

A St. John telegram, dated Dec 1st, says that Messrs. Burpee and DeVeber were elected by acclamation. Mr. DeVeber spoke briefly, promising the Government a hearty support, in so far as they acted fairly by the whole country. Mr. Burpee reviewed the general policy of the late Government, showing that whilst he desired to stand by them, he could not consistently do so. Mr. Palmer spoke and declared Mr. Huntington an annexationist. There were loud calls for Mr. Anglin, but he declined to speak, merely contradicting Mr. Palmer's statement as to Mr. Huntington.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Hamilton Times says:—Mr. Cartwright's great victory in Lennox has completely discouraged the Tory party here, and it is astonishing how public opinion has changed. Were an election to take place in Ottawa to-morrow, it would be carried by a Reform candidate.

The Ministers in town are Messrs. Mackenzie, Dorian, D. A. McDonald and Letellier de St. Just.

A large new stock of dolls, ladies' companions, building blocks, games, toys and other goods suited for this season now opened up at Day's Bookstore.
