Mr. William Livingstone will continue to do all kinds of repairing at the rear of our store, Marshall Block.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Mr. Arthur Heiter, of the Traders Bank, Sarnia, was in town over Easter. Are you going to make garden this spring. Read our ad. on page 6. J. E. Richards.

Mr. Geo. Acheson, president of the Laidlaw-Watson Shoe Co., was in town on business for a day or so this week.

Miss Pantan, of Stratford, was the guest of Miss Flo Rutherford for a few days this week.

Mr. J. M. Farthing is having a handsome new double porch, with tower, placed in front of his handsome residence on Talbot St.

Mr. Samuel Mann has arrived in town, and is now prepared to do all kinds of carriage painting, varnishing and trimming. A call solicited, over J. Orton's shop.

We take off our hat, and make our most profound bow to Mr. G. M. Standing, of The Sun, over the birth of a fine baby "girl" at his home on Good Friday last.

Mr. Fred Eggleston is making great changes and improvements in the house he recently bought from the estate of the late Richard Thomas, on Water street.

The Copenhagen Methodist Sunday school are keeping up their record for doing good, having just raised the sum of $10 by a collection, for the Indian famine fund.

"Delays are dangerous." Those who have poor, weak, impure blood should take Hood's Sarsaparilla at once. It never disappoints.

On Tuesday last Mrs. Jas. Dickey, who has been a great sufferer for a long time, died at her home on the 9th concession. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of all.

The Easter Sunday anthems at the Methodist church were particularly fine, both morning and evening. Miss E. Wooster gave a fine solo, and a duet and solo by male voices were also greatly appreciated.

The Rev. C. T. Scott was taken suddenly ill on Saturday last, and was unable to attend to his duties on Sunday. He is still confined to his bed, although a little better. Mrs. Scott is also very much indisposed this week.

Trinity church was beautifully decorated for Easter Sunday, and the services were of more than usual beauty and interest. In the offertory anthem in the morning, Miss E. Heiter took the solo work in a most pleasing and satisfactory manner.

Mr. H. C. Mulholland is busy taking stock at present, preparatory to taking his brother, Mr. E. Mulholland, of Chatham, into partnership with him. The addition of new blood and extra capital will no doubt mean the extension of the business. We wish the new firm every success.

The Rev. Ezra A. Fear and Mrs. Fear, of Atwood, spent Easter with Dr. Fear, and the former was unexpectedly called upon to take the services at the Methodist church, owing to the sudden illness of the pastor, Rev. C. T. Scott. Although totally unprepared, Mr. Fear gave two good addresses.

After an absence in Australia and California of fifteen or sixteen years, Mr. I. N. Ellis, accompanied by his eldest son, is spending a few weeks in Aylmer and vicinity, and many old friends are pleased to see them here once more. They are residing at present in Los Angeles, Cal. We should like very much to see Mr. Ellis and his family make Aylmer their home once more.

The spring fair this year, will be held on Saturday, April 28th, at the fair grounds Aylmer, when all the best horses in this section will no doubt be present. The classes called will be heavy draught, agricultural, hackney, roadster, carriage and thoroughbred. Horses are going to be worth money for the next few years, and farmers cannot pay too much attention to this line of business.

Mr. J. Fowler, representing a syndicate of American capitalists, who intend to build a beet sugar factory at St. Catharines this year, would like to contract for 200 or 300 acres of sugar beets in this section this season, and is willing to pay a flat price of $4 per ton for the same, delivered at the G. T. R. station here. Their instructions as to cultivation are to be complied with as nearly as possible, and there will be no set quality, as to percentage of sugar for this year. No action has been taken in the matter yet. Mr. Fowler says that if a test of this magnitude proves successful, we are assured of a factory here next year. He will furnish all seed required free of cost. There should be big money in this for the farmer.

On Wednesday, the 11th inst., a wedding took place in Seaford which was of great interest to many of our citizens who are well acquainted with both the contracting parties. The bride was Miss B. Hutchison, who for a number of years had charge of the millinery department at Youell & Wrong's, and the groom was Mr. Isaac D. Price, a prosperous contractor and builder, of this place. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Mr. Russell, in the presence of a few near relatives and friends. Both bride and groom are well known here, and enjoy the respect and esteem of all. They spent a short time with friends in Buffalo and other eastern points, and returned to Aylmer on Monday. After adding some improvements to the property, Mr. and Mrs. Price will make their home at the corner of Maple and Cedar streets, where Mrs. Price will receive her friends on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th of May. Among the many handsome presents received by the bride, was a beautiful sun-burst of pearls from the groom.
