"A Red Herring"
REFRIENDS "FOX" SQUIRES—ST. JOHN'S EAST WILL "SPEW HIM OUT".
 "He who draws a red herring across the trail befriends the fox." In St. John's East, Dunfield is the herring, and Squires the fox. The only purpose an Independent candidate can serve is to help save Squires from defeat.
 Suppose the election result in 1908 were duplicated, except that instead of a tie on straight party lines, Squires got sixteen supporters and Bennett got seventeen, the thirty-sixth man being Dunfield. By supporting Squires, he could keep the Squires-Coaker gang in power. Would he? Consider his record. Squires' colleague in 1912. Coaker's assistant in 1919. Predicting this year, "Squires will win". Your answer is complete. The fox would be saved by the red herring.
 "I have no policy," says Mr. Dunfield, in his Manifesto, "an Independent must do his work by criticism, supporting or hindering the Government." That means that Mr. Dunfield will not be constructive, but destructive, and stands for nothing but criticism. This is a time when initiative is necessary above all things, and when a mere "gadfly" can be of little use. Mr. Dunfield has been prominent as an advocate of non-denominational schools, and might have been expected to have stood upon that policy as a platform, particularly when reward is paid to the fact that two school teachers are his proposers. Where does he stand on this matter as an issue, and why is he silent about it? Is this another piece of deception?
 There is a suggestion in Mr. Dunfield's Manifesto which is surprising when coming from a "superior" person. It smacks of "grat, corruption and waste," which he affects to deplore, but he broadly makes a corrupt suggestion to procure votes. After announcing himself as an "Independent," whose mission will be to criticize unmercifully all that a corrupt government may propose, Mr. Dunfield says to the electors, "It's useless to vote for the Opposition candidates, for men in opposition can do nothing for you, but, if elected, I can get 'you' what you want, for if the district is represented by me, it will 'always be on the government side'." The implication is, Dunfield will always be on the government side! As he says, "Squires will win," he means that he will be on the Squires-Coaker side.
 Anybody who says, "Elect me and I'll get you what you want," is attempting to bribe support. He does not say, "Elect me, to support what is right," but "elect me to get, not what you need alone, nor yet what you deserve only, but what you want," and that spells bribery with the public funds. Anybody who says, "The government will not give anything to opposition members, but I will always be on the government side, consisting though it will be of grafters and corruptors, and so will be able always to get you what you want"—such a person, we say, really means to imply "because I shall always be ready to sell my support, or suppress my criticism, for public money for my constituents, which I could not get for them if I were really and truly independent." "My independence will be for sale."
 We have dealt thus completely with the candidature of Mr. Dunfield because it constitutes a public menace, for the very virtues it will seem to possess at the outset might be a trap for the unwary. He is an educated man, well connected, of good abilities, and good character, and one whom we would gladly support under ordinary conditions, and if his election could be afforded by the Colony. But the continued existence of the Squires-Coaker oligarchy is the issue, the only great issue in this election. Mr. Dunfield himself has said, "Squires has brought you bad times, but Coaker will put him in again." It is the supreme danger of the hour that this prediction may prove true. The abyss yawns before the people of the Colony. Destruction, complete and overwhelming, threatens this city especially. This Laodicean, Dunfield, professes to believe that neither existing party is to be trusted, yet offers no resistance to the grafters in power. "Because thou art neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth," said the spirit to the Church at Laodicea, and this is just what the electors of St. John's East should say to Mr. Dunfield. Under our constitution, crime in office can only be rebuked by turning the criminals out, and this can only be done, as far as St. John's East is concerned, by voting the straight ticket for Higgins, Fox and Vinicombe.
 Mr. Dunfield has made a sectarian appeal for the support of the Protestants in St. John's East. This affords an opportunity for a striking display of religious toleration, and for an example which will help to banish a noxious thing from public life. Mr. Dunfield's personal character is so good that it will help to point the moral. Let the Protestants be appeals to say by their votes for others, "We will not vote for you, or for any man, who seeks advantage in politics by appeals to religious bias. They should lead the way to a better feeling in our public life."

Obituary.
WM. F. SNOW, R.N.R. LOST AT SEA WITH THE SINKING OF THE VESSEL "FLORENCE HOW." ARR. NOV 30TH, 1922.
 Of the many Newfoundlanders who passed into the Great Beyond during the past year, the list is large that mournfully records the loss of those at sea, and none was more loved or better known than the subject of this obituary notice. William Snow belonged to the West End of the city, and was a son of the late Capt. John Snow, who in earlier years came from Pogo. The spirit of the sea, with "its incessant call" to the sons of the country was in the boy, and in 1914 Willie joined the Royal Naval Reserve, being only then 17 years of age. Through the time of strife, when that portion of His Majesty's Navy represented by the Newfoundland Royal Naval Reserve unit was distinguished for its splendid manly power, and when such boys as the Crookers, Joys and Barrigans proved themselves to "Home and Duty," Willie Snow too, did well and received his discharge marked with the utmost fidelity to the welfare of his Empire and Country. Personally, he was humble and unpretentious, making and keeping to him the innumerable friends who today mourn sincerely his passing. So honorable and sincere was that friendship, that the writer knew by some premonition that the dear lad must have passed from this world, when some months ago a loved, and now sadly missed correspondence was suddenly interrupted, and only on Tuesday last the sad intelligence of the end of his young life was received from the Shipping Agents' Firm of Harris and Anderson, New York. There are many who loved him well, and will miss his dear boyish presence and company and cheery smile now—but none more than the writer of these few lines dedicated in all heartfelt sympathy to his cherished memory. To his mother, stepfather, brothers and two sisters sincere condolences will be expressed and in praying for the soul of this dear son, and brother, there will be united an "asking of Heaven" to give reconciliation to the bereaved ones left, that they may find too, balm in the knowledge that "God has seen, and taken to Himself the boy so far from home." May his dear soul rest in peace.

Well Done Carboner.
MOORE WILL LEAD BY A BIG MAJORITY.
 Editor Evening Telegram
 Dear Sir—All doubt has vanished in Carboner regarding as to who will be the winner for to-day. Squires men have abandoned the fight and concede that Jim Moore will lead by a big majority. This will be in accordance with the sentiments all around Conception Bay for from every section comes the welcome news that the electors are finished with Coakerism and insist on victory for Bennett and Better Times. The secret Humber Deal of Squires cuts no ice as the people refuse to be led blindfolded into what may afterwards prove to be merely a trap that will do more harm to them than good. Anyway we are satisfied that the Bennett Government will handle the Humber Deal to the best advantage. So here goes Carboner for Jim Moore with a good routing majority.
 Yours truly,
 NATIVE.

"General Wood" O. K.
NO REPORT SCRR. HERBERT WARREN.
 Capt. Forsyth, of the schooner "Gen. Wood," who arrived at St. Lawrence from across, reports that he did not speak or sight the schooner Herbert Warren, which left the other side a few days in advance. The "General Wood" was out 27 days, forty-five of which she was jammed in the 'ca. The Herbert Warren is having a rather long passage, being over 100 days out to Messrs. Jas. Baird, Ltd. A message to the above effect was received from the sub-collector at St. Lawrence by the Deputy Minister of Finance and Customs this morning.

Inter-Club Billiards.

B.I.S. WINNERS LAST NIGHT.
 The Billiard Tournament between the B.I.S. and Masonic players is drawing large crowds of supporters from the respective clubs to the Masonic rooms each evening, and keen interest is being displayed by spectators and players alike. Last night two games were played, and in each case resulted in wins for the B.I.S. In the first game a fine exhibition was given between Sellars (M) and Moakler (B.I.S.). The latter player who played a steady game right through, made a great recovery towards the end of play and won out from his opponent by 31 points. The breaks were:—
 Sellars—(319) 15, 25, 20, 11, 13, 11—108.
 Moakler—(350) 12, 10, 19, 13, 11, 25, 12, 12, 11, 18, 19, 28—191.
 The second game was between J. J. McKay (M) and W. J. O'Neill (B.I.S.) and resulted in an easy win for the latter by a majority of 183 points. O'Neill for the (B.I.S.) was in excellent form. He scored many difficult shots, and had several good breaks to his credit. The outcome of the last game cut down the Masonic's total number of points considerably. The breaks were:—
 McKay—(187) 14, 11—25.
 O'Neill—(350) 18, 31, 12, 17, 17, 35, 21—154.
 The Masonic Club is now leading by 153 points. Following is the table:
 P. W. L. Pts.
 Masonic 8 5 3 2549
 B. I. S. 8 3 5 2391

The contestants for to-night will be Thistle (M) and Power (B.I.S.) in the first game, and Merner (B.I.S.) vs. Pearce (M) in the second tilt. A good exhibition is being looked forward to.
RANGER'S TURNOUT.—Up to 1 p. m. to-day the S. S. Ranger discharged 6,310 young hares, and 1,960 hammers. She will not finish before noon Monday.
