Fireman Foley Meets With Accident.

Last evening, Fireman Pierce Foley, of the East End Fire Department, had a narrow escape from being killed. He was seriously injured and is not yet out of danger. Shortly after 6 o'clock while going through the Western gate leading to Government House, he was accidentally thrown from his seat. The horses, which he was driving, were not going fast at the time. His head struck the ground first. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to his home in Hoytestown where he was attended by Doctors Roberts, Rendell, Mitchell and Macpherson, the former dressing a bad scalp wound. He was also badly shaken up. At midnight he regained consciousness and for the remainder of the night rested quietly. This morning he was suffering intense pain from the head wound.

The Xmas Pantomime.

Every one is looking forward to Mrs. Rossie's Christmas Pantomime. This is the third year of the beautiful productions in which our own talent play a prominent part; many a fine voice has been heard among these girls. Good looking and with talent that would never come to the surface were it not for the training these girls have; they are taught to be smart and graceful with dainty movements and they give a very fine performance. Mrs. Rossie says this pantomime is something entirely different to any of her previous efforts. The name of the production will be announced later with the famous tenor who is booked specially for Christmas, we can rely on having a delightful programme, as Mr. Vincent Vernon is a character change artist, his songs are class, popular and ballad.

FIRE ALARM.—About 6.15 last evening the Central and East End Fire Companies were called to Government House but there was no fire there. Owing to a lot of smoke coming from the kitchen some person sent in an alarm.

NO CELEBRATIONS OF NAVAL VICTORY.

LONDON, To-day. While the defeat of the German cruisers in the South Atlantic evokes the liveliest satisfaction throughout Britain, there have been no celebrations to mark the victories. British people have been too much wrapped up in the operations of the Allied armies on the Continent. Lack of news in Poland causes some uneasiness regarding the results of the prolonged battle between Russians and Germans, but the reports from France are considered here to be most favorable to the Allies. The French have been making slow progress on the western front for the past fortnight. A review sent by a French witness for the period from Nov. 27 to Dec. 5 claims that the ascendancy of the French infantry and artillery over the German has been established, that while the infantry advanced, the artillery smashed the German batteries. The report from French headquarters to-night adds little general knowledge, as it says the situation is unchanged, which indicates, however, that the positions taken have been maintained. Berlin, on the other hand, states that French attacks on their army have been repulsed. It is apparent, however, that by the withdrawal of German troops to strengthen the armies in the East, the Allies have been able to put their lines forward in many places. The Germans meanwhile continue their efforts to smash the Russian army. While a large part of their force are endeavoring to hold the Russian centre, another army is advancing from East Prussia, east of Mlava, attacking the Russian right, with a view to cutting communications and entering Warsaw through the back door. Heavy fighting is also going on from south-east of Cracow to the southwest of Lodz, where the Austrians and Germans are endeavoring to get around the Russian left wing. General Botha announces that the rebellion is practically at an end. Since the capture on Dec. 4 of seven hundred rebels and the surrender of two hundred Boers, five additional rebel leaders and their Commandos have been unconditionally laid down their arms. Only one rebel leader is at large, Colonel Maritz. The Indian Office reports that 1,100 Turkish prisoners, exclusive of wounded, and nine guns were captured at Kurna on the Persian Gulf which was occupied on December 5th.

ROULETS OCCUPIED.

AMSTERDAM, To-day. The Allies have entered Roulers in West Flanders, 12 miles northeast of Ypres, according to the Slits correspondent. On Wednesday the German Divisional Headquarters was removed from Roulers when shells began to fall in the town, after the British had captured Paschendaele, a short distance to the west of Roulers.

UNIFICATION OF EGYPT.

PARIS, To-day. It is learned on very high authority that the British Government is about to declare for the unification of Egypt.

THREE GERMAN SUBMARINES SUNK.

LONDON, To-day. A despatch from Dover states that three German submarines who took part in the attempted submarine raid upon the Admiralty Harbor have been sunk, after a heavy fusillade by the land batteries. The attempted raid on the harbor was made under cover of darkness and in a rain storm at 6.30 yesterday morning. Six submarines took part in it. The first alarm on shore was given by the firing of big naval guns. Soon all the land batteries were engaged in action. The fusillade lasted for some time. At least two hundred shots were fired. The message states that the submarines did not succeed in doing any damage.

Here and There.

THANKS.—The Hon. Secretary-Treasurer of the Methodist Orphanage begs to acknowledge the receipt of the sum of Thirty-two dollars and twenty cents, being one-third of net proceeds of Smoking Concert held on Wednesday evening last, per Messrs. Somerville and Dewling.

PORTIA DETAINED BY STORM.

The s.s. Portia, Capt. J. Keen, was ready to sail for the westward this morning, but was held in port by the snow storm. She will get away as soon as the storm abates. The following passengers are booked to go in saloon: J. Bennett, J. English, P. English, P. Downey, P. Power, A. Ryan, S. Solo, J. Power, Miss Pike, Miss Hoberg, Mrs. W. Pike, Mrs. Doody and 25 steerage.

L.O.A. Patriotic Meeting

A patriotic meeting of Leeming Lodge, No. 54, L.O.A., was held at Victoria Hall last night and was largely attended. The speakers were Rev. H. Royle, the newly elected Chaplain, and Mr. H. E. Cowan, D.M., of Royal Oak Lodge. Rev. Mr. Royle took as his topic the relationship of Orangemen to the war, and in a stirring address, emphasized the duties of Orangemen as loyal citizens of the Empire. He also dealt with the erroneous teachings of the German leaders of thought, particularly that of Treitschke, which he could only call paganism if not barbarism with a little moral veneer. Mr. H. E. Cowan then reviewed the events that led up to the war, and in an interesting manner explained the seriousness of the great struggle. Britain had not desired war, and had tried in every way known to diplomacy to avert the crisis. The question of the honor of the Empire was involved there was only one course to pursue. Britain is fighting with a united Empire behind her, in a just cause, and with the approbation of the whole neutral world.

At the close a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the speakers for their interesting discourses. It was announced that the speakers at next week's meeting will be Mr. Lloyd, Editor of the Telegram, and Mr. G. W. Gushue.

After the addresses the Lodge resumed the regular routine work, and the Officers elected last week were duly installed.

Weary Tiredness Changed to Vigor.

That Played-Out Feeling Was Quickly Remedied and Health Restored.

Story of a Merchant Who Almost Lost His Business and His Health Through Neglecting Early Symptoms of Disease.

"My life for years has been of sedentary character," writes T. B. Titchfield, head of a well-known firm in Buckingham. "Nine hours every day I spent at my office work and took exercise only on Sunday. I disregarded the symptoms of ill-health, which were all too apparent to my family. I grew thin, then pale, and before long I was jaundiced—eyes and skin were yellow, my strength and nerve energy were lowered, and I was quite unfit for business. In the morning a lightness in the head, particularly when I bent over, made me very worried about my health. Most of the laxative medicines I found weakening, and knowing that I had to be at business every day I neglected myself rather than risk further weakness. Of course I grew worse, but by a happy chance I began to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, I was forcibly struck by the fact that they neither caused griping nor nausea, and it seemed incredible that pills could tone, cleanse and regulate the system without causing any unpleasant after effects. Dr. Hamilton's Pills acted with me just as gentle as nature—they gave new life to my liver, strengthened my stomach, and won me back to perfect good health. My skin is clear, dizziness has disappeared, and my appetite, strength, spirits are perfect."

Refuse anything offered you instead of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are sure cures. Sold in 25c. boxes, five for $1.00, at all druggists and storekeepers, or postpaid from the Catarthopoe Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

Herrings at Anderson's Cove.

A message was received from Anderson's Cove, Fortune Bay, by the Fisheries Department yesterday afternoon stating that herrings were more plentiful there than for the last ten years. Bonne Bay reported the fish-scarce but the weather was favourable.

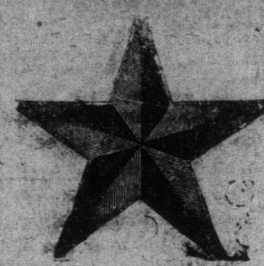

"Take a good look at the above cut." If you are suffering from a Cough or Cold, don't make any difference what the weather is, go to Stafford's Drug Store and ask for a 25 cent bottle of Phoradone Cough Cure, take it according to the directions on the bottle and you will find it a good preparation. If you keep neglecting a slight cough or cold it will gradually develop into the "cough" that you will not very easily get rid of. Thousands of people are dying every year from neglecting what they called a slight cough or cold.

Phoradone Cough Cure is prepared only by Dr. F. Stafford & Son, St. John's, Nfld. Price 25 cents. Postage 5 cts extra.

Days Past—244 To Come—20
RICHARD DOYLE died 1883, aged 59. An artist of much humour and fancy, who was exceedingly popular white on the staff of "Punch," the familiar cover of which is his work.
ROBERT KOCH died 1910, aged 67. The most noted bacteriologist of the time, whose discoveries in connection with the bacillus of tuberculosis have borne such good fruit.
DEATH OF LLEWELYN—1282. Llewelyn was the last native "Prince of Wales." Up to the time of Edward I. the Welsh had maintained a kind of independence, and had defended themselves in their native fastnesses and defied the power of England. Edward I. however, marched an English army into Wales and finally defeated them and in the battle their Prince Llewelyn was slain. Edward's son, afterwards Edward II., was created the first English Prince of Wales.

A WAR SONG.

(Moose Jaw "Evening Times.")
Come sing the old, old story,
The Empire's pride and boast;
That ne'er the feet of foemen,
Shall desecrate our coast.
We'll welcome gallant Belgians,
Unto our sea girl shore,
But the Kaiser's brutal legions,
Shall be met with cannon's roar.

CHORUS:

Your King and Country need you
The flag is wide unfurled;
The Empire, and its allies
'Gainst German millions hurled.
Our King and Country ever
We'll shout it to the skies—
There's Glory, Freedom, Honor,
The flag of Britain flies.

See, Canada's sons are sailing,
Thousands strong across the seas;
And our "meter" flag is streaming
On the patriotic breeze.
From New Zealand and Australia,
From the Cape and Newfoundland,
All the lion's whelps now gather, to—
Protect the Motherland.

Don't forget that little 10 cent bottle of Stafford's Essence of Ginger Wine for Xmas.—dec9,tf
