THINK EXEMPTION UNFAIRLY FIXED

Widow Able to Work Has Advantage of Present Plan

FRANCHISE CLUB SAYS
Brantford Organization Will Send Delegation to Toronto

BRANTFORD, Oct. 29.—The Equal Franchise Club will send a protest to the Government against the $300 exemption on unearned incomes, on the ground that a widow, staying home to mind her children, and therefore unable to go out and earn, but who lived in her income is unduly burdened. When she had no children and could go out to work she would receive exemption on earned income up to $2,000 and, in addition, exemption of $200 for each child. The protest will be followed up by a deputation to Toronto.

OBJECT TO REGULATION.
Brantford Anti-Vaccination League has forwarded a protest to the Board of Health against prohibition of any unvaccinated children attending the local schools. The league regards any such restrictions as an arbitrary and unnecessary proceeding and unfair discrimination against children of conscientious objectors to vaccination. If no action follows a public meeting will be called to air grievances.

In police court this morning Mrs. D. Marlett charged her husband with non-support, etc. It turned out that the "et cetera" was that the heads of her children were being affected by their gas stove, from which emanated the fumes of Tibbury gas, with its high content of sulphurated hydrogen. The city has protested, only to be told that it can take it or leave it. The gas company refused to take the connection out and the magistrate ruled that the best thing to be done was to make repairs and by means of a flue to carry away the fumes.

TENDERS FOR SUBWAY.
The board of works has decided to call for tenders for the St. Paul avenue subway, and will also have the city engineer's department tender. The original estimate set the cost at $40,000 but it is believed now that the total will read $60,000, and there are some aldermen who favor laying over the work.

WOULD INCREASE GUELPH CAR FARE

Railways Committee Also Recommends More Capital
CUT OUT O. A. C. LOOP
Council Will Be Asked to Cancel Hydro Sale Agreement

GUELPH, Oct. 29.—Important changes in connection with the operation of the Guelph Street Railway will come into effect at an early date. If recommendations from the railways and the manufacturers' committee of the City Council are adopted at the regular meeting on Monday night.

These recommendations come in the wake of the definite refusal of Premier Drury, as expressed to a deputation which waited on him this afternoon, that the Government will never consent to the Ontario Hydro Commission taking over the local street railway under the terms of agreement voted on and approved by the ratepayers of Guelph last January.

INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK.
The committee will not only recommend that the hydro purchase agreement be declared null and void, but will also ask the Council's approval of the following: To apply to the next sitting of the Legislature for permission to increase the capital stock of the Guelph Radial Railway Company by $250,000, to apply for an act authorizing the company to increase its street car fares from five to seven cents, or four tickets for 25 cents, with double fare for after 11 o'clock at night; to do away with the loop trip at the O. A. C. and shorten the Woolwich street and York road lines. In addition the Council will be asked to close the Speedwell Hospital line as soon as that institution shuts down as a military hospital.

—If the recommendations be adopted by the Council the ratepayers will be asked to approve the expenditure of about $200,000 to put the railway in first-class physical condition.

To-day is the Day of Canada's Opportunity

Will YOU Help Her to Grasp It?

Opportunity does not often knock at the doors of nations or individuals, and when it does it should be grasped. To-day is the day of Canada's opportunity. Hundreds of thousands—nay, millions—of people in other lands are only too anxious to join their lots with us.

Capital will pour into the country because we have the natural resources which the world now sorely needs.

But we won't get more capital, and we won't get more population unless we show that we have a sane outlook; that we intend to build up a great and unified nation; that we believe in the doctrine of earnest work; and that we realize that we must stick together and work together.

If we divide on class and sectional lines, the process of unification and nation-building will be arrested, if not permanently checked.

The great glory of Canada is that there is no limit to the extent to which any man or woman may develop, mentally and materially, by industry and application. It is the greatest land of opportunity in every sphere of human activity in all the world, and under our methods of doing business, there are no restrictions—granted honesty and square dealings—to individual human progress.

No matter how lowly the start in life may be of any young man or woman, here they find ample scope and opportunity to rise in the world, according to the measure of their intelligent endeavor. Nothing must be allowed to interfere with these happy conditions. We must see that this great glory and these conditions are perpetuated, not only for our own sakes but for those of our children and our children's children; and we must frown upon and stamp out any attempt to restrain legitimate human ambition.

The plain duty of the hour is to think straight, to take a good square look at ourselves and our conditions, and to resolve that we will know for a surety the wisdom of every step—that we will have none of the nostrums of the political theorist and agitator—that we will not be led astray by any ism or theory—and will work out our salvation, keep pace with all that is best in this new age, and recommence the work halted by the war, that of making this a great nation of happy, contented and prosperous people.
