Our Spring Opening

Don't fail to see all the latest styles and shades. It will be a pleasure to show you.

The war has had its effects on the suit colors for the spring. Some of the new shades are sand, khaki, putty and Belgian blue. These come in the beautiful Scotch homespun, very fashionable and will be leaders in ladies' costumes for the spring of 1915.

Broadcloths for ladies' wear. The colors are unlimited as the tints of the rainbow. The colors will suit the young miss or the mature matron. You can get the same choice of colors and weight as you can get in the big fashion centres of America.

Vickerman's Worsteds, Togo Worsteds—the West of England produces no better blue and black fancy worsteds Serges of every weight in blues and blacks.

Our prices for made-to-measure suits are in no wise expensive. Drop in and see the fashion plates. You'll see how becoming the above materials look in made-to-measure costumes. You're welcome.
