COMING WINTER.
Ay, thou art welcome, heaven's delicious breath,
When woods begin to wear the crimson leaf,
And suns grow meek, and the meek suns grow brief,
And the year smiles as it draws near its death.
Wind of the Sunny South! oh, still delay
In the gay woods and in the golden air.
Like to a good old age released from care,
Journeying in long serenity away.
In such a bright, late quiet, would that I
Might wear out life like these, 'mid hawthorn and brooks,
And, dearer yet, the sunshine of kind looks,
And music of kind voices ever nigh;
And when my last day twinkled in the glass,
Pass silently from men, as thou dost pass.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD.
Facts About Food Worth Knowing.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause crying and pain.

Grape-Nuts Food can be taken at any time with the certainty that it will digest. Actual experience of people is valuable to anyone who is troubled with indigestion for about four years, ever since an attack of typhoid fever, and at times could eat nothing but the very lightest food, and then suffer such agony with my stomach I would wish I never had to eat anything. I was urged to try Grape-Nuts Food, and since using it I do not have to starve myself any more, but I can eat it at any time and feel nourished and satisfied, and dyspepsia is a thing of the past.

"When my stomach used to have that burning, hungry sensation, my heart would flutter, just as sufferers with stomach trouble know about, and when I was so weak I could hardly walk I would get up and get some Grape-Nuts and cream and eat them, and the trouble would stop right away, and I kept growing better and better."

"My husband also had an experience with Grape-Nuts Food. He was very weak and sickly in the spring. Could not attend to his work. He was put under the doctor's care, but medicine did not seem to do him any good until he began to leave off ordinary food and to eat Grape-Nuts. It was positively surprising to see the change in him. He grew better right off, and naturally he is none but words of praise for Grape-Nuts."

"Our boy thinks he cannot eat a meal without he has Grape-Nuts, and he learns so fast at school that his teachers and other scholars comment on it. I am satisfied that it is because of the great nourishing elements in Grape-Nuts."

"It is a pity that people do not know what to feed their children. There are many mothers who feed their youngsters on almost any kind of food, and when they become sick begin to pour the medicine down their throats. The real way is to stick to proper food and be healthy and get along without the medicine and expense."

—The Tigers were well content with the treatment, both in the game and elsewhere, and their captain said that London had the fastest scrimmage the Tigers had ever been up against, and that the London team picked up greatly in the last half and if the game had continued the chances for Hamilton would have been dark.

—Mr. Jack Howe referred to the satisfaction of both teams. The only kick coming from Hamilton was on the ruling on an off-side play which gave London the chance, which they took, to score. No one was injured in the play and no ill-feeling arose. The line-up:

FOOTBALL.
LONDON LOST.
London defeated yesterday at Tecumseh Park by Hamilton's stalwart Tigers, one of the fastest and most powerful teams in the Dominion. It was a battle of weight. The tigers were heavy and won. The Tigers were not a bit faster than the home team, and the game seemed to be nothing but a tangle of sweaters, all kinds of legs, and all the other football bric-a-brac, the egg-shaped silver pigskin being seldom coming within view of the spectators. That London stood the racket the way they did is very much to their credit, as Hennessy, Field and Hudson were unable to be present. They would have added much to the strength of the team, although the lighter players made some fine plays. When the game was over, the whistle for the last time the score stood 7 to 4.

When the Tigers lined up shortly after three, they immediately created the impression that if weight were to win the fight, the result might be decided beforehand. The Tigers averaged about 180 pounds each and every player was well "schooled."

Both teams were in excellent condition—London, the best, if anything, as they showed in the last half.

The Tigers' first move was a rush; they had won the move and were kicking with the wind, and while the opponents took each other's measure, the impression that if weight were to win the fight, the result might be decided beforehand. The Tigers averaged about 180 pounds each and every player was well "schooled."

play, and was checked and carried fifteen yards across the line for a safety touch.

Hamilton 3, London 0.
The ball was pushed by the Tigers to the 25-yard line. After scrimmaging, it was worked to the line by Guy, where he was checked, but not before scoring the touch down.

Hamilton 7, London 0.
Frank Reid made a splendid rush, followed by a shorter one by Frank Taylor, which carried the pigskin to the 10-yard line. Here London's highest hopes were dashed, by the unwelcome whistle for half time.

In the second half Hamilton failed to score. The rest seemed to have reversed the fortunes of both teams. The Tigers' scrimmage had weakened, and London's whole team seemed much strengthened. Clean, short runs by F. Taylor and MacMahon were the first steps of London's success. Hamilton secured the ball again, but the return kick by Taylor to touch was a clean prolonged and desperate set of scrimmages ever seen on the local gridiron.

At last a free kick for London broke the monotonous proceedings. It was followed by one from the Tigers. McNee caught the ball and gained ten yards. After several more moves the scrimmage of London made the strongest rush of the day, the stout stalwart Tigers were unable to check the onslaught, and London scored. McNee failed to convert.
