Premier Drury said he did not like the principle of members voting bonuses t themselves immediately after an election. He thought the proper time was immediately before an election. Last year, and this year, however, circumtances had been unusual. The sessions had been prolonged and the cost of living high.

H. H. Dewart said members had done much of their time to their duties. The Government in granting a bonus was doing the fair and decent thing.

The item was passed without one onservative member expressing an

KONOWAL NOT GUILTY OWING TO INSANITY, IS JURY'S VERDICT

Murder Trial Concluded Today After Lasting Full Week.

OTTAWA, April 20 .- The unanimity of the medical experts called for both the prosecution and defence as to the mental derangement of Filip Konowal, VC., when he stabbed and killed Will Artick at Hull in the summer of 1919 resulted in the jury at the Hull criminal assizes bringing in a verdict of "not gullty owing to insanity" after but a short deliberation tonight, after a trial which lasted a week. Judge Cousineau, in a brief address to the jury, pointed out that Konowal had spent three or four years in the war, in which all his attention had been devoted to the killing of men. He had received injuries in France which had caused organic disease of the brain, so that on his return to Canada when the occasion had arisen he had reverted to

Mentally Deranged. The crown had established, the judge continued, without a chadow of a doubt that Konowal had killed Artick, but he had done so while mentally deranged. He told the jury that justice would be served if they brought in a verdict of not guilty on the grounds of the insanity

Following the rendering of the verdict, Jurge Cousineau ordered that Konowal be kept in strictest custody in the district prison, pending the pleasure of the lieutenant-governor, and the prisoner
