LOCAL MARKET.

London, Wednesday, Oct. 18. On account of the rain there wa ket this morning. There was but one oad of hay offered, which sold at $8 per ton. The buyers have orders for about 20 loads of hay, therefore there will be a good demand at Thursday

Oats are wanted by the buyers.

WEEKLY REVIEW. The markets held here during the past six days were about up to the The demand in all lines was airly brisk. Prices as a rule were a hade firmer.

Grain-There is hardly enough oats offered at present to supply the wants the buyers. Prices are firm at 92c The buyers say that o 94c per cwt. he farmers are holding their oats in xpectation that prices will be coniderable higher later on than at present. While this year's crop of oats ave not yielded as well as expected. he crop, however, is considerably arger than last year's. The farmers Ontario will have to compete with he price of Mani ba oats, which it is aid, can be laid down here at 28c to per bushel, which is over 2c per holesale, and 22c per dozen, retail. Fruits—Peaches are about done for his season. There is a better deman r apples, which sell at 60c to 90c p bag, for medium class, or $1 50 to ber barrel. Snows are scarce at 31 per bushel. Grapes are plentiful 20c to 25c per 10-pound basket Chestunts are in brisk demand at $4 o $5 per bushel.

Potatoes-As yet the grocers have not put many in their cellars for win-ter use. What is being offered sell ite readily at 65c per bag wholesale. Poultry-There is an excellent denand in this line. The quality of mos the fowls offered is of the thin. craggy kind. Prices rule at 45c to 55c er pair for chickens alive, and 55c to per pair dressed. Ducks sell at 60c o 75c per pair alive, and 70c to 90c essed. Old fowl sell at 5c per pound live, or 8c per pound dressed. Tureys bring 10c per pound alive, or 12c

Dressed Hogs-The demand is fairly risk at $8 75 to $9 per cwt. Live Hogs-Prices paid here last onday were $5 75 and $5 85 percwt. ne prices for next Monday's shipment uld not be ascertained. Butchers' Meat-Lamb is scarce, and ospects are that prices will be fir some time to come. The batcher y that the farmers are asking gher price now for culls than the a couple of months ago for their poice lambs. Prices ruled mostly at c per pound by the carcass.
