Church of Scotland Synod.

June 3.

After some formal business Rev. W. Johnston asked leave to retire from active duty on account of illness. Applications for licenses were sent in from A. H. Cameron, J. J. Cameron, M. D., and R. J. Craig, all of Queen's College, Kingston.

Applications for admission to the ministry were submitted from Rev. Alex. Smith, of the Presbyterian Church of the United States; Rev. James Pullar, of the Congregational Church; Rev. P. D. Steele, of the Canada Presbyterian Church of Ramsay.—Referred to the examining committee, of which Dr. Hogg is Convener.

The report of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund was read. Revenue for the year $4,998, being an increase of over $500 on last year. The endowment fund has now reached the sum of $73,153.92, $58,353.92 being in mortgages, and $14,800 in bonds and stock. The number of widows receiving allowances from the fund is 38. The number of orphans, 54.

The report of the Temporalities Board was read. Of the seventy-three ministers who originated the fund in 1855 only thirty-three now remain, of whom eight have with the leave of the Synod, retired from the active duties of their office, and three are Professors in Queen's College. The number of non-privileged Ministers on the Synod's roll is at present ninety, and the total number of Ministers having a claim upon the fund through the College and otherwise is one hundred and thirty-three. The Board expects to make provision for the payment of fifty non-privileged Ministers on the 1st of July next—four more than at the corresponding period last year.

The report of the Sustentation Fund was read. The contributions for the year amount to $3,108.77. Out of this $100, each was paid to 39 ministers in July 1873, and to 37 in June '74.

Prof. Snodgrass, delegate to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, reported verbally as to his reception by that Church.

Rev. Mr. Lang reported verbally that he had attended the celebration of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces at Pictou last year.

At the evening meeting a statement of returns to the Synod's report on Union from Presbyteries, Kirk sessions, and congregations was then submitted, which showed that nine Presbyteries, 83 Kirk sessions, and 106 congregations approved of the basis simpliciter. One Presbytery, four Kirk sessions, and six congregations approved of it with modifications or reservations. Three Kirk sessions and congregations approved of the first and second articles of the basis, but disapproved of the third. One Presbytery, fourteen Kirk sessions, and twelve congregations disapproved of the basis simpliciter. One Presbytery, four Kirk sessions, and one Kirk session disapproved of it with modifications. Eleven Presbyteries, 110 Kirk sessions, and 127 congregations reported.

Ten protests against the basis of union were submitted.

After some discussion the report was referred back for some amendments. Addresses to the Queen and the Governor-General were approved of.
