Affairs in Europe.

The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Times says it is rumored that the Emperor is about to resume his pet project of a Congress of the European Powers.

The accounts from Spain continue to be of the same gloomy and unsatisfactory character. There is some talk of the probability of the overthrow of the present Ministry.

Holland, awakened to the danger of absorption by the German Confederation, has, it is said, sounded the Cabinets of London and Brussels as to whether it would not be advisable to have the treaties of 1832 revised on the following bases:—Extension to Holland of the neutrality of Belgium.

Of the effect on the trade of Paris of the rumors of a second French expedition to Rome, superadded to the anxiety that prevails in regard to the projects of M. de Bismarck, we have lamentable evidence.

The New York Commercial Advertiser has a paragraph which shows, that the Americans are not at all frightened by the dreary aspect of Wallrusia, or its incongenial skies.
