AS BIG AS A BALLOON.

Fall of a Meteor at Council Bluffs—The Shock Shook the City.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Nov. 28.—A large meteor fell, striking the earth in the southwestern part of the city at 11 o'clock last night. It appeared to be about the size of a balloon, and while it was in the heavens it was luminous and looked like a ball of fire, lighting up the whole city.
Just before it struck the earth it exploded, and its fragments were scattered over several acres of ground. It being in the thinly settled part of the town no one was injured. Two minutes after the meteor fell there was a terrific shock, scarcely less severe than an earthquake, which shook nearly every building in the city and awakened nearly all of the slumbering inhabitants.

Bandits Behind the Bars.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 28.—Four members of the Cook gang, Will Forris, Chas.
Turner, Jesse Snyder and Thudman Baldwin, arrived here yesterday in charge of officers. The last named is the individual who has worked with the notorious Cook gang since it began operations under the pseudonym of "Skate." "Skate" has pleaded guilty to two charges of train robbing.

ROSS and MARTER Taken Down.

The eloquent speeches delivered by Hon. Mr.
Ross and Mr. Marter at the Opera House were proof leading Toronto papers by Wm. C.
Coo, principal of the Western Ontario Shortland Academy, 76 Dundas street. As the matter had to be sent over the telegraph lines in time for the morning papers, quick and accurate work was necessary.

Young people desirous of becoming expert stenographers should attend Mr. Coo's Academy, where people are able to teach you to do what they can't do themselves. Mr. Coo is an expert stenographer and typewriter operator, and thoroughly understands his business.

—Over $3,000 of London West taxes for 1894 yet remain unpaid.

—Josie Mills has arrived in the city and is staying at the Tecumseh.

—The river at the forks was partly frozen over last night—the first time this winter.

—Don't talk about the weather here being cold—it was 20° below zero in Winnipeg yesterday.

—Manager Break, of the street railway, is still in Detroit in connection with the big deal being made by Mr. Everett there.

—The Western Hotel here has changed hands. Mr. Wm. Henderson, formerly of the Arlington House, Woodstock, has assumed charge.

—Yenths are already making a practice of coating on the sidewalk of Dundas street west of Ridout, much to the inconvenience and danger of pedestrians.

—The cost of maintaining the county jail for the quarter ending Sept. 30 was $1,275 68. Of this the city pays 60 per cent—$765 41—and the county the balance, $510 27.

—The County Orange Lodge of East Middlesex is already issuing invitations for the celebration under its auspices at London on July 12, 1895. The Orangemen of the county of Elgin have been invited.

—Mr. Crowley, science master of the Ottawa Collegiate Institute, is inspecting the science department of the London Collegiate Institute, with the view of improving the equipment and the methods of teaching in the Ottawa Institute.

—Max O'Reil is a close observer, and has gone through the world with his eyes wide open. He has the happy knack of picturing in peasant phrases the little foibles he comes in contact with. It will interest all to hear him speak of the Englishman, Scotchman and Irishman at the Opera House tonight.

—Wonderland will open to the public on Monday evening, Dec. 3. Manager Stewart has engaged a fine stock company to support Josie Mills. The opening play will be John A. Stevens' masterpiece, "Passion's Slave." W. C. Bellien, the senior artist of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, will prepare the scenery.

—The Dominion Grocers' Association here is organizing the Toronto Board of Trade building yesterday. There were two delegates from Montreal, about half a dozen from Hamilton and one from London, besides Toronto grocery merchants. Matters pertaining to the trade were discussed, the meetings being secret.

—George Stratford, Center street, London West, was fined $5 and costs by Squire Lacey last night for allowing his son to remain away from school. The offense came under the Truancy Act, and Truant Officer Ward was the complainant. A number of parents in the village are showing indifference towards the law and the official is after them.

—In Toronto it is reported that H. A.
Everett, of Cleveland, has resigned the vice-presidency of the Toronto Street Railway Company. The rumor is received with credence in well informed circles.

The story is that Mr. Everett has sold all his stock in the concern and quietly withdrawn from his official position, as he did in the case of the Montreal Railway Company.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column, the London Trades and Labor Council hold a concert in the City Hall tomorrow evening. The object is to raise money to relieve the unemployed workmen in the city during the winter months. The price of the tickets is only 15 cents. No doubt a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity to help along such a worthy project.

—Guy Brothers' Minstrels will appear at the Grand Saturday, matinee and night.
This well known minstrel company cannot be kept away from Canada for the reason of the popularity gained by them on their initial tour through the Dominion some years ago. They give a clean and bright show and have excellent specialties. This year they have added new features, which have gained them great praise from the press. They should have large houses.

A Weekly Supply of Anti-Toxine.
The medical practitioners of Ontario are manifesting considerable interest in the experiments connected with the new diphetheria remedy, anti-toxine. Dr. P. H.
Bryce, the secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, has taken steps to secure a weekly consignment of the serum, which will be distributed amongst several hospitals of the Province. Sufficient for the treatment of twelve patients will arrive weekly. It is now stated that it is diphetheria, and not smallpox, as at first given out, which is epidemic in Renfrew county.
Diphtheria has also broken out in Cavan township, Ontario county.

Bond vs. Lamont and Pincombe.
At the sittings of the Queen's Bench Divisional Court on Tuesday before Armour C. J. and Street J., John Cameron (Strathroy), for the defendants, moved to set aside the verdict and judgment for the plaintiff for $1,000 in an action for damages for injuries received by the plaintiff owing to his horses being frightened on a road in the township of Carleton Place, by logs and lumber placed by the defendants on a road, across which plaintiff was driving on another road, and to dismiss the action or

BERLIN, Nov. 29, 1894.
I take great pleasure in writing this testimonial, more especially as I was considered by our medical men to be incurable. I was very badly troubled with my liver and kidneys; my system was completely run down. I was a mere skeleton. The doctors told me they could do no more for me. The chief agent for Williams' Royal Crown Remedy induced me to try that medicine. In a very short time I began to improve, and finally I was completely cured. There are a great many others who were bad cases that I have recommended the remedy to who have been completely cured. I might mention that I was also very much troubled with asthma and bronchitis, and have been greatly benefited in these complaints from the same valuable "Royal Remedy"; in truth I am not troubled much with them at present, and fully expect to be entirely cured with the "Remedy" in a short time.

for a new trial on the grounds that the defendant was not making an unreasonable use of the road, and on the ground of contributory negligence Alexander Stuart (London), for the plaintiff, contra. Motion dismissed with costs, the court holding that both questions were for the jury, whose findings in the plaintiff's favor the court would not disturb.

A Painful Accident.
Wm. Finch, of 728 Queen's avenue east, met with a very painful accident in front of the street car station at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, which will lay him up for many months. Finch is a driver, and had been on the west Dundas street stub line since spring. He was only a spare man, but yesterday was placed on the regular list and was allotted a South London car. At the hour mentioned car No. 50 came eastward, and Finch was to relieve the driver, Frank Armstrong.
He grasped the handle of the dashboard to step on the platform, but in some way lost his footing and fell to the ground. A second had hardly elapsed before a shout was heard and a half-dozen employees were on the scene. Finch was partly unconscious, and had to be carried into the office. A physician was hastily summoned, and it was found that the outside of Finch's left foot was badly lacerated and two bones broken. The car wheels had passed over it. The injured man also complained of intense pain in the right arm, and an examination showed that it also was broken near the wrist—the result of the fall.
Several other minor injuries were received.
Finch's wounds were dressed, and he was removed to his home, where at last accounts he was suffering intense pain, but was slowly on the mend.

"Pinnfore" at the Grand.

With the inspiration which always accompanies a crowded house, London's leading vocalists performed "Pinnfore" at the Grand last night in a manner that reflected the greatest credit on all concerned.
It could not very well have been otherwise on H. M. S. Pinnfore, or any other ship for that matter, with the veteran A. D. Holman at the helm and Mrs. H.
Hettie Holman directing the music. The latter received an ovation as she sat down at the piano.
The following was the cast, and it is needless to say that every part was acted and sung in a manner that won both applause and bouquets:

Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B., First Lord of the Treasury.....A. F. Hicks
Captain Corcoran.....C. W. Davis Rapid Backstairs.....W. J. Thorne Black Lendings.....F. Gardner Bontswain.....A. M. O'Brien Bontswain's Mate.....Mrs. A. D. Holman Miss Little Buttercup.....Miss Lillian Bernard Cousin Robe.....Miss Lydia Palmer

The Holmans fully sustained their reputation. As a specialty in the first act Miss Daisy Lewis danced the Sailor's hornpipe and recited "The Union Jack of Old England." During the same act Miss Gussie Graham sang "You can't play in one back yard." Mrs. A. E. Cooper sang two solos in a charming manner between the acts. The parts of the First Lord's sisters, cousins and aunts, sailors, etc., were taken by the following chorus:
Mrs. B. Pegg, Mrs. P. J. Watt, Miss L.
O'Mara, Miss P. Hennessy, Miss L.
Pawer, Miss K. McLaughlin, Miss L. Mc-Laughlin, Miss L. Bond, Miss L. Bond, Miss P. Pendergast, Miss L. Pendergast, Miss L. L. Taylor, Miss A. Taylor, Miss L. Stevens, Miss S. Stanley, Miss E.
Lighthouse, Miss B. Cruickshank, Miss M.
Cruickshank, Miss L. Childs, Miss E.
Quick, Miss B. Dale, W. H. Shortt, W. H.
Irving, W. C. Cook, E. J. Cook, J. H.
Perival, W. A. Martin, E. C. Rossie,

Union Lodge, A. F. and A. M., G. R. C., may well feel pleased with the result of their venture.

A MOTHER'S STORY.
She Tells How Her Daughter Regained Health After the Doctors Had Given Her Up—How Others Suffering.

Mrs. Walker, of Verona, Ont., writes as follows: "I believe it to be my duty to let the public know what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for my daughter Emma, in the hope that her experience may be the means of pointing out the way to recovered health to some other sufferer.
My daughter had been troubled with pain in the head and shoulders for over two years. She was very pale in color, easily tired and capable of but very little exertion. Every month she would bleed at the nose, sometimes for two or three days at a time. The doctor who attended her said she was in a decline, and he had but little hope of her living any length of time.
We tried many remedies but with no good results. Sometimes she would rally for a few days but always sunk back to a weaker condition than before.
She had discontinued going to school, and as the winter advanced her anguish became so bad that both ourselves and our friends thought she would not live long. I had read much about your Pink Pills and we determined to give them a trial. Before she had finished the second box there was a decided improvement in her condition, and, after taking the pills for about two weeks, she was as well and hearty as could wish to see. She constantly gained in flesh, her color returned, and although a considerable period has now elapsed since she discontinued taking the pills, there has been no sign of a relapse, and she is stronger than ever she was before. We are satisfied that when our daughter began the use of Pink Pills she was in consumption, and the same opinion was held by our neighbors, who can testify as to what great wonders Pink Pills have worked in her case.
