Thursday Morning, Jan. 21, 1886.

Respectfully Talk in Washington—And in Canada.

Monday was a quiet day in the American senate on the fishery question. Mr. Frye of Maine led off with a resolution declaring that it is not in the interest of the United States to enter into any negotiations with Great Britain on the subject.

The leaders of both parties are agreed as to the above probability. They are both in favor of an extension of the present administration, and that they may remain until they have had an opportunity of confronting one another once more at the polls in the fall.

The Rev. Joseph Cook says that "the (the people of the United States) are the most drunken race on the planet." Like most eloquent men Joseph is not noted for his delicacy of expression.

The Detroit Free Press reports the establishment in Windsor, by a company of 100, of a factory for the manufacture of paper, ink, etc. Were it not for the N. P. these things could be manufactured in Detroit for the Canadian market just as profitably as in Windsor.

Weather forecasts from various quarters agree that the spell of the early part of the present year is to be succeeded by a pretty hard spell for the end of it. A big cold wave is coming right down upon you.

The Central Library Magazine. Editor World: To-day I called at a King street newsdealer's shop and saw on the counter an American reprint of the Fortnightly Review for the current month.

Malaria is the action of disease germs in the air, poor drainage, swampy regions, etc., upon the system, producing chills, fever, neuralgia and many dangerous diseases. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the bile, liver and blood, and wards off and cures malaria.

Small Prospect of a Disruption. There was little of significance in Sir John A. Macdonald's speech to his administration Ottawa friends, save its character.

speech for the occasion, and the opposition did not call for either reflections or retorts, although there must have been many thoughts in the minds of both speaker and audience.

We take it that there will be no general election this year. The Mall's ghost story about the intention of the premier to go to the country at once upon the return of the French conservatives from their recent visit to the United States.

With this end in view a representative of the press called on Dr. Henson in his residence on Andrew street, with the following interview occurred: "That article of yours, Doctor, is a masterpiece of a white-hot indignation."

It is true that Bright's disease has increased in prevalence, and we are many times called on to treat it. It is a disease of the kidney, and is caused by a variety of causes, such as overeating, drinking, and exposure to cold.

JUST AS BAD AS PAINTED.

Whispered conversations caused by the very confidentially. The story published in these columns recently, from the Rochester, N. Y. Democrat and Chronicle, is a deal of comment here in Toronto.

Dr. J. H. Henson, who is well known not only in Rochester, but in nearly every part of America, sent an extended article on this paper a few days ago which was duly published, and has since been widely read.
