

DOMINION NEWS NOTES

Waterworks Officials at Ottawa "Knocking Down" Taxes—The Quebec Liberals' Idol.

Life Insurance Directors Clamor for a Dividend—No Prospect for General Election.

LEAK IN WATERWORKS OFFICE. Ottawa, Nov. 2.—Ald. Campbell, chairman of the Ottawa waterworks committee, admitted when questioned by Ald. Morris that the practice of giving receipts to citizens for payment of water rates and not making a return of the moneys paid was prevalent amongst the officials of the department. This startling disclosure was made to the committee by G. O. Mann, a dismissed official awaiting trial for misappropriation of the city funds. A thorough investigation of the waterworks and other departments will be made.

ONTARIO ELECTIONS. North Essex, Nov. 1.—The protest against W. J. McKee, Liberal, was dismissed this morning at Oshesheo. Colborne, Nov. 1.—The East North-Underland election protest trial is not yet concluded. It will likely be over this afternoon and the charges of corruption having been maintained, though the judges concluded to hear evidence on the matter.

LONDON STREET RAILWAY. London, Nov. 2.—President Everett has refused to concede the modified demands of the street railway men. The men met again this morning, and decided to make a further slight concession and sent an ultimatum to the company. If the company refuses, the strike will continue. The company will be forced to run cars in a few days at the outside, and there is the gravest apprehension as to the results.

INSURANCE DIVIDENDS. Toronto, Nov. 1.—There was a heated meeting of the directors of the Excelsior Life Assurance Co., of which J. P. Clarke, M.P., is managing director. No dividend has been paid since the organization of the company, and Mr. Clarke being manager all the time. A resolution was passed practically censuring Mr. Clarke for not acting up to his agreement with the company, and Mr. Clarke put in his resignation. This will be considered at a special meeting of the directors next week.

A LIBERAL IDOL. Montreal, Nov. 2.—That the memory of Honore Mercier, ex-Premier of Quebec, is still green in the hearts of many of his French-Canadian countrymen was shown by the thousands of people who visited his grave yesterday. It is just four years to-day since Mr. Mercier passed away, and it is becoming the custom for the French-Canadian liberal clubs to decorate the grave. Hitherto the ceremony has been attended by a speech, but this year Archbishop Bruchési declined to make the speech, and a Liberal club gathered at the Monument Nationale and proceeded to the cemetery, where they erected a monument to the tomb. All the Liberal clubs sent either natural or metallic flowers.

A BOY SHOT. Kingston, Nov. 2.—Morris Grimshaw, aged 19, son of Hector Grimshaw, a hotel-keeper, was killed in the accidental discharge of a gun.

GLOBE LOAN AND SAVINGS CO. COR. OF VICTORIA AND LOMBARD STREETS, TORONTO. E. W. Day, Manager Globe Loan and Savings Co., says: "I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment invaluable. We have thousands of testimonials from prominent business men all over the Dominion."

LIQUOR ON PLEBISCITE DAY. Proceedings for Fines for Its Sale Held to Be for Civil and Not Criminal Counts.

In the Montreal police court last week Judge Desnoyers delivered judgment in the case of Hector Cloutier, bartender, accused of having sold liquor to Gedeon Leblanc on the plebiscite voting day. He said:

"The prosecution is based on article 83 of the Federal Election Act, S.C., chapter 8, which forbids the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors on hotels, etc., on the day of the plebiscite. The purpose of the prohibition is the question of prohibition to the electors the same proceedings as near as possible shall be had in the case of the general Dominion election."

To this action, the defendant pleads, first, that the legislation (the act, etc.) is ultra vires of the Federal Parliament. Second, that the police court has no jurisdiction to hear the case. Third, that the offence is charged in too vague terms. Fourth, a general denial.

"I do not think it necessary to say more than that the offence is charged in too vague terms. Fourth, a general denial. It is elementary that justices of the peace and courts of inferior jurisdiction had no power beyond those vested in them specifically. In the present case the complainant claims that this court is vested with the necessary authority by virtue of section 106 of the said Federal election act, which says: 'That all penalties and forfeitures other than fines in cases of misdemeanors, or enforceable with all costs of suit, by any person who sues for the same by action of debt or information in any court of competent jurisdiction.'

"The complainant contends that the words 'information' in section 106, show the intention of the parliament was that such penalties and forfeitures may be prosecuted in the criminal court. I cannot admit that view. The statute names 'information' as a matter of fact 'information' and is used in civil as well as in criminal cases. The tenor of said section 106, as well as the sections following, namely 107 and 108, indicates that the penalties enforced under the Federal election act are to be met by civil proceedings. The act itself shows this clearly by the exception it makes between crimes (other than fines in cases of misdemeanors) and misdemeanors which shall be prosecuted by information."

"I have very great doubts whether section 83 of the election act applies to the plebiscite polling day at all. Section 8 of the said act reads: 'Whoever contravenes the provisions of this act shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $100, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.' This section is dismissed with costs."

JERUSALEM AS IT IS.

The Holy City as the Kaiser Has Seen It—German Protestant Interests in Holy Land.

Greater activity in pushing forward municipal improvements and other public works exists just now in and about Jerusalem than has before been witnessed in modern times. Roads throughout the country are being repaired and new ones constructed. The ancient mule tracks up Scopus and over the Mount of Olives, which served Titus and his men of war along with the Jews from Absalom as he was stoned and cursed by Simeon, and which have been climed by generations of Jesuites and Jews, Roman Catholics and Christians, pilgrims and tourists, are being replaced by a modern carriage road, built at the wish of the German Emperor, that may be able to reach these sacred sites without fatigue. The Jaffa gate of Jerusalem, which has been used as a carriage road for entering the city, is to be appropriated to pedestrians, while a wide entrance for carriages on the south of the city, and between it and the Mount of David, is being made by filling up the old moat of the citadel.

All this preparation, and much more, is undertaken in view of the approaching visit of the German Emperor, when he is to dedicate the imposing new German church, called the Church of the Redeemer, which is just being completed. The other several German enterprises here—the new German hospital, the Leprosy Hospital, the German orphanage and the hospice of the Knights of St. John—are all under the supervision of the German Emperor, who is to be accompanied by a royal visit. The expenditure of public money and attention in view of this event shows the popularity which the German Emperor enjoys in the Ottoman dominions. Everything indicates a most enthusiastic reception from all classes of the Sultan's subjects. Even the fallahs of the villages and the boatmen of Jaffa gladly pay, with many expressions of devotion, the tax of about 5 shillings the head required to pay for this road building.

There is much in the history of the site of the new German church that is well worth noting. It occupies the eastern half of the large inclosure to the south of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, known as the "Garden of Gethsemane," has historic mention as early as the reign of Charlemagne, who devoted much attention to the holy places of Jerusalem. In 1070, under the rule of Haekem, after his death in 1072, the ground was given to the west through Italian seaports, and churches were rebuilt. In 1063 merchants of the city of Amalfi, in the Kingdom of Naples, were invited to settle in Jerusalem, and to build a church, which was dedicated to the Holy Spirit. This church was destroyed by the Turks in 1517. The Emperor William II. is now building a new church, which is to be dedicated to the Holy Spirit. The Emperor is to be accompanied by a royal visit. The expenditure of public money and attention in view of this event shows the popularity which the German Emperor enjoys in the Ottoman dominions. Everything indicates a most enthusiastic reception from all classes of the Sultan's subjects. Even the fallahs of the villages and the boatmen of Jaffa gladly pay, with many expressions of devotion, the tax of about 5 shillings the head required to pay for this road building.

The experiment was followed by the Sultan, who is to be accompanied by a royal visit. The expenditure of public money and attention in view of this event shows the popularity which the German Emperor enjoys in the Ottoman dominions. Everything indicates a most enthusiastic reception from all classes of the Sultan's subjects. Even the fallahs of the villages and the boatmen of Jaffa gladly pay, with many expressions of devotion, the tax of about 5 shillings the head required to pay for this road building.

Within the corner stone was placed a document written by the present Emperor, eloquently rehashing the main facts connected with the history of the ground; extolling the desire of the Emperor to give to the world an example of the various German enterprises in co-operation with the Sultan, and giving visible credit to the Sultan, who is to be accompanied by a royal visit. The expenditure of public money and attention in view of this event shows the popularity which the German Emperor enjoys in the Ottoman dominions. Everything indicates a most enthusiastic reception from all classes of the Sultan's subjects. Even the fallahs of the villages and the boatmen of Jaffa gladly pay, with many expressions of devotion, the tax of about 5 shillings the head required to pay for this road building.

A KLONDIKER'S ROMANCE. Followed His Runaway Wife to London Whence They Return Happily Reunited.

News-Advertiser Correspondence. London, Oct. 15.—The real story of Van Alstine, the Klondiker, and his wife, is well known in Vancouver, but Vancouverites may be interested to read in the Daily Mail. That paper says:

An affair which resembles a story, half Bret Harte and half Dickens in real life, has just ended nicely and happily in London. The story begins in Klondike, where C. Van Alstine, a young man, was engaged to a young woman, the daughter of a wealthy merchant. The young man, who was a Klondiker, was very successful, and had accumulated a large fortune. He returned to London, and his wife followed him. They were reunited, and lived happily ever after.
