The Governor at Channel.

On the occasion of the Vice-Regal visit to Channel and Port aux Basques, the appended Addresses of welcome were presented. That of the citizens was as follows:

To His Excellency, Walter Edward Davidson, Esquire, C.M.G., Governor and Commander-in-Chief, etc.

May it please Your Excellency.—Once more it becomes our privilege and pleasure to offer Your Excellency in the name of the people of Channel, Port aux Basques and the South West Coast a hearty welcome to our midst, and we offer this welcome not only because of your Vice-Regal office but as well for the reason that since your arrival in Newfoundland you have so endeared yourself to its people, that we feel in thus offering the greetings of the citizens of this portion of Your Excellency's jurisdiction, we are doing so not as strangers; for it has already been our pleasing duty to have extended to Your Excellency the first welcome to our shores.

In offering our loyal respects to-day we appreciate that Your Excellency has availed of every opportunity to familiarize yourself with the inhabitants of Britain's most ancient Colony and the interest taken by Your Excellency in the condition of our people, their methods of labor and way of living has brought forth a manifestation of affection such as has never been shown any of your predecessors.

Newfoundlanders are noted for their fervent loyalty and attachment to the Crown, and in the person of their present illustrious monarch His Majesty King George V., the Throne is occupied by one who in every way has maintained the best traditions of Empire; one who is imperial in every respect.

To the Empire we are no less attached; for we believe that as the British Empire stand for Justice, Freedom, Order and Good Government, so we as Newfoundlanders pledge ourselves as in part citizens of the Greatest Empire the world has ever seen, that we will maintain the heritage handed down to us by our forefathers.

As an evidence of that pledge we welcome Your Excellency as the representative of our Sovereign, and as one who has stood for the highest ideals of British rule and justice and with this welcome may be permitted to express the wish nearest our hearts that Your Excellency's stay amongst us may be fraught with good to our beloved land, and benefits to your own person and family, so that, in the years to come, we, who are thus honored in being permitted to receive Your Excellency in these most western townships, may be able to tell our children's children of the record of Your Excellency's work in Terra Nova.

To Mrs. Davidson, who has also honored us with her presence, we desire to accord our sincerest welcome, and we do so knowing that the felicity of making the acquaintance of a lady of Mrs. Davidson's accomplishments and attainments is a pleasure which we shall happily remember when we think of this as being one of the red letter days in the annals of the South West Coast.
 Assuring Your Excellency of our continued loyalty and devotion and wishing for yourself and Mrs. Davidson a most enjoyable continuation and culmination of your first tour around the coasts of Newfoundland and many pleasant years of official and social intercourse with the people over whom Your Excellency has been chosen to govern.

We have the honor to be,
 Your Excellency's
 Obedient Servants,

The School Children's Address to Mrs. Davidson:

Dear Mrs. Davidson,—For and on behalf of the school children of Channel and Port aux Basques, we desire to express the pleasure it has given us to have your presence here to-day, and to offer you our heartiest welcome to the Western Capital of Newfoundland.
 Your coming in our midst is an evidence of your desire to make the acquaintance of all classes of the people over whom your distinguished husband has been appointed Chief Executive; and we are sure that this acquaintance will develop into a close and more intimate friendship.

It is a visible sign of that democracy which does not exist under any other monarchical form of government in the world, and in which the freedom of British institutions is more manifest than in any Republic to witness your radiant part in the celebrations in your honor here this morning, and in their giving voice to our sentiments of esteem and regard for ourselves, but for the whole company of school children on the South and West Coasts of our island home.
 We ask that you accept with our compliments and best wishes, the accompanying bouquet from the pupils of St. James' School, and we hope that the perfume of the flowers with more lasting expressions of good will, and that during your stay in Newfoundland, and wherever the duties of Empire may call you, your pathway may be strewn with the blossoms of good luck and your life be sweet with the fragrance of good fellowship.

Believe us to be,
 Dear Mrs. Davidson,
 Most sincerely yours,
 John Read, William Bennett, Walter Mackay, Ethel Bragg, Dorcas Strickland, Beatrice Richards, Jennie Farrell, Fannie Menchons, Dora Burridge, Pearl James, Channel, N.F.,

Address of the Church of England Board of Education:

May it please Your Excellency.—The members of the Church of England Board of Education in the Parish of Channel, respectfully beg leave to approach Your Excellency with a request that you will honor them by formally opening their new school building.

Realizing the great advantages of education from a moral and religious as well as mental attitude, and realizing also that children to appreciate these advantages and the benefits of education must be taught amidst bright surroundings and in sanitary class rooms, the members of this Board have at great expense and much time and labor erected the present building, which they believe will conduce much to the spread of education in Channel, and in thus addressing this request to Your Excellency they do so with a firm confidence that the formal opening by Your Excellency in person will enhance the value of this institution as an educational factor, and in the opening itself much pleasure will be given the members of the Board, the congregation of St. James' and last but not least, the children themselves.

Assuring Your Excellency of our gratitude and high appreciation of the honor done us,
 We have the honor to remain,
 Your Excellency's
 Humble Servants,

J. J. Read, Chairman; V. T. Clement, Secretary; Emanuel Pike, H. H. Mackay, C. T. James, William Harnett (Principal),

The Heart Bowed Down.

ON MONDAY NIGHT.
 The attendance at the Nickel Theatre last evening was a large one and included many of the Stephens' round trippers who expressed themselves as delighted with the performance. The programme was interesting while the singing of Mr. Myers was all that could be desired. His song was "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," the pictures of which are very pretty. All his illustrated songs have the most attractive slides and St. John's patrons have had the benefit of them. To-night there will be a new programme. Next week will be Mr. Myers' farewell week as he leaves by the Florizel on the 12th to spend a week at his home in Portland, Maine, before taking up his winter's engagement. He has a big programme for next week. On Monday he will sing "The Heart Bowed Down," which Mr. Nelson, of the Robinson Opera Co. made such a hit in some years ago. His St. John's friends will be delighted to hear that he is singing it on Monday. The following evening he will sing another great success "I Stood on the Bridge at Midnight." Wednesday his selection will be "Twickenham Ferry." This is a splendid old English song. Thursday and Friday his song will be the Armourer Song from Robin Hood. Arthur P. Cameron, the well-known English comic and Al W. Fleming, baritone, will follow Mr. Myers at the Nickel Theatre.
