrying mails or for bringing hay seed from the station to Mr. Main for Pat Woodford? No wonder the people are fooled out with a cupful of hay seed, and when they speak of it, Mr. President coolly tells them to go over to his store. Now, Mr. Editor, I want to give you a report of how this mail bag of seed was distributed. Come on you hardy sons of Mr. Main, get a move on, and do away with this Society altogether. If things are not carried on any better, and you, Mr. P. E., come on and tell us what you did with that mail bag of hay seed?

Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, I remain, yours,
SPECTATOR.
Mr. Main, June 12, 1913.

An Unpleasant Incident.

Dear Mr. Editor.—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to throw a little light on an unpleasant incident which in conversation with a friend on Rawlins' Cross last evening. He was standing just on the curb and I was standing in the roadway, when a certain individual wearing the Constabulary uniform and having the sergeant's stripes thereon, came along and ordered him off the sidewalk. My friend moved along but not at a speed which some of our automobilists crossing LeMarchant Road would call "scorching." This seemed to irritate the "peacemaker," who let loose all the vitals of his wrath on my friend. In the course of his tirade he said, "Do you know you can be arrested without warning for standing on the sidewalk?" My friend informed him he was not aware that such was the case. He (the officer) in a passionate flow of words informed my friend and the world at large that it was "brutal ignorance" for not knowing this fact, and "saucy impudence" for telling him (the officer) so. We do not know if you can be taken without warning or that it even appears in the Police Manual. If it is in the above Manual it must be the law, and as such appears in the Statute Book. In the event of such being the case we can have no kick, but it appears to me our Statute Book would need "a clean-up day," as this law must have been enacted to keep the ancestors of the late lamented Mary March from crowding one another when on the warpath. And Mr. Editor, the ridiculous part of this occurrence is, this same "police" the administrator of His Majesty's Justice had the deliberate gall and impudence to break the very law he was expounding just two minutes before by standing on that very same sidewalk in deep conversation with a medical friend. Perhaps the Police Manual mentioned above also says "An officer on duty is not to have or hold conversation with anybody unless it be in his line of duty," or perhaps he is "brutally ignorant" of the fact.

Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, and trusting the above will be the means of the guardian of the peace doing all his duty in a firmer and more polite manner in the future.

Yours truly,
FAIR PLAY.

June 13th, 1913.

More Destruction

For the past two weeks, some of the members of the Nfld. Highlanders had a fine camp on the Southside Hill just west of the Rifle Club house. Vandals in the persons of vicious youths are always roaming about the hills in quest of what they can seize or destroy, and yesterday afternoon they set fire to the tent, owned by the two young men and it was burnt with all its contents. The owners, of course, were at work and knew nothing of their loss till they went to the hill to go to camp. The loss to them will be about $100 and we hear the matter has been reported to the police.

Here and There.

STILL DETAINED.—Bowling's barge, Dunure, fish laden for Penambuco, is still awaiting to get a full crew. Sailors are hard to get.

"JUST FOR FUN."—The comedy-ette "Just for Fun" will be presented in the Aula Maxima of St. Bon's College, on Wednesday night next. Some clever amateurs will act.

GIVEN RECEPTION.—Last night, Miss Dickinson, teacher of a preliminary class at the Methodist College, for several years, and who leaves the country shortly, was honored by a reception at the College Hall. An enjoyable time was spent until eleven o'clock. Miss Dickinson takes with her the best wishes of her students as well as her many friends.

INFECTIOUS DISEASES.—Ten cases of infectious diseases were reported in the city during the week-end of 7 of smallpox, 2 of scarlet fever and 1 of diphtheria. Four houses were disinfected, and released from quarantine. There are now in hospital 13 scarlet, 3 diphtheria and 9 smallpox patients.

Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LIMA, Ohio, June 13.
Andrew Drew, a Chicago aviator, fell 200 feet while making a flight, and was instantly killed.

SUDBURY, Ont., June 13.
The village of Bisceon, on the C.P. R. line, between Carleton Place and Chapin, was completely wiped out by fire last night. Among the buildings destroyed were the Catholic Church, Hudson Bay depot, and scores of dwellings, while the big lumber yards of the Booth-Shannon lumber Company, were also swept by the flames.

QUEENSTOWN, June 13.
While the White Star steamer Majestic was on a voyage from Southampton to New York, via this port, two firemen suddenly became insane and jumped overboard. The captain stopped the ship and boats were launched, the Majestic remaining in the vicinity of the spot where the men struck the water. The search, however, proved fruitless.

BERLIN, June 13.
This city began to-day to don festive garments for the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Kaiser's accession. The Kaiser will receive in the palace on Monday, when a great congratulatory court will be held, at which will be present numerous German and foreign representatives, making it one of the most brilliant gatherings ever seen in Berlin.

BALTIMORE, June 13.
At almost the exact spot where the Titanic sank a little over a year ago, the lookout on the North German Lloyd liner Eisenach, sighted a barnacle-covered lifeboat derelict on June 4th, floating eastward. The officers said that from its appearance it must have been at the mercy of the waves for twelve months. The Eisenach arrived here to-day with 1,302 emigrants on board.

LONDON, June 13.
Mrs. Pankhurst, who is out of jail on ticket of leave, until sufficiently recovered, declares she will head a group of hunger strikers at the Davison (funeral) on Sunday. If she is well enough to leave the house, where she is convalescing, she will probably be re-arrested. In reply to a question by Walford Storm, in the Commons, Home Secretary McKenna said that Mrs. Pankhurst was liable to arrest, but this might have to be deferred, on account of her health.

TOKIO, June 13.
Count Gombol Yamamoto, the Japanese Premier to-day, declared that he deeply regretted the controversy over the question of Californian alien land ownership. Legislation was still unsettled. He was addressing a gathering of Japanese newsmen on the subject of Foreign Politics. With due regard to the importance of maintaining peace and friendship with the United States, he said that the Japanese Government was taking appropriate steps, and looked confidently for an amicable settlement.

LONDON, June 13.
British Cabinet Ministers to-day were absolved by the Parliamentary Committee from all blame in connection with the alleged Marconi scandal. The Committee's report issued to-day declares that there is no foundation for any of the charges made against Attorney-General Sir Rufus Isaacs, Chancellor Lloyd-George, or Postmaster-General Sargent. The Committee finds that all the members concerned acted throughout in a sincere belief that there was nothing in their action which would conflict with their duty as Ministers of the Crown. The report further says that no evidence has been given to show that any members of the Government exercised any influence in order to procure a contract for the English Marconi Company, or in any way acted contrary to the public interest on behalf of that Company, or used knowledge obtained in their official capacity for their private profit, or were in any wise concurred in any dealings in shares of the Company. The report in conclusion, strongly condemns the publication of charges which were absolutely untrue, and which those responsible for their circulation had no reason to believe to be true. It is understood that there will be majority reports, but these have not yet been made public.

Furniture Sale!

No explanation or elaboration of this Furniture Sale idea is necessary. People already know what it is. The preceding semi-annual events held at the C. L. March Co's. Store have proved to the satisfaction of even the most skeptical that the very best class of Furniture can be bought here now at decisively lower prices than it usually brings. In other words, the person that has a certain sum of money to spend in furniture can get one-third more furniture one-third better, or that person can save one-third in cost.

Encouraged by the splendid success of past sales, and having full confidence that the public understands and realizes the economic features of the event, we have by far outdone all past records by assembling thousands of pieces of the most excellent furniture that the factory could produce—to be disposed of this month. The scope of this furniture movement covers the requirements of every home, whether cottage or mansion. There are magnificent pieces and sets of the finest woods, carved and finished with elaborate care.

But the backbone of the event is of course the vast array of furniture of the moderate kind, which the average home demands—substantial, well-built furniture that gives comfort and satisfaction through years of steady service. Come and inspect the furniture at your leisure, and feel at perfect liberty to ask all the questions you like without incurring the slightest obligation to any. Out-of-town folks will find it to their advantage when in town to see us. Young people getting married should certainly see us.
