High Grade French Velours
Purchased in 1913--Worth Now $4.25

$1.45 Yd.
Surprising in view of the fact that no velours have come from France, to speak of, since war's advent. Canadian mills choked with orders--American factories closed to us because of tariff.
THEREFORE, this offer takes on an aspect of hugeness in value-giving. This morning we offer the remainder of our lines of French Velours, English Velvets, Velours, Chenille, etc., at the one price, yard, $1.45.
The lengths are small--in some instances not more than will make a pair of hangings. ALL 50-INCH GOODS. We value these at $4.25 the yard. You'll say they are worth more. BUT please shop early to avoid disappointment. No C.O.D. or phone orders.

Nottingham Curtains, 98c Pair
