BRIGHTON BEACH, June 15,-The selling of auction pools was allowed at the race to day. First race, a mile-won by Lucy to day. First race, a mile—won by Lucy Lewis, Bruton 2d, Turmeric 3d; time 1.17. Second race—won by Dizzy Blonde, Disturbance 2d, Frank 3d; time 1.43. Disturbance, the aged Canadian bred, by Terror out of Lucy, was only beaten a short head by the aged daughter of Chillicothe (strangely enough sire of the steeplechaser Disturbance) and Lady Harper. The Canadian division narrowly escaped pulling off a good thing as the betting was 10 to 1 against Disturbance, the latter's trainer haying forty on to four hundred.

Third race, 1 mile—Hickory Jim was left at the post; Kishba won by a neck, with Mike's Pride 2d, Emma Manley 3d; time 1.44\frac{1}{2}. Mutuals paid $66.90. Pools on Mike's Pride for a place paid $72.55. Fourth race, Brooklyn Eagle stakes, 1\frac{1}{2}\text{miles—Royal Arch won with case, Pallmurus 2d, Jennings 3d; time 2.13. Spring Races of the A. E. C. The usual spring At Home of the A. R. C. was held on Saturday afternoon, a good attendance, including a large proportion of ladies, being present. The Scratch Four races, which were rowed off at the same time, were very well contested. The course was from the N. R. elevator to a buoy moored opposite the club house.

The first race was called at about 3.15, the following crews starting: Blue-J. Pearson, H. W. Fitton, M. F. Holden, H. F. Whyatt, stroke; white—A. Fraser, L. McMurray, M. Mackenzie, A. W. Morphy, stroke. This race was one of the best of the day, and for the first half seemed to be in Morphy's hands; but his crew were unable to keep the pace and were, beaten by Whyatt's crew by about quarter of a length.

by Whyatt's crew by about quarter of a length.

The crews in the second heat were: Bite—D. Sampson, W. F. Brock, J. B. Kilgour, V. Armstrong, (stroke). White—F. W. Fitzgerald, A. O. Beardmore, M. Kertland, E. Heaton, (stroke). Contrary to expectation, Armstrong's crew had their hands full in winning. Heaton's crew led till about opposite the clock of the Union station, when Armstrong's crew passed with a aplendid spurt and won by a quarter of a length.

In the third heat the following teams started: Blue—J. Ince, A. B. Parker, J. G. S. Pepler, J. Scott, (stroke). White, W. Fair, A. F. Campbell, J. B. Kay, A. D. McLean, (stroke). Owing to the good form of Scott's crew and the poor steering of their opponents, Scott had a walk over.

The fourth heat was between Armstrong and Whyatt's crews, and was very close. Whyatt soon managed to get a length to the good, and kept it till the close of the race.

The final heat called at 6 30. brought out while Whyatt had had two hard struggles for victory. The Scott crew got a lead of a length in the first hundred yards, which they had increased to a length and a half at the finish. The prizes were presented by Miss O'Brien, and the president wound up the entertainment with a characteristic speech.

The London papers speak very harshly of Tindall's umpiring on Saturday and insinuate that where he had a chance he gave his decisions in lavor of the themeteam. If Mystic read something of St. Themas he would not ask such a childish question as the one referred to. There exists too much undervaluing of the great writers of the middle, or as some call them, the dark ages. I dely any of our Latin or Greek scholars of to-day to attempt to equal, much less surpass, the style and elegance of those writers of the middle ages. Will Mystic try?
